

Bare Act

The Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948

Corrida Legal presents the Bare Act Series, sourced from official texts and supported with an executive summary designed to help readers grasp the essence of the law with ease.

NOTE: An Executive Summary of the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948 is included towards the end of this document, right after the full bare act of the statute. This summary helps professionals, business owners, compliance officers, HR managers, legal practitioners, and students quickly understand the key provisions relating to the establishment of the Employees' State Insurance Corporation (ESIC), contribution by employers and employees, eligibility of employees for medical and cash benefits, coverage of dependants, benefits relating to sickness, maternity, disability, and employment injury, obligations of employers, penalties for non-compliance, and enforcement mechanisms, without having to read the entire text. The Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948 Summary provides a clear, practical, and time-saving guide for anyone looking to understand India's employee welfare and health insurance framework, ensure statutory compliance in social security benefits, manage workforce welfare effectively, and stay aligned with regulatory requirements under the ESI Act bare act.

EMPLOYEES' STATE INSURANCE ACT, 1948

[Act No. 34 of Year 1948, dated 19th. April, 1948]

An Act to provide for certain benefits to employees in case of sickness, maternity and employment injury and to make provision for certain other matters in relation thereto

Whereas it is expedient to provide for certain benefits to employees in case of sickness, maternity and employment injury and to make provision for certain other matters in relation thereto;

It is hereby enacted as follows: -

CHAPTER I : PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent, commencement and application

(1) This Act may be called the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948.

(2) It extends to the whole of India ¹[].

(3) It shall come into force on such ²date or dates as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint, and different dates may be appointed for different provisions of this Act and ³[for different States or for different parts thereof].

(4) It shall apply, in the first instance, to all factories (including factories belonging to the government) other than seasonal factories:

⁴[PROVIDED that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to a factory or establishment belonging to or under the control of the government whose employees are otherwise in receipt of benefits substantially similar or superior to the benefits provided under this Act.]

(5) The appropriate government may, in consultation with the Corporation and ⁵[where the appropriate government is a State Government, with the approval of the Central Government], after giving six months' notice of its intention of so doing by notification in the Official Gazette, extend the provisions of this Act or any of them, to any other establishment or class of establishments, industrial, commercial, agricultural or otherwise :

⁶[PROVIDED that where the provisions of this Act have been brought into force in any part of a State, the said provisions shall stand extended to any such establishment or class of establishments within that part if the provisions have already been extended to similar establishment or class of establishments in another part of that State.]

⁴[(6) A factory or an establishment to which this Act applies shall continue to be governed by this Act notwithstanding that the number of persons employed therein at any time falls below the limit specified by or under this Act or the manufacturing process therein ceases to be carried on with the aid of power.]

- (a) if he is declared to be of unsound mind by a competent court; or
- (b) if he is an undischarged insolvent; or
- (c) if he has directly or indirectly by himself or by his partner any interest in a subsisting contract with, or any work being done for, the Corporation except as a medical practitioner or as a shareholder (not being a director) of a company; or
- (d) if before or after the commencement of this Act, he has been convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude.

14. Filling of vacancies

(1) Vacancies in the office of ⁴⁸[appointed] or elected members of the Corporation, the Standing Committee and the Medical Benefit Council shall be filled by ⁵⁰[appointment] or election, as the case may be.

(2) A member of the Corporation, the Standing Committee or the Medical Benefit Council ⁴⁸[appointed] or elected to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office only so long as the member in whose place he is ⁴⁸[appointed] or elected would have been entitled to hold office, if the vacancy had not occurred.

15. Fees and allowances

Members of the Corporation, the Standing Committee and the Medical Benefit Council shall receive such fees and allowances as may from time to time be prescribed by the Central Government.

16. Principal officers

⁵⁰[(1) The Central Government may, in consultation with the Corporation, appoint a director general and a financial commissioner.]

(2) The director general shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation.

(3) ⁵¹[The director general and the financial commissioner] shall be whole-time officers of the Corporation and shall not undertake any work unconnected with their office without the sanction of the Central Government ⁴⁴[and of the Corporation.]

(4) ⁵¹[The director general or the financial commissioner] shall hold office for such period, not exceeding five years, as may be specified in the order appointing him. An outgoing ⁵²[director general or financial commissioner] shall be eligible for re-appointment if he is otherwise qualified.

(5) ⁵¹[The director general or the financial commissioner] shall receive such salary and allowances as may be prescribed by the Central Government.

(6) A person shall be disqualified from being ⁴⁸[appointed] as or for being ⁵²[The Director General or the Financial Commissioner] if he is subject to any of the disqualifications specified in section 13.

7. The Central Government may at any time remove ⁵²[the director general or the financial commissioner] from office and shall do so if such removal is recommended by a resolution of the Corporation passed at a special meeting called for the purpose and supported by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the total strength of the Corporation.

17. Staff

(1) The Corporation may employ such other staff of officers and servants as may be necessary for the efficient transaction of its business provided that the sanction of the Central Government shall be obtained for the creation of any post ⁵³[the maximum monthly salary of which ⁵⁴[exceeds such salary as may be prescribed by the Central Government.]]

⁵⁵[(2)(a) The method of recruitment, salary and allowances, discipline and other conditions of service of the members of the staff of the Corporation shall be such as may be specified in the regulations made by the Corporation in accordance with the rules and orders applicable to the officers and employees of the Central Government drawing corresponding scales of pay:

PROVIDED that where the Corporation is of the opinion that it is necessary to make a departure from the said rules or orders in respect of any of the matters aforesaid, it shall obtain the prior approval of the Central Government.

(b) In determining the corresponding scales of pay of the members of the staff under clause (a), the Corporation shall have regard to the educational qualifications, method of recruitment, duties and responsibilities of such officers and employees under the Central Government and in case of any doubt, the Corporation shall refer the matter to the Central Government whose decision thereon shall be final.]

(3) Every appointment to ⁵⁶[posts ⁶[(other than medical posts)]] corresponding to ⁵⁷[Group A and Group B] posts under Central Government], shall be made in consultation with the ⁵⁸[Union] Public Service Commission:

PROVIDED that this sub-section shall not apply to an officiating or temporary ⁴⁸[appointment] for ⁵⁹[a period] not exceeding one year:

⁴[PROVIDED FURTHER that any such officiating or temporary appointment shall not confer any claim for regular appointment and the services rendered in that capacity shall not count towards seniority or minimum qualifying service specified in the regulations for promotion to next higher grade.]

⁵⁸[(4) If any question arises whether a post corresponds to a ⁶[Group A and Group B] post under the Central Government, the question shall be referred to that government whose decision thereon shall be final.]

18. Powers of the Standing Committee

(1) Subject to the general superintendence and control of the Corporation, the Standing Committee shall administer the affairs of the Corporation and may exercise any of the powers and perform any of the functions of the Corporation.

(2) The Standing Committee shall submit for the consideration and decision of the Corporation all such cases and matters as may be specified in the regulations made in this behalf.

(3) The Standing Committee may, in its discretion, submit any other case or matter for the decision of the Corporation.

19. Corporation's power to promote measures for health, etc. of insured persons

The Corporation may, in addition to the scheme of benefits specified in this Act, promote measures for the improvement of the health and welfare of insured persons and for the rehabilitation and re-employment of insured persons who have been disabled or injured and may incur in respect of such measures expenditure from the funds of the Corporation within such limits as may be prescribed by the Central Government.

20. Meetings of Corporation, Standing Committee and Medical Benefit Council

Subject to any rules made under this Act, the Corporation, the Standing Committee and the Medical Benefit Council shall meet at such times and places and shall observe such rules or procedure in regard to transaction of business at their meetings as may be specified in the regulations made in this behalf.

21. Supersession of the Corporation and Standing Committee

(1) If in the opinion of the Central Government, the Corporation or the Standing Committee persistently makes default in performing the duties imposed on it by or under this Act or abuses its powers, that government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, supersede the Corporation, or in the case of the Standing Committee, supersede, in consultation with the Corporation, the Standing Committee:

PROVIDED that before issuing a notification under this sub-section the Central Government shall give a reasonable opportunity to the Corporation or the Standing Committee, as the case may be, to show cause why it should not be superseded and shall consider the explanations and objections, if any, of the Corporation or the Standing Committee, as the case may be.

(2) Upon the publication of a notification under sub-section (1) superseding the Corporation or the Standing Committee, all the members of the Corporation or the Standing Committee, as the case may be, shall, as from the date of such publication, be deemed to have vacated their offices.

(3) When the Standing Committee has been superseded, a new standing Committee shall be immediately constituted in accordance with section 8.

(4) When the Corporation has been superseded, the Central Government may-

(a) immediately ²⁷[appoint] or cause to be ²⁷[appointed] or elected new members to the Corporation in accordance with section 4 and may constitute a new Standing Committee under section 8;

(b) in its discretion, appoint such agency, for such period as it may think fit, to exercise the powers and perform the functions of the Corporation and such agency shall be competent to exercise all the powers and perform all the functions of the Corporation.

(5) The Central Government shall cause a full report of any action taken under this section and the circumstances leading to such action to be laid before ⁴³[Parliament] at the earliest opportunity and in any case not later than three months from the date of the notification superseding the Corporation or the Standing Committee as the case may be.

22. Duties of Medical Benefit Council

The Medical Benefit Council shall-

(a) advise ⁶⁰[the Corporation and the Standing Committee] on matters relating to the administration of medical benefit, the certification for purposes of the grant of benefits and other connected matters;

(b) have such powers and duties of investigation as may be prescribed in relation to complaints against medical practitioners in connection with medical treatment and attendance; and

(c) perform such other duties in connection with medical treatment and attendance as may be specified in the regulations.

23. Duties of ⁶¹[Director General and the Financial Commissioner]

The ⁶¹[director general and the financial commissioner] shall exercise such powers and discharge such duties as may be prescribed. They shall also perform such other functions as may be specified in the regulations.

24. Acts of Corporation, etc. not invalid by reason of defect in constitution, etc.

No act of the Corporation, the Standing Committee or the Medical Benefit Council shall be deemed to be invalid by reason of any defect in the constitution of the Corporation, the Standing Committee or the Medical Benefit Council, on the ground that any member thereof was not entitled to hold or continue in office by reason of any disqualification or of any irregularity in his ²⁷[appointment] or election, or by reason of such act having been done during the period of any vacancy in the office of any member of the Corporation, the Standing Committee or the Medical Benefit Council.

25. Regional Boards, Local Committees, Regional and Local Medical Benefit Councils

The Corporation may appoint regional boards, local committees and regional and local Medical Benefit Councils in such areas and in such manner, and delegate to them such powers and functions, as may be provided by the regulations.

CHAPTER III: FINANCE AND AUDIT

26. Employees' State Insurance Fund

(1) All contributions paid under this Act and all other moneys received on behalf of the Corporation shall be paid into a fund called the Employees' State Insurance Fund which shall be held and administered by the Corporation for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Corporation may accept grants, donations and gifts from the Central or any ⁶²[State Government,] ⁶³[] local authority, or any individual or body whether incorporated or not, for all or any of the purposes of this Act.

⁶⁴[(3) Subject to the other provisions contained in this Act and to any rules or regulations made in this behalf, all moneys accruing or payable to the said Fund shall be paid into the Reserve Bank of India or such other bank as may be approved by the Central Government to the credit on an account styled the account of the Employees' State Insurance Fund.]

(4) Such account shall be operated on by such officers as may be authorised by the Standing Committee with the approval of the Corporation.

