CHAPTER III

TRANSFER OF ASSETS, LIABILITIES, ETC., OF THE EXISTING SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE BOARD TO THE BOARD

10. Transfer of assets, liabilities, etc., of existing Securities and Exchange Board to the Board.—

(1) On and from the date of establishment of the Board,—

(a) any reference to the existing Securities and Exchange Board in any law other than this Act or in any contract or other instrument shall be deemed as a reference to the Board;

(b) all properties and assets, movable and immovable, of, or belonging to, the existing Securities and Exchange Board, shall vest in the Board;

(c) all rights and liabilities of the existing Securities and Exchange Board shall be transferred to, and be the rights and liabilities of, the Board;

(d) without prejudice to the provisions of clause (c), all debts, obligations and liabilities incurred, all contracts entered into and all matters and things engaged to be done by, with or for the existing Securities and Exchange Board immediately before that date, for or in connection with the purpose of the said existing Board shall be deemed to have been incurred, entered into or engaged to be done by, with or for, the Board;

(e) all sums of money due to the existing Securities and Exchange Board immediately before that date shall be deemed to be due to the Board;

(f) all suits and other legal proceedings instituted or which could have been instituted by or against the existing Securities and Exchange Board immediately before that date may be continued or may be instituted by or against the Board; and

(g) every employee holding any office under the existing Securities and Exchange Board immediately before that date shall hold his office in the Board by the same tenure and upon the same terms and conditions of service as respects remuneration, leave, provident fund, retirement and other terminal benefits as he would have held such office if the Board had not been established and shall continue to do so as an employee of the Board or until the expiry of the period of six months from that date if such employee opts not to be the employee of the Board within such period.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), or in any other law for the time being in force, absorption of any employee by the Board in its regular service under this section shall not entitle such employee to any compensation under that Act or other law and no such claim shall be entertained by any court, tribunal or other authority.

CHAPTER IV

POWERS AND FUNCTIONS OF THE BOARD

11. Functions of Board.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, it shall be the duty of the Board to protect the interests of investors in securities and to promote the development of, and to regulate the securities market, by such measures as it thinks fit.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, the measures referred to therein may provide for—

(a) regulating the business in stock exchanges and any other securities markets;

(b) registering and regulating the working of stock brokers, sub-brokers, share transfer agents, bankers to an issue, trustees of trust deeds, registrars to an issue, merchant bankers, underwriters, portfolio managers, investment advisers and such other intermediaries who may be associated with securities markets in any manner;

¹[(ba) registering and regulating the working of the ²[depositories, participants, custodians] of securities, foreign institutional investors, credit rating agencies and such other intermediaries as the Board may, by notification, specify in this behalf;]

1. Ins. by Act 9 of 1995, s. 5 (w.e.f. 25-1-1995).

2. Subs. by Act 22 of 1996, s. 30 and the Schedule, for “depositories, custodians” (w.e.f. 20-9-1995).

(g) prohibiting insider trading in securities;

(h) regulating substantial acquisition of shares and take-over of companies;

(i) calling for information from, undertaking inspection, conducting inquiries and audits of the ²[stock exchanges, mutual funds, other persons associated with the securities market] intermediaries and self-regulatory organisations in the securities market;

³[(ia) calling for information and records from any person including any bank or any other authority or board or corporation established or constituted by or under any Central or State Act which, in the opinion of the Board, shall be relevant to any investigation or inquiry by the Board in respect of any transaction in securities;]

⁴[(ib) calling for information from, or furnishing information to, other authorities, whether in India or outside India, having functions similar to those of the Board, in the matters relating to the prevention or detection of violations in respect of securities laws, subject to the provisions of other laws for the time being in force in this regard:

Provided that the Board, for the purpose of furnishing any information to any authority outside India, may enter into an arrangement or agreement or understanding with such authority with the prior approval of the Central Government;]

(j) performing such functions and exercising such powers under the provisions of ^{5*} the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 (42 of 1956), as may be delegated to it by the Central Government;

(k) levying fees or other charges for carrying out the purposes of this section;

(l) conducting research for the above purposes;

⁶[(la) calling from or furnishing to any such agencies, as may be specified by the Board, such information as may be considered necessary by it for the efficient discharge of its functions;]

(m) performing such other functions as may be prescribed.