27. Grant by the Central Government

[Omitted by Act No. 44 of 1966, section 12 (w.e.f. 17th., June, 1967)]

28. Purposes for which the fund may be expended

Subject to the provisions of this Act and of any rules made by the Central Government in that behalf, the Employees' State Insurance Fund shall be expended only for the following purposes, namely:-

(i) payment of benefits and provision of medical treatment and attendance to insured persons and, where the medical benefit is extended to their families, the provision of such medical benefit to their families, in accordance with the provisions of this Act and defraying the charges and costs in connection therewith;

(iii) payment of salaries, leave and joining time allowances, travelling and compensatory allowances, gratuities and compassionate allowances, pensions, contributions to provident or other benefit fund of officers and servants of the Corporation and meeting the expenditure in respect of offices and other services set up for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act;

(iv) establishment and maintenance of hospitals, dispensaries and other institutions and the provisions of medical and other ancillary services for the benefit of insured persons and, where the medical benefit is extended to their families, their families;

(v) payment of contributions to any ⁶²[State Government,] ⁶³[] local authority or any private body or individual, towards the cost of medical treatment and attendance provided to insured persons and, where the medical benefit is extended to their families, their families including the cost of any building and equipment in accordance with any agreement entered into by the Corporation;

(vi) defraying the cost (including all expenses) of auditing the accounts of the Corporation and of the valuation of its assets and liabilities;

(vii) defraying the cost (including all expenses) of the Employees' State Insurance Courts set up under this Act;

(viii) payment of any sums under any contract entered into for the purposes of this Act by the Corporation or the Standing Committee or by any officer duly authorised by the Corporation or the Standing Committee in that behalf;

(ix) payment of sums under any decree, order or award of any Court or Tribunal against the Corporation or any of its officers or servants for any act done in the execution of his duty or under a compromise or settlement of any suit or other legal proceeding or claim instituted or made against the Corporation;

(x) defraying the cost and other charges of instituting or defending any civil or criminal proceedings arising out of any action taken under this Act;

(xi) defraying expenditure, within the limits prescribed, on measures for the improvement of the health and welfare of insured persons and for the rehabilitation and re-employment of insured persons who have been disabled or injured; and

(xii) such other purposes as may be authorised by the Corporation with the previous approval of the Central Government.

⁴[28A. Administrative expenses

The types of expenses which may be termed as administrative expenses and the percentage of the income of the Corporation which may be spent for such expenses shall be such as may be prescribed by the Central Government and the Corporation shall keep its administrative expenses within the limit so prescribed by the Central Government.]

29. Holding of property, etc.

(1) The Corporation may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Central Government, acquire and hold property both movable and immovable, sell or otherwise transfer any movable or immovable property which may have become vested in or have been acquired by it and do all things necessary for the purposes for which the Corporation is established.

(2) Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Central Government, the Corporation may from time to time, invest any moneys which are not immediately required for expenses properly defrayable under this Act and may, subject as aforesaid, from time to time re-invest or realise such investments.

(3) The Corporation may, with the previous sanction of the Central Government and on such terms as may be prescribed by it, raise loans and take measures for discharging such loans.

(4) The Corporation may constitute for the benefit of its staff or any class of them, such provident or other benefit fund as it may think fit.

30. Vesting of the property in the Corporation

All property acquired before the establishment of the Corporation shall vest in the Corporation and all income derived and expenditure incurred in this behalf shall be brought into the books of the Corporation.

31. Expenditure by Central Government to be treated as a loan

[Omitted by Act No. 44 of 1966, section 12 w.e.f. 17th., June, 1967.]

32. Budget estimates

The Corporation shall in each year frame a budget showing the probable receipts and the expenditure which it proposes to incur during the following year and shall submit a copy of the budget for the approval of the Central Government before such date as may be fixed by it in that behalf. The budget shall contain provisions adequate in the opinion of the Central Government for the discharge of the liabilities incurred by the Corporation and for the maintenance of a working balance.

33. Accounts

The Corporation shall maintain correct accounts of its income and expenditure in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed by the Central Government.

¹⁹[34. Audit

(1) The accounts of the Corporation shall be audited annually by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India and any expenditure incurred by him in connection with such audit shall be payable by the Corporation to the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.

(2) The Comptroller and Auditor-General of India and any person appointed by him in connection with the audit of the accounts of the Corporation shall have the same rights and privileges and authority in connection with such audit as the Comptroller and Auditor-General has, in connection with the audit of government accounts and in particular, shall have the right to demand the production of books, account, connected vouchers and other documents and papers and to inspect any of the offices of the Corporation.

(3) The accounts of the Corporation as certified by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India or any other person appointed by him in this behalf together with the audit report thereon shall be forwarded to the Corporation which shall forward the same to the Central Government along with its comments on the report of the Comptroller and Auditor General.]

35. Annual report

The Corporation shall submit to the Central Government an annual report of its work and activities.

36. Budget, audited accounts and the annual report to be placed before

⁴³[Parliament]

The annual report, the audited accounts of the Corporation ⁴⁴[together with ⁶⁵[the report of the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India thereon and the comments of the Corporation on such report] under section 34] and the budget as finally adopted by the Corporation shall be placed before ⁴³[Parliament] ⁶⁶[* * *].

37. Valuation of assets and liabilities

The Corporation shall, at intervals of five years, have a valuation of its assets and liabilities made by a valuer appointed with the approval of the Central Government:

PROVIDED that it shall be open to the Central Government to direct a valuation to be made at such other times as it may consider necessary.

CHAPTER IV: CONTRIBUTIONS

38. All employees to be insured

Subject to the provisions of this Act, all employees in factories or establishments to which this Act applies shall be insured in the manner provided by this Act.

39. Contributions

(1) The contribution payable under this Act in respect of an employee shall comprise contribution payable by the employer (hereinafter referred to as the employer's contribution) and contribution payable by the employee (hereinafter referred to as the employee's contribution) and shall be paid to the Corporation.

⁶⁷[(2) The contributions shall be paid at such rates as may be prescribed by the Central Government:

PROVIDED that the rates so prescribed shall not be more than the rates which were in force immediately before the commencement of the Employees' State Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1989.]

⁶⁸[(3) The wage period in relation to an employee shall be the unit in respect of which all contributions shall be payable under this Act.]

(4) The contributions payable in respect of each ⁶⁹[wage period] shall ordinarily fall due on the last day of the ⁶⁹[wage period], and where an employee is employed for part of the ⁶⁹[wage period], or is employed under two or more employers during the same ⁶⁹[wage period], the contributions shall fall due on such days as may be specified in the regulations.

⁴(5)(a) If any contribution payable under this Act is not paid by the principal employer on the date on which such contribution has become due, he shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of twelve per cent per annum or at such higher rate as may be specified in the regulations till the date of its actual payment:

PROVIDED that higher interest specified in the regulations shall not exceed the lending rate of interest charged by any scheduled bank.

(b) Any interest recoverable under clause (a) may be recovered as an arrear of land revenue or under sections 45C to 45-1.

Explanation: In this sub-section, "scheduled bank" means a bank for the time being included in the Second Schedule to the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 (2 of 1934).]

40. Principal employer to pay contributions in the first instance

(1) The principal employer shall pay in respect of every employee, whether directly employed by him or by or through an immediate employer, both the employer's contribution and the employee's contribution.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other enactment but subject to the provisions of this Act and the regulations, if any, made thereunder, the principal employer shall, in the case of an employee directly employed by him (not being an exempted employee), be entitled to recover from the employee the employee's contribution by deduction from his wages and not otherwise:

PROVIDED that no such deduction shall be made from any wages other than such as relate to the period or part of the period in respect of which the contribution is payable, or in excess of the sum representing the employee's contribution for the period.

(3) Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, neither the principal employer nor the immediate employer shall be entitled to deduct the employer's contribution from any wages payable to an employee or otherwise to recover it from him.

(4) Any sum deducted by the principal employer from wages under this Act shall be deemed to have been entrusted to him by the employee for the purpose of paying the contribution in respect of which it was deducted.

(5) The principal employer shall bear the expenses of remitting the contributions to the Corporation.

41. Recovery of contributions from immediate employer

(1) A principal employer, who has paid contribution in respect of an employee employed by or through an immediate employer, shall be entitled to recover the amount of the contribution so paid (that is to say the employer's contribution as well as the employee's contribution, if any) from the immediate employer, either by deduction from any amount payable to him by the principal employer under any contract, or as a debt payable by the immediate employer.

⁷⁰[(1A) The immediate employer shall maintain register of employees employed by or through him as provided in the regulations and submit the same to the principal employer before the settlement of any amount payable under sub-section (1).]

(2) In the case referred to in sub-section (1), the immediate employer shall be entitled to recover the employee's contribution from the employee employed by or through him by deduction from wages and not otherwise, subject to the conditions specified in the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 40.

42. General provisions as to payment of contributions

(1) No employee's contribution shall be payable by or on behalf of an employee whose average daily wages ⁷²[during a wage period are below ⁷³[such wages as may be prescribed by the Central Government]].

Explanation: The average daily wages of an employee shall be calculated ⁷⁴[in such manner as may be prescribed by the Central Government.]

(2) Contribution (both the employer's contribution and the employee's contribution) shall be payable by the principal employer for each ⁶⁹[wage period] ⁷⁵[in respect of the whole or part of which wages are payable to the employee and not otherwise.]

⁷⁶[(3) * * *]

⁷⁷[(4) *****]

43. Method of payment of contribution

Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Corporation may make regulations for any matter relating or incidental to the payment and collection of contributions payable under this Act and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power such regulations may provide for-

(a) the manner and time of payment of contributions;

(b) the payment of contributions by means of adhesive or other stamps affixed to or impressed upon books, cards or otherwise and regulating the manner, times and conditions in, at and under which, such stamps are to be affixed or impressed;

¹¹[(bb) the date by which evidence of contributions having been paid is to be received by the Corporation;]

(c) the entry in or upon books or cards of particulars of contributions paid and benefits distributed in the case of the insured persons to whom such books or cards relate; and

(d) the issue, sale, custody, production, inspection and delivery of books or cards and the replacement of books or cards which have been lost, destroyed or defaced.

⁷⁸[44. Employers to furnish returns and maintain registers in certain cases

(1) Every principal and immediate employer shall submit to the Corporation or to such officer of the Corporation as it may direct such returns in such form and containing such particulars relating to persons employed by him or to any factory or establishment in respect of which he is the principal or immediate employer as may be specified in regulations made in this behalf.

(2) Where in respect of any factory or establishment the Corporation has reason to believe that a return should have been submitted under sub-section (1) but has not been so submitted, the Corporation may require any person in charge of the factory or establishment to furnish such particulars as it may consider necessary for the purpose of enabling the Corporation to decide whether the factory or establishment is a factory or establishment to which this Act applies.

(3) Every principal and immediate employer shall maintain such registers or records in respect of his factory or establishment as may be required by regulations made in this behalf.]

45. Inspectors, their functions and duties

(1) The Corporation may appoint such persons as Inspectors, as it thinks fit, for the purposes of this Act, within such local limits as it may assign to them.

(2) Any Inspector appointed by the Corporation under sub-section (1) (hereinafter referred to as Inspector), or other official of the Corporation authorised in this behalf by it may, for the purposes of enquiring into the correctness of any of the particulars stated in any return referred to in section 44 or for the purpose of ascertaining whether any of the provisions of this Act has been complied with-

(a) require any principal or immediate employer to furnish to him such information as he may consider necessary for the purposes of this Act; or

(b) at any reasonable time enter any office, establishment, factory or other premises occupied by such principal or immediate employer and require any person found in charge thereof to produce to such Inspector or other official and allow him to examine such accounts, books and other documents relating to the employment of persons and payment of wages or to furnish to him such information as he may consider necessary; or

(c) examine, with respect to any matter relevant to the purposes aforesaid, the principal or immediate employer, his agent or servant, or any person found in such factory, establishment, office or other premises, or any person whom the said Inspector or other official has reasonable cause to believe to be or to have been an employee;

³⁹[(d) make copies of, or take extracts from, any register, account book or other document maintained in such factory, establishment, office or other premises;

(e) exercise such other powers as may be prescribed.]

(3) An Inspector shall exercise such functions and perform such duties as may be authorised by the Corporation or as may be specified in the regulations.

⁷⁹[45A. Determination of contributions in certain cases

(1) Where in respect of a factory or establishment no returns, particulars, registers or records are submitted, furnished or maintained in accordance with the provisions of section 44 or any Inspector or other official of the Corporation referred to in sub-section 45 is ⁸⁰[prevented in any manner] by the principal or immediate employer or any other person, in exercising his functions or discharging his duties under section 45, the Corporation may, on the basis of information available to it, by order, determine the amount of contributions payable in respect of the employees of that factory or establishment:

⁴[PROVIDED that no such order shall be passed by the Corporation unless the principal or immediate employer or the person in charge of the factory or establishment has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.]

(2) An order made by the Corporation under sub-section (1) shall be sufficient proof of the claim of the Corporation under section 75 or for recovery of the amount determined by such order as an arrear of land revenue under section 45B ⁴[or the recovery under section 45C to section 45-I]].

45B. Recovery of contributions

Any contribution payable under this Act may be recovered as an arrear of land revenue.