⁷[(24) Without prejudice to the provisions contained in sub-section (2), the Board may take measures to undertake inspection of any book, or register, or other document or record of any listed public company or a public company (not being intermediaries referred to in section 12) which intends to get its securities listed on any recognised stock exchange where the Board has reasonable grounds to believe that such company has been indulging in insider trading or fraudulent and unfair trade practices relating to securities market.]

⁸[(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force while exercising the powers under ⁹[clause (i) or clause (ia) of sub-section (2) or sub-section (24)], the Board shall have the same powers as are vested in a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) while trying a suit, in respect of the following matters, namely:—

(i) the discovery and production of books of account and other documents, at such place and such time as may be specified by the Board;

1. Subs. by Act 9 of 1995, s. 5, for “collective investment schemes” (w.e.f. 25-1-1995).

2. Subs. by s. 5, ibid., for “stock exchanges and” (w.e.f. 25-1-1995).

11B. Power to issue directions ²[and a levy penalty].—³[(1)] Save as otherwise provided in section 11, if after making or causing to be made an enquiry, the Board is satisfied that it is necessary—

(i) in the interest of investors, or orderly development of securities market; or

(ii) to prevent the affairs of any intermediary or other persons referred to in section 12 being conducted in a manner detrimental to the interests of investors or securities market; or

(iii) to secure the proper management of any such intermediary or person, it may issue such directions,—

(a) to any person or class of persons referred to in section 12, or associated with the securities market; or

(b) to any company in respect of matters specified in section 11A, as may be appropriate in the interests of investors in securities and the securities market.]

⁴[Explanation.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that the power to issue directions under this section shall include and always be deemed to have been included the power to direct any person, who made profit or averted loss by indulging in any transaction or activity in contravention of the provisions of this Act or regulations made thereunder, to disgorge an amount equivalent to the wrongful gain made or loss averted by such contravention.]

⁵[(2) Without prejudice to the provisions contained in sub-section (1), sub-section (4A) of section 11 and section 15-I, the Board may, by an order, for reasons to be recorded in writing, levy penalty under sections 15A, 15B, 15C, 15D, 15E, 15EA, 15EB, 15F, 15G, 15H, 15HA and 15HB after holding an inquiry in the prescribed manner.]

⁶[11C. Investigation.—(1) Where the Board has reasonable ground to believe that—

(a) the transactions in securities are being dealt with in a manner detrimental to the investors or the securities market; or

(b) any intermediary or any person associated with the securities market has violated any of the provisions of this Act or the rules or the regulations made or directions issued by the Board thereunder, it may, at any time by order in writing, direct any person (hereafter in this section referred to as the Investigating Authority) specified in the order to investigate the affairs of such intermediary or persons associated with the securities market and to report thereon to the Board.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sections 235 to 241 of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), it shall be the duty of every manager, managing director, officer and other employee of the company and every intermediary referred to in section 12 or every person associated with the securities market to preserve and to produce to the Investigating Authority or any person authorised by it in this behalf, all the books, registers, other documents and record of, or relating to, the company or, as the case may be, of or relating to, the intermediary or such person, which are in their custody or power.

(3) The Investigating Authority may require any intermediary or any person associated with securities market in any manner to furnish such information to, or produce such books, or registers, or other documents, or record before it or any person authorised by it in this behalf as it may consider necessary if the furnishing of such information or the production of such books, or registers, or other documents, or record is relevant or necessary for the purposes of its investigation.

(4) The Investigating Authority may keep in its custody any books, registers, other documents and record produced under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) for six months and thereafter shall return the same to any intermediary or any person associated with securities market by whom or on whose behalf the books, registers, other documents and record are produced:

1. Ins. by Act 27 of 2014, s. 3 (w.e.f. 18-7-2013).

2. Ins. by Act 13 of 2018, s. 180 (w.e.f. 8-3-2019).

3. Section 11B renumbered as sub-section (1) thereof by s. 180, ibid. (w.e.f. 8-3-2019).

4. Ins. by Act 27 of 2014, s. 4 (w.e.f. 18-7-2013).

5. Ins. by Act 13 of 2018, s. 180 (w.e.f. 8-3-2019).

6. Ins. by Act 59 of 2002, s. 6 (w.e.f. 29-10-2002).

Provided that the Investigating Authority may call for any book, register, other document and record if they are needed again:

Provided further that if the person on whose behalf the books, registers, other documents and record are produced requires certified copies of the books, registers, other documents and record produced before the Investigating Authority, it shall give certified copies of such books, registers, other documents and record to such person or on whose behalf the books, registers, other documents and record were produced.