⁸¹[45C. Issue of certificate to the Recovery Officer

(1) Where any amount is in arrears under this Act, the authorised officer may issue, to the Recovery Officer, a certificate under his signature specifying the amount of arrears and the Recovery Officer, on receipt of such certificate, shall proceed to recover the amount specified therein from the factory or establishment or, as the case may be, the principal or immediate employer by one or more of the modes mentioned below-

(a) attachment and sale of the movable or immovable property of the factory or establishment or, as the case may be, the principal or immediate employer;

(b) arrest of the employer and his detention in prison;

(c) appointing a receiver for the management of the movable or immovable properties of the factory or establishment or, as the case may be, the employer:

PROVIDED that the attachment and sale of any property under this section shall first be effected against the properties of the factory or establishment and where such attachment and sale is insufficient for recovering the whole of the amount of arrears specified in the certificate, the Recovery Officer may take such proceedings against the property of the employer for recovery of the whole or any part of such arrears.

(2) The authorised officer may issue a certificate under sub-section (1) notwithstanding that proceedings for recovery of the arrears by any other mode have been taken.

45D. Recovery Officer to whom certificate is to be forwarded

(1) The authorised officer may forward the certificate referred to in section 45C to the Recovery Officer within whose jurisdiction the employer-

(a) carries on his business or profession or within whose jurisdiction the principal place of his factory or establishment is situate; or

(b) resides or any movable or immovable property of the factory or establishment or the principal or immediate employer is situate.

(2) Where a factory or an establishment or the principal or immediate employer has property within the jurisdiction of more than one Recovery Officers and the Recovery Officer to whom a certificate is sent by the authorised officer-

(a) is not able to recover the entire amount by the sale of the property, movable or immovable, within his jurisdiction; or

(b) is of the opinion that, for the purpose of expediting or securing the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount, it is necessary so to do, he may send the certificate or, where only a part of the amount is to be recovered, a copy of the certificate certified in the manner prescribed by the Central Government and specifying the amount to be recovered to the Recovery Officer within whose jurisdiction the factory or establishment or the principal or immediate employer has property or the employer resides, and thereupon that Recovery Officer shall also proceed to recover the amount due under this section as if the certificate or the copy thereof had been the certificate sent to him by the authorised officer.

45E. Validity of certificate and amendment thereof

(1) When the authorised officer issues a certificate to a Recovery Officer under section 45C, it shall not be open to the factory or establishment or the principal or immediate employer to dispute before the Recovery Officer the correctness of the amount, and no objection to the certificate on any other ground shall also be entertained by the Recovery Officer.

(2) Notwithstanding the issue of a certificate to a Recovery Officer, the authorised officer shall have power to withdraw the certificate or correct any clerical or arithmetical mistake in the certificate by sending an intimation to the Recovery Officer.

(3) The authorised officer shall intimate to the Recovery Officer any orders withdrawing or cancelling a certificate or any correction made by him under sub-section (2) or any amendment made under sub-section (4) of section 45F.

45F. Stay of proceedings under certificate and amendment or withdrawal thereof

(1) Notwithstanding that a certificate has been issued to the Recovery Officer for the recovery of any amount, the authorised officer may grant time, for the payment of the amount, and thereupon the Recovery Officer shall stay the proceedings until the expiry of the time so granted.

(2) Where a certificate for the recovery of amount has been issued, the authorised officer shall keep the Recovery Officer informed of any amount paid or time granted for payment, subsequent to the issue of such certificate.

(3) Where the order giving rise to a demand of amount for which a certificate for recovery has been issued has been modified in appeal or other proceedings under this Act, and, as a consequence thereof, the demand is reduced but the order is the subject matter of a further proceeding under this Act, the authorised officer shall stay the recovery of such part of the amount of the certificate as pertains to the said reduction for the period for which the appeals or other proceeding remains pending.

(4) Where a certificate for the recovery of amount has been issued and subsequently the amount of the outstanding demand is reduced as a result of an appeal or other proceeding under this Act, the authorised officer shall, when the order which was the subject-matter of such appeal or other proceeding has become final and conclusive, amend the certificate or withdraw it, as the case may be.

45G. Other modes of recovery

(1) Notwithstanding the issue of a certificate to the Recovery Officer under section 45C, the Director General or any other officer authorised by the Corporation may recover the amount by any one or more of the modes provided in this section.

(2) If any amount is due from any person to any factory or establishment or, as the case may be, the principal or immediate employer who is in arrears, the Director General or any other officer authorised by the Corporation in this behalf may require such person to deduct from the said amount the arrears due from such factory or establishment or, as the case may be, the principal or immediate employer under this Act and such person shall comply with any such requisition and shall pay the sum so deducted to the credit of the Corporation:

PROVIDED that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to any part of the amount exempt from attachment in execution of a decree of a civil court under section 60 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

(3) (i) The Director General or any other officer authorised by the Corporation in this behalf may, at anytime or from time to time, by notice in writing, require any person from whom money is due or may become due to the factory or establishment or, as the case may be, the principal or immediate employer or any person who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of the factory or establishment or, as the case may be, the principal or immediate employer, to pay to the Director General either forthwith upon the money becoming due or being held or at or within the time specified in the notice (not being before the money becomes due or is held) so much of the money as is sufficient to pay the amount due from the factory or establishment or, as the case may be, the principal or immediate employer in respect of arrears or the whole of the money when it is equal to or less than that amount.

(ii) A notice under this sub-section may be issued to any person who holds or may subsequently hold any money for or on account of the principal or immediate employer jointly with any other person and for the purposes of this sub-section, the shares of the joint-holders in such account shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be equal.

(iii) A copy of the notice shall be forwarded to the principal or immediate employer at his last address known to the Director General or, as the case may be, the officer so authorised and in the case of a joint account to all the joint-holders at their last addresses known to the Director General or the officer so authorised.

(iv) Save as otherwise provided in this sub-section, every person to whom a notice is issued under this sub-section shall be bound to comply with such notice, and, in particular, where any such notice is issued to a post office, bank or an insurer, it shall not be necessary for any pass book, deposit receipt, policy or any other document to be produced for the purpose of any entry, endorsement or the like being made before payment is made notwithstanding any rule, practice or requirement to the contrary.

(v) Any claim respecting any property in relation to which a notice under this sub-section has been issued arising after the date of the notice shall be void as against any demand contained in the notice.

(vi) Where a person to whom a notice under this sub-section is sent objects to it by a statement on oath that the sum demanded or any part thereof is not due to the principal or immediate employer or that he does not hold any money for or on account of the principal or immediate employer, then, nothing contained in this sub-section shall be deemed to require such person to pay any such sum or part thereof, as the case may be, but if it is discovered that such statement was false in any material particular, such person shall be personally liable to the Director General or the officer so authorised to the extent of his own liability to the principal or immediate employer on the date of the notice, or to the extent of the principal or immediate employer's liability for any sum due under this Act, whichever is less.

(vii) The Director General or the officer so authorised may, at any time or from time to time, amend or revoke any notice issued under this sub-section or extend the time for making any payment in pursuance of such notice.

(viii) The Director General or the officer so authorised shall grant a receipt for any amount paid in compliance with a notice issued under this sub-section and the person so paying shall be fully discharged from his liability to the principal or immediate employer to the extent of the amount so paid.

(ix) Any person discharging any liability to the principal or immediate employer after the receipt of a notice under this sub-section shall be personally liable to the Director General or the officer so authorised to the extent of his own liability to the principal or immediate employer so discharged or to the extent of the principal or immediate employer's liability for any sum due under this Act, whichever is less.

(x) If the person to whom a notice under this sub-section is sent fails to make payment in pursuance thereof to the Director General or the officer so authorised, he shall be deemed to be a principal or immediate employer in default in respect of the amount specified in the notice and further proceedings may be taken against him for the realisation of the amount as if it were an arrear due from him, in the manner provided in sections 45C to 45F and the notice shall have the same effect as an attachment of a debt by the Recovery Officer in exercise of his powers under section 45C.

(4) The Director General or the officer authorised by the Corporation in this behalf may apply to the court in whose custody there is money belonging to the principal or immediate employer for payment to him of the entire amount of such money, or if it is more than the amount due, an amount sufficient to discharge the amount due.

(5) The Director General or any officer of the Corporation may, if so authorised by the Central Government by general or special order, recover any arrears of amount due from a factory or an establishment or, as the case may be, from the principal or immediate employer by distraint and sale of its or his movable property in the manner laid down in the Third Schedule to the Income-tax Act, 1961.

45H. Application of certain provisions of the Income Tax Act

The provisions of the Second and the Third Schedules to the Income Tax Act, 1961 and the Income Tax (Certificate Proceedings) Rules, 1962, as in force from time to time, shall apply with necessary modifications as if the said provisions and the rules referred to the arrears of the amount of contributions, interests or damages under this Act instead of to the income-tax:

PROVIDED that any reference in the said provisions and the rules to the "assessee" shall be construed as a reference to a factory or an establishment or the principal or immediate employer under this Act.

45I. Definitions

For the purposes of sections 45C to 45H:

(a) "authorised officer" means the Director General, Insurance Commissioner, Joint Insurance Commissioner, Regional Director or such other officer as may be authorised by the Central Government, by notification in the Official Gazette;

(b) "recovery officer" means any officer of the Central Government, State Government or the Corporation, who may be authorised by the Central Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, to exercise the powers of a recovery officer under this Act.]

CHAPTER V: BENEFITS

46. Benefits

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the insured persons, ⁸²[their dependants or the persons hereinafter mentioned, as the case may be,] shall be entitled to the following benefits, namely,-

(a) periodical payments to any insured person in case of his sickness certified by a duly appointed medical practitioner ⁸³[or by any other person possessing such qualifications and experience as the Corporation may, by regulations, specify in this behalf] (hereinafter referred to as sickness benefit);

⁸⁴[(b) periodical payments to an insured woman in case of confinement or miscarriage or sickness arising out of pregnancy, confinement, premature birth of child or miscarriage, such woman being certified to be eligible for such payments by an authority specified in this behalf by the regulations (hereinafter referred to as maternity benefit);]

(c) periodical payments to an insured person suffering from disablement as a result of an employment injury sustained as an employee under this Act and certified to be eligible for such payments by an authority specified in this behalf by the regulations (hereinafter referred to as disablement benefit);

(d) periodical payments to such dependants of an insured person who dies as a result of an employment injury sustained as an employee under this Act, as are entitled to compensation under this Act (hereinafter referred to as dependants' benefit); ⁸⁵[* * *]

(e.) medical treatment for and attendance on insured persons (hereinafter referred to as medical benefit); ⁸⁶[and

[(f) payment to the eldest surviving member of the family of an insured person who has died, towards the expenditure on the funeral of the deceased insured person or, where the insured person did not have a family or was not living with his family at the time of his death, to the person who actually incurs the expenditure on the funeral of the deceased insured person (to be known as ⁸⁷[funeral expenses]):

PROVIDED that the amount of such payment shall not exceed ⁸⁸[such amount as may be prescribed by the Central Government] and the claim for such payment shall be made within three months of the death of the insured person or within such extended period as the Corporation or any officer or authority authorised by it in this behalf may allow.]

(2) The Corporation may, at the request of the appropriate government, and subject to such conditions as may be laid down in the regulations, extend the medical benefit to the family of an insured person.

⁸⁹[47. * * *]

48. When person deemed available for employment

[Omitted by Act No. 44 of 1966]

⁹⁰[49. Sickness benefit

The qualification of a person to claim sickness benefit, the conditions subject to which such benefit may be given, the rates and period thereof shall be such as may be prescribed by the Central Government.

50. Maternity benefit

The qualification of an insured woman to claim maternity benefit, the conditions subject to which such benefit may be given, the rates and period thereof shall be such as may be prescribed by the Central Government.]

⁹¹[51. Disablement benefit

Subject to the provisions of this Act ⁹²[* * * *]

(a) a person who sustains temporary disablement for not less than three days (excluding the day of accident) shall be entitled to periodical payment ⁹³[at such rates and for such period and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Central Government];

(b) a person who sustains permanent disablement, whether total or partial, shall be entitled to periodical payment ³[at such rates and for such period and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Central Government] :

⁹⁴[* * *]

51A. Presumption as to accident arising in course of employment

For the purposes of this Act, an accident arising in the course of an insured person's employment shall be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, also to have arisen out of that employment.

51B. Accidents happening while acting in breach of regulations, etc.

An accident shall be deemed to arise out of and in the course of an insured person's employment notwithstanding that he is at the time of the accident acting in contravention of the provisions of any law applicable to him, or of any orders given by or on behalf of his employer or that he is acting without instructions from his employer, if

(a) the accident would have been deemed so to have arisen had the act not been done in contravention as aforesaid or on without instructions from his employer, as the case may be; and

(b) the act is done for the purpose of and in connection with the employer's trade or business.