(5) Any person, directed to make an investigation under sub-section (1), may examine on oath, any manager, managing director, officer and other employee of any intermediary or any person associated with securities market in any manner, in relation to the affairs of his business and may administer an oath accordingly and for that purpose may require any of those persons to appear before it personally.

(6) If any person fails without reasonable cause or refuses—

(a) to produce to the Investigating Authority or any person authorised by it in this behalf any book, register, other document and record which is his duty under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) to produce; or

(b) to furnish any information which is his duty under sub-section (3) to furnish; or

(c) to appear before the Investigating Authority personally when required to do so under sub-section (5) or to answer any question which is put to him by the Investigating Authority in pursuance of that sub-section; or

(d) to sign the notes of any examination referred to in sub-section (7), he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, which may extend to one crore rupees, or with both, and also with a further fine which may extend to five lakh rupees for every day after the first during which the failure or refusal continues.

(7) Notes of any examination under sub-section (5) shall be taken down in writing and shall be read over to, or by, and signed by, the person examined, and may thereafter be used in evidence against him.

(8) Where in the course of investigation, the Investigating Authority has reasonable ground to believe that the books, registers, other documents and record of, or relating to, any intermediary or any person associated with securities market in any manner, may be destroyed, mutilated, altered, falsified or secreted, the Investigating Authority may make an application to ¹[the Magistrate or Judge of such designated court in Mumbai, as may be notified by the Central Government] for an order for the seizure of such books, registers, other documents and record.

²[(8A) The authorised officer may requisition the services of any police officer or any officer of the Central Government, or of both, to assist him for all or any of the purposes specified in sub-section (8) and it shall be the duty of every such officer to comply with such requisition.]

(9) After considering the application and hearing the Investigating Authority, if necessary, ³[the Magistrate or Judge of the Designated Court] may, by order, authorise the Investigating Authority—

(a) to enter, with such assistance, as may be required, the place or places where such books, registers, other documents and record are kept;

(b) to search that place or those places in the manner specified in the order; and

(c) to seize books, registers, other documents and record, it considers necessary for the purposes of the investigation:

Provided that ³[the Magistrate or Judge of the Designated Court] shall not authorise seizure of books, registers, other documents and record, of any listed public company or a public company (not being the intermediaries specified under section 12) which intends to get its securities listed on any recognised stock exchange unless such company indulges in insider trading or market manipulation.

(10) The Investigating Authority shall keep in its custody the books, registers, other documents and record seized under this section for such period not later than the conclusion of the investigation as it

1. Subs. by Act 27 of 2014, s. 5, for “the Judicial Magistrate of the first class having jurisdiction” (w.e.f. 18-7-2013).

2. Ins. by s. 5, ibid. (w.e.f. 28-3-2014).

3. Subs. by s. 5, ibid., for “the Magistrate” (w.e.f. 18-7-2013).

considers necessary and thereafter shall return the same to the company or the other body corporate, or, as the case may be, to the managing director or the manager or any other person, from whose custody or power they were seized and inform ¹[the Magistrate or Judge of the Designated Court] of such return:

Provided that the Investigating Authority may, before returning such books, registers, other documents and record as aforesaid, place identification marks on them or any part thereof.

(11) Save as otherwise provided in this section, every search or seizure made under this section shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) relating to searches or seizures made under that Code.

11D. Cease and desist proceedings.—If the Board finds, after causing an inquiry to be made, that any person has violated, or is likely to violate, any provisions of this Act, or any rules or regulations made thereunder, it may pass an order requiring such person to cease and desist from committing or causing such violation:

Provided that the Board shall not pass such order in respect of any listed public company or a public company (other than the intermediaries specified under section 12) which intends to get its securities listed on any recognised stock exchange unless the Board has reasonable grounds to believe that such company has indulged in insider trading or market manipulation.]