51C. Accidents happening while travelling in employer's transport

(1) An accident happening while an insured person is, with the express or implied permission of his employer, travelling as a passenger by any vehicle to or from his place of work shall, notwithstanding that he is under no obligation to his employer to travel by that vehicle, be deemed to arise out of and in the course of his employment, if

(a) the accident would have been deemed so to have arisen had he been under such obligation; and

(b) at the time of the accident, the vehicle

(i) is being operated by or on behalf of his employer or some other person by whom it is provided in pursuance of arrangements made with his employer, and

(ii) is not being operated in the ordinary course of public transport service.

(2) In this section "vehicle" includes a vessel and an aircraft.

51D. Accidents happening while meeting emergency

An accident happening to an insured person in or about any premises at which he is for the time-being employed for the purpose of his employer's trade or business shall be deemed to arise out of and in the course of his employment, if it happens while he is taking steps, on an actual or supposed emergency at those premises, to rescue, succour or protect persons who are, or are thought to be or possibly to be, injured or imperilled, or to avert or minimise serious damage to property.]

⁹⁵[52. Dependants' benefit

(1) If an insured person dies as a result of an employment injury sustained as an employee under this Act (whether or not he was in receipt of any periodical payment for temporary disablement in respect of the injury) dependants' benefit shall be payable ⁹⁶[at such rates and for such period and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Central Government] to his dependants specified in ⁹⁷[sub-clause (i), and sub clause (ia) and] sub-clause (ii) of clause (6A) of section 2.

(2) In case the insured person dies without leaving behind him the dependants as aforesaid, the dependants' benefit shall be paid to the other dependants of the deceased ⁹⁶[at such rates and for such period and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Central Government].

52A. Occupational disease

(1) If an employee employed in any employment specified in Part A of the Third Schedule contracts any disease specified therein as an occupational disease peculiar to that employment or if an employee employed in the employment specified in Part B of that Schedule for a continuous period of not less than six months contracts any disease specified therein as an occupational disease peculiar to that employment or if an employee employed in any employment specified in Part C of that Schedule for such continuous period as the Corporation may specify in respect of each such employment, contracts any disease specified therein as an occupational disease peculiar to that employment, the contracting of the disease shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be an 'employment injury' arising out of and in the course of employment.

(2)(i) Where the Central Government or a State Government, as the case may be, adds any description of employment to the employments specified in Schedule III to the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, by virtue of the powers vested in it under sub-section (3) of section 3 of the said Act, the said description of employment and the occupational diseases specified under that sub-section as peculiar to that description of employment shall be deemed to form part of the Third Schedule.

(ii) Without prejudice to the provisions of clause (i), the Corporation after giving, by notification in the Official Gazette, not less than three months' notice of its intention so to do, may by a like notification add any description of employment to the employments specified in the Third Schedule and shall specify in the case of employments so added the diseases which shall be deemed for the purposes of this section to be occupational diseases peculiar to those employments respectively and thereupon the provisions of this Act shall apply, as if such diseases had been declared by this Act to be occupational diseases peculiar to those employments.

(3) Save as provided by sub-sections (1) and (2) no benefit shall be payable to an employee in respect of any disease unless the disease is directly attributable to a specific injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment.

(4) The provisions of section 51A shall not apply to the cases to which this section applies.]

⁹⁸[53. Bar against receiving or recovery of compensation or damages under any other law

An insured person or his dependants shall not be entitled to receive or recover, whether from the employer of the insured person or from any other person, any compensation or damages under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 or any other law for the time being in force or otherwise, in respect of an employment injury sustained by the insured person as an employee under this Act.]

⁹⁹[54. Determination of question of disablement

Any question-

- (a) whether the relevant accident has resulted in permanent disablement; or
- (b) whether the extent of loss of earning capacity can be assessed provisionally or finally; or
- (c) whether the assessment of the proportion of the loss of earning capacity is provisional or final; or
- (d) in the case of provisional assessment, as to the period for which such assessment shall hold good, shall be determined by a medical board constituted in accordance with the provisions of the regulations and any such question shall hereafter be referred to as the "disablement question".

54A. References to Medical Boards and appeals to Medical Appeal Tribunals and Employees' Insurance Courts

(1) The case of any insured person for permanent disablement benefit shall be referred by the Corporation to a medical board for determination of the disablement question and if, on that or any subsequent reference, the extent of loss of earning capacity of the insured person is provisionally assessed it shall again be so referred to the medical board not later than the end of the period taken into account by the provisional assessment.

(2) If the insured person or the Corporation is not satisfied with the decision of the medical board, the insured person or the Corporation may appeal in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time to-

(i) the medical appeal tribunal constituted in accordance with the provisions of the regulations with a further right of appeal in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time to the Employees' Insurance Court, or

(ii) the Employees' Insurance Court directly] :

⁴[PROVIDED that no appeal by an insured person shall lie under this sub-section if such person has applied for commutation of disablement benefit on the basis of the decision of the medical board and received the commuted of such benefit:

PROVIDED FURTHER that no appeal by the Corporation shall lie under this sub-section if the Corporation paid the commuted value of the disablement benefit on the basis of the decision of the medical board.]

¹⁰⁰[55. Review of decisions by Medical Board or Medical Appeal Tribunal

(1) Any decision under this Act of a medical board or a medical appeal tribunal may be reviewed at any time by the medical board or the medical appeal tribunal, as the case may be, if it is satisfied by fresh evidence that the decision was given in consequence of the non-disclosure or mis-representation by the employee or any other person of a material fact (whether the non-disclosure or misrepresentation was or was not fraudulent).

(2) Any assessment of the extent of the disablement resulting from the relevant employment injury may also be reviewed by a medical board, if it is satisfied that since the making of the assessment there has been a substantial and unforeseen aggravation of the results of the relevant injury:

PROVIDED that an assessment shall not be reviewed under this sub-section unless the medical board is of opinion that having regard to the period taken into account by the assessment and the probable duration of the aggravation aforesaid, substantial injustice will be done by not reviewing it.

(3) Except with the leave of a medical appeal tribunal, an assessment shall not be reviewed under sub-section (2) on any application made less than five years, or in the case of a provisional assessment, six months, from the date thereof and on such a review the period to be taken into account by any revised assessment shall not include any period before the date of the application.

(4) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section, a medical board may deal with a case of review in any manner in which it could deal with it on an original reference to it, and in particular may make a provisional assessment notwithstanding that the assessment under review was final; and the provisions of section 54A shall apply to an application for review under this section and to a decision of a medical board in connection with such application as they apply to a case for disablement benefit under that section and to a decision of the medical board in connection with such case.

55A. Review of dependants' benefit

(1) Any decision awarding dependants' benefit under this Act may be reviewed at any time by the Corporation if it is satisfied by fresh evidence that the decision was given in consequence of non-disclosure or misrepresentation by the claimant or any other person of a material fact (whether the non-disclosure or misrepresentation was or was not fraudulent) or that the decision is no longer in accordance with this Act due to any birth or death or due to the marriage, re-marriage or cesser of infirmity of, or attainment of the age of eighteen years by, a claimant.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Corporation may, on such review as aforesaid, direct that the dependants' benefit be continued, increased, reduced or discontinued.]

56. Medical benefit

(1) An insured person or (where such medical benefit is extended to his family) a member of his family whose condition requires medical treatment and attendance shall be entitled to receive medical benefit.

(2) Such medical benefit may be given either in the form of out-patient treatment and attendance in a hospital or dispensary, clinic or other institution or by visits to the home of the insured person or treatment as in-patient in a hospital or other institution.

(3) A person shall be entitled to medical benefit during any period for which contributions are payable in respect of him or in which he is qualified to claim sickness benefit or maternity benefit ¹⁰¹[or is in receipt of such disablement benefit as does not disentitle him to medical benefit under the regulations]:

PROVIDED that a person in respect of whom contribution ceases to be payable under this Act may be allowed medical benefit for such period and of such nature as may be provided under the regulations:

⁷⁰[PROVIDED FURTHER that an insured person who ceases to be in insurable employment on account of permanent disablement shall continue, subject to payment of contribution and such other conditions as may be prescribed by the Central Government, to receive medical benefit till the date on which he would have vacated the employment on attaining the age of superannuation had he not sustained such permanent disablement:

PROVIDED ALSO that an insured person, who has attained the age of superannuation, and his spouse shall be eligible to receive medical benefit subject to payment of contribution and such other conditions as may be prescribed by the Central Government.

Explanation : In this section, "superannuation", in relation to an insured person, means the attainment by that person of such age as is fixed in the contract or conditions of service as the age on the attainment of which he shall vacate the insurable employment or the age of sixty years where no such age is fixed and the person is no more in the insurable employment.]

57. Scale of medical benefit

(1) An insured person and (where such medical benefit is extended to his family) his family shall be entitled to receive medical benefit only of such kind and on such scale as may be provided by the State Government or by the Corporation, and an insured person or, where such medical benefit is extended to his family, his family shall not have a right to claim any medical treatment except such as is provided by the dispensary, hospital, clinic or other institution to which he or his family is allotted, or as may be provided by the regulations.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall entitle an insured person and (where such medical benefit is extended to his family) his family to claim reimbursement from the Corporation of any expenses incurred in respect of any medical treatment, except as may be provided by the regulations.

58. Provision of medical treatment by State Government

(1) The State Government shall provide for insured persons and (where such benefit is extended to their families) their families in the State reasonable medical, surgical and obstetric treatment:

PROVIDED that the State Government may, with the approval of the Corporation, arrange for medical treatment at clinics of medical practitioners on such scale and subject to such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon.

(2) Where the incidence of sickness benefit payment to insured persons in any State is found to exceed the all-India average, the amount of such excess shall be shared between the Corporation and the State Government in such proportion as may be fixed by agreement between them:

PROVIDED that the Corporation may in any case waive the recovery of the whole of any part of the share which is to be borne by the State Government.

(3) The Corporation may enter into an agreement with a State Government in regard to the nature and scale of the medical treatment that should be provided to insured persons and (where such medical benefit is extended to the families) their families (including provision of buildings, equipment, medicines and staff) and for the sharing of the cost thereof and of any excess in the incidence of sickness benefit to insured persons between the Corporation and the State Government.

(4) In default of agreement between the Corporation and any State Government as aforesaid the nature and extent of the medical treatment to be provided by the State Government and the proportion in which the cost thereof and of the excess in the incidence of sickness benefit shall be shared between the Corporation and that government, shall be determined by an arbitrator (who shall be or shall have been a Judge of the ¹⁰²[High Court] ¹⁰³[of a State]) appointed by the Chief Justice of India (and the award of the arbitrator) shall be binding on the Corporation and the State Government.

59. Establishment and maintenance of hospitals, etc. by Corporation

(1) The Corporation may, with the approval of the State Government, establish and maintain in a State such hospitals, dispensaries and other medical and surgical services as it may think fit for the benefit of insured persons and (where such medical benefit is extended to their families) their families.

(2) The Corporation may enter into agreement with any ⁶³[* * *] local authority, private body or individual in regard to the provision of medical treatment and attendance for insured persons and (where such medical benefit is extended to their families) their families, in any area and sharing the cost thereof.

⁴⁴[59A. Provision of medical benefit by the Corporation in lieu of State Government

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act, the Corporation may, in consultation with the State Government, undertake the responsibility for providing medical benefit to insured persons and where such medical benefit is extended to their families, to the families of such insured persons in the State subject to the condition that the State Government shall share the cost of such medical benefit in such proportions may be agreed upon between the State Government and the Corporation.

(2) In the event of the Corporation exercising its power under sub-section (1), the provisions relating to medical benefit under this Act shall apply, so far as may be, as if a reference therein to the State Government were a reference to the Corporation.]

GENERAL

60. Benefit not assignable or attachable

(1) The right to receive any payment of any benefit under this Act shall not be transferable or assignable.

(2) No cash benefit payable under this Act shall be liable to attachment or sale in execution of any decree or order of any Court.

61. Bar of benefits under other enactments

When a person is entitled to any of the benefits provided by this Act, he shall not be entitled to receive any similar benefit admissible under the provisions of any other enactment.

62. Persons not to commute cash benefits

Save as may be provided in the regulations, no person shall be entitled to commute for a lump sum any ¹⁰⁴[disablement benefit] admissible under this Act.

¹⁰⁵63. Persons not entitled to receive benefit in certain cases

Save as may be provided in the regulations, no person shall be entitled to sickness benefit or disablement benefit for temporary disablement on any day on which he works or remains on leave or on a holiday in respect of which he receives wages or on any day on which he remains on strike.]

64. Recipients of sickness or disablement benefit to observe conditions

A person who is in receipt of sickness benefit or disablement benefit (other than benefit granted on permanent disablement)-

(a) shall remain under medical treatment at a dispensary, hospital, clinic or other institution provided under this Act and shall carry out the instructions given by the medical officer or medical attendant in charge thereof;

(b) shall not while under treatment do anything which might retard or prejudice his chances of recovery;

(c) shall not leave the area in which medical treatment provided by this Act is being given, without the permission of the medical officer, medical attendant or such other authority as may be specified in this behalf by the regulations; and

(d) shall allow himself to be examined by any duly appointed medical officer ¹⁰⁶[* * *] or other person authorised by the Corporation in this behalf.

65. Benefits not to be combined

(1) An insured person shall not be entitled to receive for the same period-

(a) both sickness benefit and maternity benefit; or

(b) both sickness benefit and disablement benefit for temporary disablement; or

(c) both maternity benefit and disablement benefit for temporary disablement.

(2) Where a person is entitled to more than one of the benefits mentioned in sub-section (1), he shall be entitled to choose which benefit he shall receive.

66. Corporation's right recover damages from employer in certain cases

[Omitted by Act No. 44 of 1966, section 29, w.e.f. 17th., June, 1967]

67. Corporation's right to be indemnified in certain cases

[Omitted by Act No. 44 of 1966, section 29 w. e.f. 17th., June, 1967]

68. Corporation's rights where a principal employer fails or neglects to pay any contribution

(1) If any principal employer fails or neglects to pay any contribution which under this Act he is liable to pay in respect of any employee and by reason thereof such person becomes disentitled to any benefit or entitled to a benefit on a lower scale, the Corporation may, on being satisfied that the contribution should have been paid by the principal employer, pay to the person the benefit at the rate to which he would have been entitled, if the failure or neglect had not occurred and the Corporation shall be entitled to recover from the principal employer either-

¹⁰⁷[(i) the difference between the amount of benefit which is paid by the Corporation to the said person and the amount of the benefit which would have been payable on the basis of the contributions which were in fact paid by the employer; or]

(ii) twice the amount of the contribution which the employer failed or neglected to pay whichever is greater.

(2) The amount recoverable under this section may be recovered as if it were an arrear of land revenue ⁴[or under section 45C to section 45I].

69. Liability of owner or occupier of factories, etc. for excessive sickness benefit

(1) Where the Corporation considers that the incidence of sickness among insured persons is excessive by reason of-

(i) in sanitary working conditions in a factory or establishment or the neglect of the owner or occupier of the factory or establishment to observe any health regulations enjoined on him or under any enactment; or

(ii) in sanitary conditions of any tenements or lodgings occupied by insured persons and such in sanitary conditions are attributable to the neglect of the owner of the tenements or lodgings to observe any health regulations enjoined on him by or under any enactment, the Corporation may send to the owner or occupier of the factory or establishment or to the owner of the tenements or lodgings, as the case may be, a claim for the payment of the amount of the extra expenditure incurred by the Corporation as sickness benefit; and if the claim is not settled by agreement, the Corporation may refer the matter with a statement in support of its claim, to the appropriate government.

(2) If the appropriate government is of opinion that a prima facie case for inquiry is disclosed, it may appoint a competent person or persons to hold an inquiry into the matter.

(3) If upon such inquiry it is proved to the satisfaction of the person or persons holding the inquiry that the excess in incidence of sickness among the insured persons is due to the default or neglect of the owner or occupier of the factory or establishment or the owner of the tenements or lodgings, as the case may be, the said person or persons shall determine the amount of the extra expenditure incurred as sickness benefit, and the person or persons by whom the whole or any part of such amount shall be paid to the Corporation.

(4) A determination under sub-section (3) may be enforced as if it were a decree for payment of money passed in a suit by a Civil Court.

(5) For the purposes of this section, "owner" of tenements or lodgings shall include any agent of the owner and any person who is entitled to collect the rent of the tenements or lodgings as a lessee of the owner.

70. Repayment of benefit improperly received

(1) Where any person has received any benefit or payment under this Act when he is not lawfully entitled thereto, he shall be liable to repay to the Corporation the value of the benefit or the amount of such payment, or in the case of his death his representative shall be liable to repay the same from the assets of the deceased, if any, in his hands.

(2) The value of any benefits received other than cash payments shall be determined by such authority as may be specified in the regulations made in this behalf and the decision of such authority shall be final.

(3) The amount recoverable under this section may be recovered as if it were an arrear of land revenue ⁴[or under section 45C to section 45I].

71. Benefit payable up to and including day of death

¹⁰⁸[If a person dies], during any period for which he is entitled to a cash benefit under this Act, the amount of such benefit up to and including the day of his death shall be paid to any person nominated by the deceased person in writing in such form as may be specified in the regulations or, if there is no such nomination, to the heir or legal representative of the deceased person.

72. Employer not to reduce wages, etc.

No employer by reason only of his liability for any contributions payable under this Act shall, directly or indirectly, reduce the wages of any employee, or except as provided by the regulations, discontinue or reduce benefits payable to him under the conditions of his service which are similar to the benefits conferred by this Act.

73. Employer not to dismiss or punish employee during period of sickness, etc.

(1) No employer shall dismiss, discharge, or reduce or otherwise punish an employee during the period the employee is in receipt of sickness benefit or maternity benefit, nor shall he, except as provided under the regulations, dismiss, discharge or reduce or otherwise punish an employee during the period he is in receipt of disablement benefit for temporary disablement or is under medical treatment for sickness or is absent from work as a result of illness duly certified in accordance with the regulations to arise out of the pregnancy or confinement rendering the employee unfit for work.

(2) No notice of dismissal or discharge or reduction given to an employee during the period specified in sub-section (1) shall be valid or operative.

¹⁰⁹[CHAPTER V-A: TRANSITORY PROVISIONS

73A. Employer's special contribution

(1) For so long as the provisions of this Chapter are in force, every principal employer shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, pay to the Corporation a special contribution (hereinafter referred to as the employer's special contribution) at the rate specified under sub-section (3).

(2) The employer's special contribution shall, in the case of a factory or establishment situate in any area in which the provisions of both Chapters IV and V are in force, be in lieu of the employer's contribution payable under Chapter IV.

(3) The employer's special contribution shall consists of such percentage, not exceeding five per cent of total wage bill of the employer, as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify from time to time:

PROVIDED that before fixing or varying any such percentage the Central Government shall give by like notification not less than two months' notice of its intention so to do and shall in such notification specify the percentage which it proposes to fix or, as the case may be, the extent to which the percentage already fixed is to be varied :

PROVIDED FURTHER that the employer's special contribution in the case of factories or establishments situate in any area in which the provisions of both Chapters IV and V are in force shall be fixed at a rate higher than that in the case of factories or establishments situate in any area in which the provisions of the said Chapters are not in force.

(4) The employer's special contribution shall fall due as soon as the liability of the employer to pay wages accrues, but may be paid to the Corporation at such intervals, within such time and in such manner as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify, and any such notification may provide for the grant of a rebate for prompt payment of such contribution.

Explanation: "Total wage bill" in this section means the total wages which have accrued due to employees in a factory or establishment in respect of such wage periods as may be specified for the purposes of this section by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette.

73B. Special tribunals for decision of disputes or questions under this Chapter where there is no Employees' Insurance Court

(1) If any question or dispute arises in respect of the employer's special contribution payable or recoverable under this Chapter and there is no Employees' Insurance Court having jurisdiction to try such question or dispute, the question or dispute shall be decided by such authority as the Central Government may specify in this behalf.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) of section 76, sections 77 to 79 and 81 shall, so far as may be, apply in relation to a proceeding before an authority specified under sub-section (1) as they apply in relation to a proceeding before an Employees' Insurance Court.

73C. Benefits under Chapter V to depend upon employee's contribution

The payment of the employee's contribution for any week in accordance with the provisions of Chapter IV in any area where all the provisions of that Chapter are in force shall, for the purpose of Chapter V, have effect as if the contributions payable under Chapter IV in respect of that employee for that week had been paid, and shall accordingly entitle the employee as an insured person to the benefits specified in Chapter V if he is otherwise entitled thereto.

Explanation : In the case of an exempted employee, the employee's contribution shall be deemed to have been paid for a week if the Corporation is satisfied that during that week the employer's contribution under Chapter IV would have been payable in respect of him but for the provisions of this Chapter.

73D. Mode of recovery of employer's special contribution

The employer's special contribution payable under this Chapter may be recovered as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

73E. Power to call for additional information or return

Without prejudice to the other provisions contained in this Act, the Corporation may, for the purpose of determining whether the employer's special contribution is payable under this Chapter or for determining the amount thereof, by general or special order, require any principal or immediate employer or any other person to furnish such information or returns to such authority, in such form and within such time as may be specified in the order.

73F. Power to exempt to be exercised by Central Government alone in respect of employer's special contributions

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Central Government may, having regard to size or location of, or the nature of the industry carried on, in any factory or establishment or class of factories or establishments, exempt the factory or establishment or class of factories or establishments from the payment of the employer's special contribution under this Chapter and nothing contained in sections 87 to 91 (inclusive) shall be deemed to authorise any State Government to grant any such exemption.

73G. Application of certain provisions of this Act to employer's special contribution

Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Chapter, the provisions of Chapter IV, section 72 and Chapter VII and any rules and regulations made under this Act shall, so far as may be, apply in relation to the payment or recovery of employer's special contributions, the penalties specified in connection therewith and all other matters incidental thereto as they would have applied in relation to an employer's contribution if this Chapter were not in force and the employer's contribution had been payable under this Act.

73H. Power to remove difficulties

[Repealed by the Act No. 44 of 1966, w.e.f. 17th., June, 1967.]

73-I. Duration of Chapter VA

The Central Government may, by [notification in the Official Gazette, (vide SO No. 173(E) dated 26th., March, 1973)] direct that the provisions of this Chapter shall cease to have effect on such date as may be specified in the notification, not being a date earlier than three months from the date of the notification:

PROVIDED that on the provisions of this Chapter so ceasing to have effect the provisions of section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897, shall apply as if the provisions of this Chapter had then been repealed by a Central Act.]

CHAPTER VI: ADJUDICATION OF DISPUTE AND CLAIMS

74. Constitution of Employees' Insurance Court

(1) The State Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute an Employees' Insurance Court for such local area as may be specified in the notification.

(2) The Court shall consist of such number of Judges as the State Government may think fit.

(3) Any person who is or has been a judicial officer or is a legal practitioner of five years' standing shall be qualified to be a Judge of the Employees' Insurance Court.

(4) The ⁸[State] Government may appoint the same Court for two or more local areas or two or more Courts for the same local area.

(5) Where more than one Court has been appointed for the same local area, the State Government may by general or special order regulate the distribution of business between them.

75. Matters to be decided by Employees' Insurance Court

(1) If any question or dispute arises as to-

(a) whether any person is an employee within the meaning of this Act or whether he is liable to pay the employee's contribution, or

(b) the rate of wages or average daily wages of an employee for the purposes of this Act, or

(c) the rate of contribution payable by a principal employer in respect of any employee, or

(d) the person who is or was the principal employer in respect of any employee, or

(e) the right of any person to any benefit and as to the amount and duration thereof, or

¹¹⁰[(ee) any direction issued by the Corporation under section 55A on a review of any payment of dependants benefits, or]

¹¹¹[* * *]

(g) any other matter which is in dispute between a principal employer and the Corporation, or between a principal employer and an immediate employer or between a person and the Corporation or between an employee and a principal or immediate employer, in respect of any contribution or benefit or other dues payable or recoverable under this Act, ¹¹[or any other matter required to be or which may be decided by the Employees' Insurance Court under this Act,]

such question or dispute ¹¹[subject to the provision of sub-section (2A)] shall be decided by the Employees' Insurance Court in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) ¹¹²[Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2A), the following claims] shall be decided by the Employees' Insurance Court, namely:-

(a) claim for the recovery of contributions from the principal employer;

(b) claim by a principal employer to recover contributions from any immediate employer;

¹¹³[* * *];

(d) claim against a principal employer under section 68;

(e) claim under section 70 for the recovery of the value or amount of the benefits received by a person when he is not lawfully entitled thereto; and

(f) any claim for the recovery of any benefit admissible under this Act.