CHAPTER V

REGISTRATION CERTIFICATE

12. Registration of stock-brokers, sub-brokers, share transfer agents, etc.—(1) No stock-broker, sub-broker, share transfer agent, banker to an issue, trustee of trust deed, registrar to an issue, merchant banker, underwriter, portfolio manager, investment adviser and such other intermediary who may be associated with securities market shall buy, sell or deal in securities except under, and in accordance with, the conditions of a certificate of registration obtained from the Board in accordance with the ²[regulations] made under this Act:

Provided that a person buying or selling securities or otherwise dealing with the securities market as a stock-broker, sub-broker, share transfer agent, banker to an issue, trustee of trust deed, registrar to an issue, merchant banker, underwriter, portfolio manager, investment adviser and such other intermediary who may be associated with securities market immediately before the establishment of the Board for which no registration certificate was necessary prior to such establishment, may continue to do so for a period of three months from such establishment or, if he has made an application for such registration within the said period of three months, till the disposal of such application:

Provided that a person buying or selling securities or otherwise dealing with the securities market as a ⁴[depository, participant, custodian] of securities, foreign institutional investor or credit rating agency immediately before the commencement of the Securities Laws (Amendment) Act, 1995 (9 of 1995), for which no certificate of registration was required prior to such commencement, may continue to buy or sell securities or otherwise deal with the securities market until such time regulations are made under clause (d) of sub-section (2) of section 30.

(1B) No person shall sponsor or cause to be sponsored or carry on or cause to be carried on any venture capital funds or collective investment scheme including mutual funds, unless he obtains a certificate of registration from the Board in accordance with the regulations:

Provided that any person sponsoring or causing to be sponsored, carrying or causing to be carried on any venture capital funds or collective investment scheme operating in the securities market immediately

³[15HA. Penalty for fraudulent and unfair trade practices.—If any person indulges in fraudulent and unfair trade practices relating to securities, he shall be liable to a penalty ⁴[which shall not be less than five lakh rupees but which may extend to twenty-five crore rupees or three times the amount of profits made out of such practices, whichever is higher].

⁵[15HAA. Penalty for alteration, destruction, etc., of records and failure to protect the electronic database of Board.—Any person, who—

(a) knowingly alters, destroys, mutilates, conceals, falsifies, or makes a false entry in any information, record, document (including electronic records), which is required under this Act or any rules or regulations made there under, so as to impede, obstruct, or influence the investigation, inquiry, audit, inspection or proper administration of any matter within the jurisdiction of the Board.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this clause, a person shall be deemed to have altered, concealed or destroyed such information, record or document, in case he knowingly fails to immediately report the matter to the Board or fails to preserve the same till such information continues to be relevant to any investigation, inquiry, audit, inspection or proceeding, which may be initiated by the Board and conclusion thereof;

(b) without being authorised to do so, access or tries to access, or denies of access or modifies access parameters, to the regulatory data in the database;

(c) without being authorised to do so, downloads, extracts, copies, or reproduces in any form the regulatory data maintained in the system database;

(d) knowingly introduces any computer virus or other computer contaminant into the system database and brings out a trading halt;

(e) without authorisation disrupts the functioning of system database;

(f) knowingly damages, destroys, deletes, alters, diminishes in value or utility, or affects by any means, the regulatory data in the system database; or

(g) knowingly provides any assistance to or causes any other person to do any of the acts specified in clauses (a) to (f), shall be liable to a penalty which shall not be less than one lakh rupees but which may extend to ten crore rupees or three times the amount of profits made out of such act, whichever is higher.

Explanation.—In this section, the expressions “computer contaminant”, “computer virus” and “damage” shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them under section 43 of the Information Technology Act, 2000 (21 of 2000).]

15HB. Penalty for contravention where no separate penalty has been provided.—Whoever fails to comply with any provision of this Act, the rules or the regulations made or directions issued by the Board thereunder for which no separate penalty has been provided, shall be ¹[liable to a penalty which shall not be less one lakh rupees but which may extend to one crore rupees].]