¹¹⁴[(2A) If in any proceedings before the Employees' Insurance Court a disablement question arises and the decision of a medical board or a medical appeal tribunal has not been obtained on the same and the decision of such question is necessary for the determination of the claim or question before the Employees' Insurance Court, that Court shall direct the Corporation to have the question decided by this Act and shall thereafter proceed with the determination of the claim or question before it in accordance with the decision of the medical board or the medical appeal tribunal, as the case may be, except where an appeal has been filed before the Employees' Insurance Court under sub-section (2) of section 54A in which case the Employees' Insurance Court may itself determine all the issues arising before it.]

⁴[(2B) No matter which is in dispute between a principal employer and the Corporation in respect of any contribution or any other dues shall be raised by the principal employer in the Employees' Insurance Court unless he has deposited with the Court fifty per cent of the amount due from him as claimed by the Corporation:

PROVIDED that the Court may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, waive or reduce the amount to be deposited under this sub-section.]

(3) No Civil Court shall have jurisdiction to decide or deal with any question or dispute as aforesaid or to adjudicate on any liability which by or under this Act is to be decided by ¹¹⁵[a medical board, or by a medical appeal tribunal or by the Employees' Insurance Court.]

76. Institution of proceedings, etc.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and any rules made by the State Government, all proceedings before the Employees' Insurance Court shall be instituted in the Court appointed for the local area in which the insured person was working at the time the question or dispute arose.

(2) If the Court is satisfied that any matter arising out of any proceeding, pending before it can be more conveniently dealt with by any other Employees Insurance Court in the same State, it may, subject to any rules made by the State Government in this behalf, order such matter to be transferred to such other Court for disposal and shall forthwith transmit to such other Court the records connected with that matter.

(3) The State Government may transfer any matter pending before any Employees' Insurance Court in the State to any such Court in another State with the consent of the State Government of that State.

(4) The Court to which any matter is transferred under sub-section(2) or sub-section (3) shall continue the proceedings as if they had been originally instituted in it.

77. Commencement of proceedings

(1) The proceedings before an Employees' Insurance Court shall be commenced by application.

¹¹[(1A) Every such application shall be made within a period of three years from the date on which the cause of action arose.

Explanation : For the purpose of this sub-section,-

(a) the cause of action in respect of a claim for benefit shall not be deemed to arise unless the insured person or in the case of dependants' benefit, the dependants of the insured person claims or claim that benefit in accordance with the regulations made in that behalf within a period of twelve months after the claim became due or within such further period as the Employees' Insurance Court may allow on grounds which appear to it to be reasonable;

¹¹⁶[(b) the cause of action in respect of a claim by the Corporation for recovering contributions (including interest and damages) from the principal employer shall be deemed to have arisen on the date on which such claim is made by the Corporation for the first time:

PROVIDED that no claim shall be made by the Corporation after five years of the period to which the claim relates;

(c) the cause of action in respect of a claim by the principal employer for recovering contributions from an immediate employer shall not be deemed to arise till the date by which the evidence of contributions having been paid is due to be received by the Corporation under the regulations.]]

(2) Every such application shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars and shall be accompanied by such fee, if any, as may be prescribed by rules made by the State Government in consultation with the Corporation.

78. Powers of Employees' Insurance Court

(1) The Employees' Insurance Court shall have all the powers of a Civil Court for the purposes of summoning and enforcing the attendance of witnesses, compelling the discovery and production of documents and material objects, administering oath and recording evidence and such Court shall be deemed to be a Civil Court within the meaning of ¹¹⁷[section 195 and Chapter XXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973].

(2) The Employees' Insurance Court shall follow such procedure as may be prescribed by rules made by the State Government.

(3) All costs incidental to any proceeding before an Employees' Insurance Court shall, subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf by the State Government, be in the discretion of the Court.

(4) An order of the Employees' Insurance Court shall be enforceable as if it were a decree passed in a suit by a Civil Court.

79. Appearance by legal practitioners, etc.

Any application, appearance or act required to be made or done by any person to or before an Employees' Insurance Court (other than appearance of a person required for the purpose of his examination as a witness) may be made or done by a legal practitioner or by an officer of a registered trade, union authorised in writing by such person or with the permission of the Court, by any other person so authorised.

80. Benefit not admissible unless claimed in time

[Omitted by Act No. 44 of 1966, section 34, w.e.f. 28th., January, 1968.]

81. Reference to High Court

An Employees' Insurance Court may submit any question of law for the decision of the High Court and if it does so shall decide the question pending before it in accordance with such decision.

82. Appeal

(1) Save as expressly provided in this section, no appeal shall lie from an order of an Employees' Insurance Court.

(2) An appeal shall lie to the High Court from an order of an Employees' Insurance Court if it involves substantial question of law.

(3) The period of limitation for an appeal under this section shall be sixty days.

(4) The provisions of sections 5 and 12 of the ¹¹⁸[Limitation Act, 1963] shall apply to appeals under this section.

83. Stay of payment pending appeal

Where the Corporation has presented an appeal against an order of the Employees' Insurance Court, that Court may, and if so directed by the High Court shall, pending the decision of the appeal, withhold the payment of any sum directed to be paid by the order appealed against.

CHAPTER VII: PENALTIES

84. Punishment for false statements

Whoever, for the purpose of causing any increase in payment or benefit under this Act, or for the purpose of causing any payment or benefit to be made where no payment or benefit is authorised by or under this Act, or for the purpose of avoiding any payment to be made by himself under this Act or enabling any other person to avoid any such payment, knowingly makes or causes to be made any false statement or false representation, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to ¹¹⁹[six months], or with fine not exceeding ¹²⁰[two thousand] rupees, or with both.

⁷⁰[PROVIDED that where an insured person is convicted under this section, he shall not be entitled for any cash benefit under this Act for such period as may be prescribed by the Central Government.]

85. Punishment for failure to pay contributions, etc.

If any person-

- (a) fails to pay any contribution which under this Act he is liable to pay, or
- (b) deducts or attempts to deduct from the wages of an employee the whole or any part of the employer's contribution, or
- (c) in contravention of section 72 reduces the wages or any privileges or benefits admissible to an employee, or
- (d) in contravention of section 73 or any regulation dismisses, discharges, reduces or otherwise punishes an employee, or
- (e) fails or refuses to submit any return required by the regulations, or makes a false return, or
- (f) obstructs any Inspector or other official of the Corporation in the discharge of his duties, or
- (g) is guilty of any contravention of or non-compliance with any of the requirements of this Act or the rules or the regulations in respect of which no special penalty is provided,

¹²¹[he shall be punishable-

¹²²[(i) where he commits an offence under clause (a), with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years but

(a) which shall not be less than one year, in case of failure to pay the employee's contribution which has been deducted by him from the employee's wages and shall also be liable to fine of ten thousand rupees;

(b) which shall not be less than six months, in any other case and shall also be liable to fine of five thousand rupees:

PROVIDED that the Court may, for any adequate and special reasons to be recorded in the judgement, impose a sentence of imprisonment for a lesser term;

(ii) where he commits an offence under any of the clauses (b) to (g) (both inclusive), with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to four thousand rupees, or with both.]

¹²³[85A. Enhanced punishment in certain cases after previous conviction

Whoever, having been convicted by a court of an offence punishable under this Act, commits the same offence shall, for every such subsequent offence, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to ¹²⁴[two years and with fine of five thousand rupees]:

PROVIDED that where such subsequent offence is for failure by the employer to pay any contribution which under this Act he is liable to pay, he shall, for every such subsequent offence, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to ¹²⁵[five years but which shall not be less than two years and shall also be liable to fine of twenty-five thousand rupees.]

¹²³[85B. Power to recover damages

(1) Where an employer fails to pay the amount due in respect of any contribution or any other amount payable under this Act, the Corporation may recover ¹²⁶[from the employer by way of penalty such damages not exceeding the amount of arrears as may be specified in the regulations]:

PROVIDED that before recovering such damages, the employer shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard :

¹²⁷[PROVIDED FURTHER that the Corporation may reduce or waive the damages recoverable under this section in relation to an establishment which is a sick industrial company in respect of which a scheme for rehabilitation has been sanctioned by the Board for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction established under section 4 of the Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985, subject to such terms and conditions as may be specified in regulations.]

(2) Any damages recoverable under sub-section(I) may be recovered as an arrear of land revenue ¹²⁷[or under section 45C to section 45-I].

85C. Power of Court to make orders

(1) Where an employer is convicted of an offence for failure to pay any contribution payable under this Act, the Court may, in addition to awarding any punishment by order, in writing require him within a period specified in the order (which the Court may if it thinks fit and on application in that behalf, from time to time, extend), to pay the amount of contribution in respect of which the offence was committed, ¹²⁷[and to furnish the return relating to such contributions].

(2) Where an order is made under sub-section (I), the employer shall not be liable under this Act in respect of the continuation of the offence during the period or extended period, if any, allowed by the Court, but if, on the expiry of such period or extended period, as the case may be, the order of the Court has not been fully complied with, the employer shall be deemed to have committed a further offence and shall be punishable with imprisonment in respect thereof under section 85 and shall also be liable to pay fine which may extend to ¹²⁸[one thousand rupees] for every day after such expiry on which the order has not been complied with.]

86. Prosecutions

(1) No prosecution under this Act shall be instituted except by or with the previous sanction of the Insurance Commissioner ³⁹[or of such other officer of the Corporation as may be authorised in this behalf by the ¹²⁹[Director-General of the Corporation]].

¹³⁰[(2) No court inferior to that of a Metropolitan Magistrate or Judicial Magistrate of the First Class shall try any offence under this Act.]

(3) No court shall take cognisance of any offence under this Act except on a complaint made in writing in respect thereof ¹³¹[* * *].

⁴[86A. Offences by companies

(1) If the person committing an offence under this Act is a company, every person, who at the time the offence was committed was incharge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

PROVIDED that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any person liable to any punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to, any neglect on the part of, any director or manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation : For the purposes of this section,

(i) "company" means any body corporate and includes a firm and other associations of individuals; and

(ii) "director" in relation to-

(a) a company, other than a firm, means the managing director or a whole-time director;

(b) a firm means a partner in the firm.]

CHAPTER VIII: MISCELLANEOUS

87. Exemption of a factory or establishment or class of factories or establishments

The appropriate government may, by notification in the Official Gazette and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the notification, exempt any factory or establishment or class of factories or establishments in any specified area from the operation of this Act for a period not exceeding one year and may from time to time by like notification renew any such exemption for periods not exceeding one year at a time.

88. Exemption of persons or class of persons

The appropriate government may, by notification in the Official Gazette and subject to such conditions as it may deem fit to impose, exempt any person or class of persons employed in any factory or establishment, or class of factories or establishments to which this Act applies from the operation of the Act.

89. Corporation to make representation

No exemption shall be granted or renewed under section 87 or section 88, unless a reasonable opportunity has been given to the Corporation to make any representation it may wish to make in regard to the proposal and such representation has been considered by the appropriate government.

90. Exemption of factories or establishments belonging to government or any local authority

The appropriate government may, ⁴⁴[after consultation with the Corporation,] by notification in the Official Gazette and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the notification, exempt any factory or establishment belonging to ¹³²[* * *] any local authority, ⁴⁴[from the operation of the Act], if the employees in any such factory or establishment are otherwise in receipt of benefits substantially similar or superior to the benefits provided under this Act.

91. Exemption from one or more provisions of the Act

The appropriate government may, with the consent of the Corporation, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt any employees or class of employees in any factory or establishment or class of factories or establishments from one or more of the provisions relating to the benefits provided under this Act.

⁴⁴[91A. Exemptions to be either prospective or retrospective

Any notification granting exemption under section 87, section 88, section 90 or section 91 may be issued so as to take effect either prospectively or retrospectively on such date as may be specified therein.]

¹⁸⁴[91B. Misuse of benefits

If the Central Government is satisfied that the benefits under this Act are being misused by insured persons in a factory or establishment, that Government may, by order, published in the Official Gazette, disentitle such persons from such of the benefits as it thinks fit:

PROVIDED that no such order shall be passed unless a reasonable opportunity of being heard is given to the concerned factory or establishment, insured persons and the trade unions registered under the Trade Unions Act, 1926 having members in the factory or establishment.

91C. Writing off of losses

Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948 (Bare Act PDF + Executive Summary)

Introduction to the Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 (Bare Act PDF)

The Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 bare act PDF is one of the earliest and most significant pieces of labour welfare legislation in independent India. It was enacted with the aim of providing social security and medical protection to workers, especially those employed in industries where health risks and economic insecurities were high. Unlike general labour laws that focus on conditions of employment, the ESI Act directly addresses the wellbeing of employees and their families by ensuring access to healthcare and income support during times of sickness, maternity, disability, or death.

The Act was introduced at a time when industrialisation in India was gaining pace, but workplace health and safety standards were still evolving. Large sections of the workforce remained vulnerable to illness, accidents, and loss of income. To address these concerns, the legislature created a statutory scheme of insurance funded by contributions from both employers and employees. This framework not only protected employees against sudden medical expenses but also provided a steady replacement income during periods when they were unable to work.

Today, the ESI scheme covers millions of workers and their dependants across India. It provides benefits that go beyond mere healthcare, creating a safety net that assures workers their families will not be left destitute in times of crisis. Employers, in turn, are required to register their establishments, enrol eligible employees, and contribute regularly to the fund. This shared responsibility makes the ESI system one of the most comprehensive social security mechanisms in the country.

In practice, the ESI framework can be summarised through three core purposes:

- Healthcare Access: Employees and their dependants are entitled to medical care through ESI hospitals, clinics, and dispensaries.
- Income Replacement: Insured workers receive cash benefits during sickness, maternity leave, or temporary/permanent disablement.
- Family Protection: Dependants' benefits ensure financial security for families in case of death of an insured employee due to employment-related injury.

The Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 bare act PDF remains the primary statutory reference for this scheme. Reading it alongside executive summaries, compliance guides, and Corrida Legal's explanatory notes provides a full understanding of both the letter of the law and its practical application.

Historical Background and Development of the Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 (Bare Act PDF)

The Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 bare act PDF was born out of the urgent need to provide social protection to India's industrial workforce in the years following independence. During the early 20th century, Indian workers faced hazardous working conditions, low wages, and almost no form of social security. Illness or injury often meant immediate financial crisis, and death of a breadwinner could push entire families into poverty.

The idea of a contributory social insurance scheme gained momentum during the 1940s, influenced by international developments. The International Labour Organization (ILO) had already begun advocating for comprehensive social insurance systems worldwide, and several European countries had established models of worker protection combining health care with income support. India, as a newly independent nation, recognised the importance of adopting similar measures to protect its growing industrial workforce.

The first step came in 1946 when the Government of India invited Professor B. N. Adarkar to prepare a report on health insurance for industrial workers. His recommendations formed the foundation of the ESI Act, which was enacted in 1948 and became the first major social security legislation in independent India. Initially, the scheme covered only a limited number of industries and regions, but over the years, it expanded steadily to include more sectors, employees, and benefits.

Key Milestones in the ESI Act 1948 Executive Summary PDF

The Employees State Insurance Act 1948 executive summary PDF highlights some important stages in its development:

- 1946: Adarkar Report recommended health insurance for industrial workers.
- 1948: ESI Act enacted, covering employees in factories with 10 or more workers.
- 1952: First ESI hospital established to provide comprehensive medical benefits.
- 1970s–1980s: Expansion of coverage to shops, establishments, and service sectors.
- 2010 onwards: Wage ceiling for coverage revised periodically to extend benefits to more workers.
- Current framework: Operated by the Employees' State Insurance Corporation (ESIC), with hospitals, dispensaries, and tie-ups across India.

Historical Growth in the Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal

The Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal explains how the Act evolved beyond just health insurance. Over time, the scheme began covering maternity, disablement, dependants' benefits, and funeral expenses. The Act also created institutional structures like the ESIC, which administers funds, oversees medical infrastructure, and ensures that both employers and employees comply with their obligations.

This growth reflects how the law has adapted to India's expanding workforce and the changing needs of employees.

Contextual Comparison in the ESI Act Benefits and Provisions PDF

The ESI Act benefits and provisions PDF points out that at the time of its introduction, India had no other comprehensive law offering medical care along with income replacement. While the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 provided relief for workplace injuries, it did not cover sickness or maternity. The ESI Act filled this gap, becoming the backbone of employee welfare and social security in India.

Why History Matters in the ESI Act 1948 Key Provisions Summary

The ESI Act 1948 key provisions summary shows that understanding the law's origins is essential to appreciating its objectives. The Act was not merely about legal compliance; it was part of India's early efforts to align with international labour standards and to protect workers who formed the backbone of industrial growth. Knowing its history helps employers and employees alike to see it as a social justice measure rather than just a financial obligation.

Applicability and Coverage under the Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 (Bare Act PDF)

The Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 bare act PDF is designed to provide social security benefits on a wide scale. Its applicability is determined by the type of establishment, number of employees, and wage levels. The law ensures that workers in both industrial and service sectors are protected, extending its coverage across India through notifications issued by the appropriate government.

At its core, the Act applies to factories and establishments employing 10 or more persons. This threshold ensures that even medium-sized units are covered, while larger employers are firmly brought within the statutory framework. The law has gradually extended its reach to include shops, hotels, restaurants, cinemas, road transport undertakings, and educational institutions. By doing so, it has kept pace with the changing structure of India's workforce.

Another crucial aspect of applicability is the wage ceiling. Employees earning wages up to the prescribed limit (revised periodically by the government) are eligible for ESI coverage. Once an employee is covered, they remain insured until the end of the contribution period, even if their wages subsequently exceed the ceiling.

Coverage Explained in the ESI Act 1948 Executive Summary PDF

The Employees State Insurance Act 1948 executive summary PDF breaks down coverage into clear categories:

- Factories: Non-seasonal factories employing 10 or more persons.
- Establishments: Shops, hotels, cinemas, educational institutions, and other notified categories with 10 or more employees.
- Geographical Expansion: Initially limited to a few centres, but now extended across almost all districts of India.
- Wage Ceiling: Employees earning wages up to the statutory limit (currently ₹21,000 per month, with higher ceilings for disabled persons).
- Voluntary Coverage: Establishments with fewer than 10 employees may opt in with approval.

Practical Aspects in the Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal

The Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal highlights certain practical points of coverage:

- Apprentices engaged under the Apprentices Act are excluded.
- Casual or temporary workers are included if they earn within the wage ceiling.
- Principal employers are responsible for compliance even when employees are engaged through contractors.
- Separate branches of the same organisation are treated as a single establishment for applicability.

These provisions prevent employers from evading coverage by outsourcing or splitting operations.

Coverage Insights in the ESI Act Benefits and Provisions PDF

The ESI Act benefits and provisions PDF shows that coverage is deliberately broad, reflecting the law's social welfare objective. The inclusion of both industrial and service sectors, as well as contract labour, ensures that protection is not restricted to a privileged group of employees but reaches all categories of low and middle-income workers.

Employer Guidance in the Employees State Insurance Compliance Guide PDF

The Employees State Insurance compliance guide PDF advises employers to treat coverage as a proactive duty. Key compliance steps include:

- Registering the establishment with the Employees' State Insurance Corporation (ESIC).
- Enrolling all eligible employees from day one.

- Updating employee data and wage records regularly.
- Ensuring contributions are deposited within timelines.

Employers who delay or neglect coverage expose themselves to penalties, back payments, and interest liabilities.

Importance of Coverage in the ESI Act 1948 Key Provisions Summary

The ESI Act 1948 key provisions summary emphasises that coverage provisions are central to the Act's purpose. By applying to a wide range of establishments and keeping the wage ceiling flexible, the law ensures that benefits remain accessible to the workers who need them most. For employers, compliance is not just about legal obligation but about contributing to a system of social justice and workforce stability.

Key Definitions and Concepts in the Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 (Bare Act PDF)

The Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 bare act PDF begins with a set of definitions that form the foundation of the law. These terms decide who qualifies as an employee, what constitutes wages, and who is responsible for compliance. In practice, most disputes under the Act arise from how these definitions are interpreted, making them central to the scheme's application.

The Act adopts a deliberately wide meaning of "employee" to ensure maximum coverage, and it clearly defines "employer" and "principal employer" so that liability cannot be shifted or avoided. Similarly, the definition of "wages" determines the contribution base and has been the subject of judicial interpretation to prevent manipulation by employers. Together, these concepts create the framework for calculating contributions, delivering benefits, and enforcing obligations.

Employee and Employer in the ESI Act 1948 Executive Summary PDF

The Employees State Insurance Act 1948 executive summary PDF explains that:

- Employee means any person employed for wages in or in connection with the work of a factory or establishment, whether directly or through an immediate employer (contractor). It includes clerical, supervisory, and temporary staff but excludes apprentices under the Apprentices Act.
- Employer includes anyone who has ultimate control over the affairs of the establishment. In factories, this is typically the occupier; in companies, it is the managing director or principal officer.

This ensures that the law covers almost all categories of workers and keeps employers accountable.

Wages Defined in the Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal

The Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal highlights that wages are not just basic pay. The term includes:

- Basic wages, dearness allowance, and retaining allowance.
- Other additional remuneration paid at intervals not exceeding two months.
- Excludes: contribution to pension or provident fund, travelling allowance, gratuity, or payment made to cover special expenses.

Courts have clarified that any allowance that is paid universally, ordinarily, and necessarily to employees should be treated as wages for ESI purposes. This prevents employers from artificially splitting salaries into allowances to reduce contributions.

Coverage Concepts in the ESI Act Benefits and Provisions PDF

The ESI Act benefits and provisions PDF stresses that definitions like “insured person” and “dependant” are equally important.

- An insured person is an employee for whom contributions are payable under the Act.
- Dependants include spouse, children, and in some cases, parents who were wholly or partially dependent on the employee at the time of death.

These definitions decide who can claim benefits like medical treatment, maternity benefits, or dependants' pensions.

Compliance Relevance in the Employees State Insurance Compliance Guide PDF

The Employees State Insurance compliance guide PDF advises employers to pay close attention to definitions when applying the Act. Practical steps include:

- Classifying all categories of workers correctly.
- Calculating wages accurately for contribution purposes.
- Ensuring contract workers are included under the principal employer's liability.
- Updating records whenever wage structures change.

By doing so, employers reduce disputes and ensure smooth compliance.

Importance of Definitions in the ESI Act 1948 Key Provisions Summary

The ESI Act 1948 key provisions summary underlines that definitions are the backbone of the Act. They determine eligibility, coverage, and obligations, ensuring that the scheme fulfils its social security purpose. For employees, these definitions guarantee access to benefits. For employers, they provide clear lines of responsibility that cannot be avoided through contractual arrangements or wage structuring.

Benefits under the Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 (Bare Act PDF)

The Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 bare act PDF is unique because it does not merely create a contributory fund; it directly provides a wide range of social security benefits. These benefits extend beyond the insured employee to their family members, ensuring a holistic system of protection. Unlike many labour laws that only impose obligations, the ESI Act creates enforceable entitlements — making it one of the most employee-centric statutes in India.

Benefits under the Act are designed to address situations where employees face financial hardship due to illness, maternity, injury, disability, or death. The scheme is comprehensive, covering both medical treatment and income replacement, so that workers and their families are not left vulnerable.

Medical Benefits in the ESI Act 1948 Executive Summary PDF

The Employees State Insurance Act 1948 executive summary PDF explains that medical benefits are the cornerstone of the scheme.

- Insured employees and their dependants are entitled to full medical care from ESI hospitals, dispensaries, and approved private facilities.
- Medical benefits are available from the day an employee enters insurable employment.
- There is no upper limit on expenditure for medical treatment.
- The range of services includes outpatient care, specialist consultation, diagnostic services, hospitalisation, and even super-speciality treatment in certain cases.

Sickness Benefits in the Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal

The Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal highlights that sickness benefits provide cash compensation when employees cannot work due to illness.

- Payable at 70% of average daily wages.
- Maximum period: 91 days in two consecutive benefit periods.
- Enhanced sickness benefit for specific long-term illnesses such as tuberculosis or cancer, payable for up to two years at a higher rate.
- Requires medical certification and contribution for a minimum qualifying period.

This ensures income continuity during health-related absences.

Maternity Benefits in the ESI Act Benefits and Provisions PDF

The ESI Act benefits and provisions PDF details maternity benefits, which are among the most progressive features of the Act.

- Paid leave for 26 weeks, extendable in cases of medical complications.
- Covers confinement, miscarriage, and sickness arising out of pregnancy.
- Benefit amount: full wages, ensuring no income loss during maternity.
- Available to insured women who have contributed for at least 70 days in the preceding two contribution periods.

This provision safeguards both maternal health and financial stability.

Disablement and Dependants' Benefits in the Employees State Insurance Compliance Guide PDF

The Employees State Insurance compliance guide PDF explains benefits provided in case of accidents or employment-related injuries:

- Temporary disablement benefit: Payable from the first day of disablement until recovery, at 90% of wages.
- Permanent disablement benefit: Lifelong pension, calculated based on loss of earning capacity as certified by a medical board.
- Dependants' benefit: Monthly pension to widow, children, or other dependants if the insured employee dies due to employment-related injury or occupational disease.
- Funeral expenses: A lump sum payable to family members or nominees to cover funeral costs.