15-I. Power to adjudicate.—(1) For the purpose of adjudging under sections 15A, 15B, 15C, 15D, 15E, ²[15EA, 15EB,] 15F, 15G, ³[15H, 15HA and 15HB] the Board ⁴[may] appoint any officer not below the rank of a Division Chief to be an adjudicating officer for holding an inquiry in the prescribed manner after giving any person concerned a reasonable opportunity of being heard for the purpose of imposing any penalty.

(2) While holding an inquiry the adjudicating officer shall have power to summon and enforce the attendance of any person acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case to give evidence or to produce any document which in the opinion of the adjudicating officer, may be useful for or relevant to the subject matter of the inquiry and if, on such inquiry, he is satisfied that the person has failed to comply with the provisions of any of the sections specified in sub-section (1), he may impose such penalty as he thinks fit in accordance with the provisions of any of those sections.

⁵[(3) The Board may call for and examine the record of any proceedings under this section and if it considers that the order passed by the adjudicating officer is erroneous to the extent it is not in the interests of the securities market, it may, after making or causing to be made such inquiry as it deems necessary, pass an order enhancing the quantum of penalty, if the circumstances of the case so justify:

Provided that no such order shall be passed unless the person concerned has been given an opportunity of being heard in the matter:

Provided further that nothing contained in this sub-section shall be applicable after an expiry of a period of three months from the date of the order passed by the adjudicating officer or disposal of the appeal under section 15T, whichever is earlier.]

15J. ⁶[Factors to be taken into account while adjudging quantum of penalty].—While adjudging the quantum of penalty under ⁷[15-I or section 11 or section 11B, the Board or the adjudicating officer] officer shall have due regard to the following factors, namely:—

- (a) the amount of disproportionate gain or unfair advantage, wherever quantifiable, made as a result of the default;
- (b) the amount of loss caused to an investor or group of investors as a result of the default;
- (c) the repetitive nature of the default.

³[15Z. Appeal to Supreme Court.—Any person aggrieved by any decision or order of the Securities Appellate Tribunal may file an appeal to the Supreme Court within sixty days from the date of communication of the decision or order of the Securities Appellate Tribunal to him on any question of law arising out of such order:

Provided that the Supreme Court may, if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal within the said period, allow it to be filed within a further period not exceeding sixty days.]]

CHAPTER VII

MISCELLANEOUS

16. Power to Central Government to issue directions.—(1) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions of this Act, the Board shall, in exercise of its powers or the performance of its functions under ⁴[this Act or the Depositories Act, 1996 (22 of 1996)], be bound by such directions on questions of policy as the Central Government may give in writing to it from time to time:

1. Subs. by Act 32 of 1999, s. 10, for section 15V (w.e.f. 16-12-1999).

2. Subs. by Act 59 of 2002, s. 26, for section 15X (w.e.f. 29-10-2002).

3. Subs. by s. 27, ibid., for section 15Z (w.e.f. 29-10-2002).

4. Subs. by Act 22 of 1996, s. 30 and the Schedule, for "this Act" (w.e.f. 20-9-1995).

Provided that the Board shall, as far as practicable, be given an opportunity to express its views before any direction is given under this sub-section.

(2) The decision of the Central Government whether a question is one of policy or not shall be final.

17. Power of Central Government to supersede the Board.—(1) If at any time the Central Government is of opinion—

(a) that on account of grave emergency, the Board is unable to discharge the functions and duties imposed on it by or under the provisions of this Act; or

(b) that the Board has persistently made default in complying with any direction issued by the Central Government under this Act or in the discharge of the functions and duties imposed on it by or under the provisions of this Act and as a result of such default the financial position of the Board or the administration of the Board has deteriorated; or

(c) that circumstances exist which render it necessary in the public interest so to do, the Central Government may, by notification, supersede the Board for such period, not exceeding six months, as may be specified in the notification.

(2) Upon the publication of a notification under sub-section (1) superseding the Board,—

(a) all the members shall, as from the date of supersession, vacate their offices as such;

(b) all the powers, functions and duties which may, by or under the provisions of this Act, be exercised or discharged by or on behalf of the Board, shall until the Board is reconstituted under sub-section (3), be exercised and discharged by such person or persons as the Central Government may direct; and

(c) all property owned or controlled by the Board shall, until the Board is reconstituted under sub-section (3), vest in the Central Government.