Importance of Benefits in the ESI Act 1948 Key Provisions Summary

The ESI Act 1948 key provisions summary stresses that these benefits make the law stand apart from many other labour statutes. Employees receive not only healthcare but also financial support during the most vulnerable times of their lives. Families are protected against the economic impact of illness, disability, or death, fulfilling the law's goal of social justice and welfare.

Compliance Duties of Employers under the Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 (Bare Act PDF)

employers to ensure that eligible employees are covered and receive benefits without disruption. The law follows a contributory model, which means the employer's active role is essential for its success. Compliance is not optional but a statutory duty, and failure to comply attracts both financial penalties and criminal liability.

Employers must treat ESI compliance as a continuous obligation rather than a one-time registration. From enrolling employees at the time of hiring to ensuring timely contributions, maintaining records, and cooperating with inspections, each step is clearly outlined under the Act. These duties create a system where workers are automatically protected without having to fight for their entitlements.

Registration of Establishments in the ESI Act 1948 Executive Summary PDF

The Employees State Insurance Act 1948 executive summary PDF highlights that every employer covered under the Act must register their establishment with the Employees' State Insurance Corporation (ESIC).

- Registration is mandatory once an establishment employs 10 or more persons.
- Employers must submit details of their workforce, wage structure, and business operations.
- A unique code number is allotted by ESIC for future compliance.
- Delay in registration does not exempt liability — contributions are still payable from the date of applicability.

Enrolment and Contributions in the Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal

The Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal explains the process of enrolling employees and depositing contributions.

- Every employee earning wages within the statutory limit must be enrolled.
- Contributions are shared: 3.25% by the employer and 0.75% by the employee (total 4%).
- Employers must deduct employee contributions and deposit both shares within 15 days of the following month.
- Contributions are paid electronically through ESIC's online system.

This ensures the scheme has continuous funding to support benefits.

Maintenance of Records in the ESI Act Benefits and Provisions PDF

The ESI Act benefits and provisions PDF outlines the record-keeping duties of employers:

- Maintain registers of wages, attendance, and employee details.
- Submit periodic returns and reports to ESIC.
- Update employee information, including wage revisions or exits.
- Preserve inspection records and correspondence with ESIC authorities.

Proper record maintenance helps prevent disputes during inspections or benefit claims.

Inspections and Compliance in the Employees State Insurance Compliance Guide PDF

The Employees State Insurance compliance guide PDF explains that ESIC has wide inspection powers. Employers are required to:

- Provide access to registers, wage books, and returns.
- Answer queries raised by inspectors.

- Facilitate audits of contributions and benefits.
- Rectify errors or defaults promptly to avoid penalties.

Non-cooperation can result in penalties, prosecution, and recovery proceedings.

Compliance Importance in the ESI Act 1948 Key Provisions Summary

The ESI Act 1948 key provisions summary emphasises that employer compliance is the backbone of the scheme. Without proactive employer participation, employees cannot receive the benefits guaranteed under the law. Compliance ensures:

- Employees have uninterrupted access to medical and cash benefits.
- Employers avoid penalties, damages, and reputational harm.
- Industrial peace is maintained by protecting the social security rights of workers.

Enforcement, Penalties, and Dispute Resolution under the Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 (Bare Act PDF)

The Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 bare act PDF provides not only benefits and compliance obligations but also strict enforcement measures. The objective is to ensure that contributions are paid on time, benefits reach employees, and defaults are dealt with swiftly. The law empowers the Employees' State Insurance Corporation (ESIC) and its officers with authority similar to revenue recovery officers, ensuring that arrears and penalties can be recovered efficiently.

At the same time, the Act recognises that disputes may arise between employers, employees, and authorities. To address such issues, it establishes specialised adjudicatory forums rather than leaving matters to ordinary civil courts. This balance of strong enforcement and structured dispute resolution creates both accountability and fairness in the system.

Enforcement Powers in the ESI Act 1948 Executive Summary PDF

The Employees State Insurance Act 1948 executive summary PDF highlights key enforcement powers:

- Inspectors may enter establishments, examine records, and question management.
- Recovery officers can attach and sell property to recover dues.
- Bank accounts of defaulting employers can be frozen.
- Authorities can impose interest and damages for delayed contributions.

These powers ensure that the law is not merely advisory but enforceable in practice.

Penalties in the Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal

The Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal specifies penalties for various defaults:

- Failure to pay contributions: Attracts interest and damages up to 25% of the arrears.
- False returns or statements: Punishable with imprisonment up to two years or fine up to ₹5,000.
- Obstruction of inspectors: Can lead to prosecution and fines.
- Repeat offences: Attract stricter punishment, including longer imprisonment terms.

These penalties are intended to deter non-compliance and protect employee rights.

Recovery Mechanisms in the ESI Act Benefits and Provisions PDF

The ESI Act benefits and provisions PDF explains that recovery of contributions follows a structured process:

- Issue of a demand notice to the employer.
- If unpaid, attachment of movable and immovable property.
- Recovery from third parties who owe money to the employer.
- Use of revenue recovery procedures similar to those under the Income Tax Act.

This system ensures effective collection of dues and continuity of employee benefits.

Dispute Resolution in the Employees State Insurance Compliance Guide PDF

The Employees State Insurance compliance guide PDF outlines the role of the Employees' Insurance Court, a specialised tribunal established under the Act.

- Jurisdiction: decides disputes relating to coverage, contribution liability, and benefit claims.
- Parties: employers, employees, and ESIC can all approach the court.
- Procedure: quicker and more specialised than civil litigation.
- Appeals: lie to the High Court on substantial questions of law.

This mechanism provides fairness and expertise in resolving ESI disputes.

Importance of Enforcement in the ESI Act 1948 Key Provisions Summary

The ESI Act 1948 key provisions summary stresses that enforcement and dispute resolution are integral to the law's effectiveness. Strong penalties prevent employers from defaulting, while specialised courts ensure that genuine disputes are settled fairly. For employees, this means their benefits are protected; for employers, it ensures clarity and consistency in resolving compliance issues.

Judicial Pronouncements on the Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 (Bare Act PDF)

The Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 bare act PDF has been interpreted and clarified through several landmark judicial decisions. While the statutory text sets out the framework, courts have played an essential role in defining its scope, settling disputes, and ensuring that the law remains faithful to its welfare objective. The judiciary has consistently taken a pro-employee stance, recognising that the Act is a piece of beneficial legislation and must be interpreted liberally in favour of workers.

These judicial pronouncements cover critical issues such as the definition of wages, coverage of establishments, liability of principal employers, and the extent of benefits. By resolving ambiguities, the courts have strengthened the Act's application and ensured that employers cannot evade compliance by exploiting technicalities.

Landmark Rulings in the ESI Act 1948 Executive Summary PDF

The Employees State Insurance Act 1948 executive summary PDF highlights a few important decisions:

- Regional Director, ESIC v. High Land Coffee Works (1991): The Supreme Court held that even temporary or casual employees are entitled to ESI benefits if they meet the wage ceiling criteria.

- ESIC v. Harrison Malayalam Ltd. (1993): Clarified that once an establishment is covered under the Act, it continues to be covered even if the number of employees falls below the statutory limit.
- ESIC v. Ramanuja Match Industries (1985): Confirmed that ESI is a social welfare legislation and its provisions must be interpreted broadly to fulfil its purpose.

Definition of Wages in the Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal

The Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal highlights judicial rulings on what constitutes “wages”:

- Courts have consistently ruled that allowances such as dearness allowance, incentive bonuses, and production bonuses fall within the definition of wages.
- The Supreme Court has clarified that employers cannot restructure salary components to reduce ESI contributions.
- This ensures employees receive maximum benefit coverage and employers cannot under-contribute.

Coverage Disputes in the ESI Act Benefits and Provisions PDF

The ESI Act benefits and provisions PDF shows how courts have settled disputes on coverage:

- Establishments like hotels, educational institutions, and private clinics were brought under coverage through judicial interpretation even before they were formally notified.
- Courts have rejected arguments that outsourcing or using contractors exempts employers from liability.
- Judicial intervention has thus expanded the law’s reach and closed potential loopholes.

Dispute Resolution Insights in the Employees State Insurance Compliance Guide PDF

The Employees State Insurance compliance guide PDF notes that courts have also addressed procedural fairness:

- Employers must be given reasonable opportunity before contribution assessments are finalised.
- Recovery actions should follow due process, but they cannot be stalled indefinitely by litigation.
- Courts have supported ESIC’s powers while ensuring employers are not subjected to arbitrary action.

Importance of Judicial Pronouncements in the ESI Act 1948 Key Provisions Summary

The ESI Act 1948 key provisions summary underlines that judicial pronouncements ensure the Act evolves with changing employment patterns. By clarifying definitions, extending coverage, and balancing employer-employee interests, the courts have reinforced the Act’s role as a social security cornerstone. For employees, these rulings guarantee access to benefits; for employers, they provide authoritative guidance on compliance.

ESI Act vs Other Social Security Laws in India (Bare Act PDF)

The Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 bare act PDF is one of several labour welfare legislations in India. While its focus is on providing medical care and income support during sickness, maternity, disability, or death, other social security laws serve different but complementary purposes. Together, they create a framework of protections that safeguard workers across various stages of employment and life.

Understanding the differences between these laws is essential for both employers and employees. For employers, it ensures compliance with multiple obligations, and for employees, it highlights how each law contributes to their overall social security.

Comparison with the Provident Fund in the ESI Act 1948 Executive Summary PDF

The Employees State Insurance Act 1948 executive summary PDF highlights key distinctions between the ESI Act and the Employees' Provident Funds Act, 1952 (EPF Act).

- ESI Act: Provides medical benefits, sickness benefits, and family protection during employment.
- EPF Act: Focuses on retirement savings through monthly contributions.
- Common feature: Both create compulsory schemes funded jointly by employers and employees.
- Complementary role: ESI secures present health and income, while EPF secures post-retirement life.

Contrast with Gratuity in the Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal

The Employees State Insurance Act PDF Corrida Legal contrasts the ESI Act with the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972.

- Gratuity: A one-time lump sum payable at the end of continuous service (minimum five years).
- ESI: Provides recurring benefits during employment and in case of contingencies.
- Employee contribution: Not required under gratuity, but mandatory under ESI.

Both laws operate differently but are essential for long-term employee welfare.

Distinction from Workmen's Compensation in the ESI Act Benefits and Provisions PDF

The ESI Act benefits and provisions PDF explains how the ESI Act differs from the Employees' Compensation Act, 1923.

- Workmen's Compensation: Provides compensation for workplace accidents or occupational diseases, limited to employment-related causes.
- ESI Act: Provides broader benefits including medical, sickness, maternity, and dependants' pensions, covering both employment-related and general sickness.
- Overlap: Where ESI applies, it overrides Workmen's Compensation to avoid duplication.

Integration under the Labour Codes in the Employees State Insurance Compliance Guide PDF

The Employees State Insurance compliance guide PDF highlights that the Code on Social Security, 2020 aims to integrate multiple welfare legislations, including ESI, EPF, gratuity, and maternity benefits.

- A single registration for employers.
- Digital compliance and contribution systems.
- Extension of coverage to gig and platform workers.

- Harmonisation of definitions across laws.

This marks a shift towards a unified social security framework in India.

Broader Context in the ESI Act 1948 Key Provisions Summary

The ESI Act 1948 key provisions summary explains that no single law is sufficient on its own. Instead, the ESI Act works alongside provident fund, gratuity, maternity, and compensation laws to create a multi-layered system of protection. Employees thus receive security during employment, at retirement, and in unforeseen contingencies. Employers, in turn, must view these obligations holistically rather than in isolation.

Conclusion on the Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 (Bare Act PDF)

The Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 bare act PDF remains one of the strongest pillars of India's labour welfare system. By combining medical care with income security, it offers comprehensive protection that few other laws provide. Its design reflects a simple but powerful idea: employees should not be left helpless in the face of sickness, maternity, disability, or death. Instead, they and their families should have guaranteed access to healthcare and financial support.

Over the decades, the Act has expanded its coverage to millions of workers, adapting to the growth of industries and services across India. It has been reinforced by judicial pronouncements, strengthened through amendments, and now finds its place within the broader framework of the Social Security Code, 2020. Yet, its core welfare spirit has remained unchanged since 1948.

For employees, the scheme is more than a legal entitlement, it is an assurance of dignity and stability. For employers, it is both a responsibility and an opportunity to contribute to workforce security. Non-compliance not only attracts penalties but also erodes trust within the organisation.