(3) On the expiration of the period of supersession specified in the notification issued under sub-section (1), the Central Government may reconstitute the Board by a fresh appointment and in such case any person or persons who vacated their offices under clause (a) of sub-section (2), shall not be deemed disqualified for appointment:

Provided that the Central Government may, at any time, before the expiration of the period of supersession, take action under this sub-section.

(4) The Central Government shall cause a notification issued under sub-section (1) and a full report of any action taken under this section and the circumstances leading to such action to be laid before each House of Parliament at the earliest.

18. Returns and reports.—(1) The Board shall furnish to the Central Government at such time and in such form and manner as may be prescribed or as the Central Government may direct, such returns and statements and such particulars in regard to any proposed or existing programme for the promotion and development of the securities market, as the Central Government may, from time to time, require.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Board shall, within ¹[ninety days] after the end of each financial year, submit to the Central Government a report in such form, as may be prescribed, giving a true and full account of its activities, policy and programmes during the previous financial year.

(3) A copy of the report received under sub-section (2) shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is received, before each House of Parliament.

19. Delegation.—The Board may, by general or special order in writing delegate to any member, officer of the Board or any other person subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order, such of its powers and functions under this Act (except the powers under section 29) as it may deem necessary.

20. Appeals.—(1) Any person aggrieved by ²[an order of the Board made, before the commencement of the Securities Laws (Second Amendment) Act, 1999 (32 of 1999),] under this Act, or the rules or

1. Subs. by Act 9 of 1995, s. 10, for “sixty days” (w.e.f. 25-1-1995).

2. Subs. by Act 32 of 1999, s. 11, for “an order of the Board made” (w.e.f. 16-12-1999).

regulations made thereunder may prefer an appeal to the Central Government within such time as may be prescribed.

(2) No appeal shall be admitted if it is preferred after the expiry of the period prescribed therefor:

Provided that an appeal may be admitted after the expiry of the period prescribed therefor if the appellant satisfies the Central Government that he had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within the prescribed period.

(3) Every appeal made under this section shall be made in such form and shall be accompanied by a copy of the order appealed against and by such fees as may be prescribed.

(4) The procedure for disposing of an appeal shall be such as may be prescribed:

Provided that before disposing of an appeal, the appellant shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

¹[20A. Bar of jurisdiction.]—No order passed by the ²[Board or the adjudicating officer] under this Act shall be appealable except as provided in ³[section 15T or section 20] and no civil court shall have jurisdiction in respect of any matter which the ⁴[Board or the adjudicating officer] is empowered by, or under, this Act to pass any order and no injunction shall be granted by any court or other authority in respect of any action taken or to be taken in pursuance of any order passed by the ⁴[Board or the adjudicating officer] by, or under, this Act.]

21. Savings.—Nothing in this Act shall exempt any person from any suit or other proceedings which might, apart from this Act, be brought against him.

22. Members, officers and employees of the Board to be public servants.—All members, officers and other employees of the Board shall be deemed, when acting or purporting to act in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act, to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860).

23. Protection of action taken in good faith.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against the Central Government ⁴[or Board] or any officer of the Central Government or any member, officer or other employee of the Board for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or the rules or regulations made thereunder.

⁵[24. Offences.]—(1) Without prejudice to any award of penalty by the adjudicating officer ⁶[or the Board] under this Act, if any person contravenes or attempts to contravene or abets the contravention of the provisions of this Act or of any rules or regulations made thereunder, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to ⁷[ten years, or with fine, which may extend to twenty-five crore rupees or with both].

(2) If any person fails to pay the penalty imposed by the adjudicating officer ⁸[or the Board] or fails to comply with any ⁹ directions or orders, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than one month but which may extend to ¹⁰[ten years, or with fine, which may extend to twenty-five crore rupees or with both].

¹¹[24A. Composition of certain offences.]—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), any offence punishable under this Act, not being an offence punishable with imprisonment only, or with imprisonment and also with fine, may either before or after the institution of any proceeding, be compounded by a Securities Appellate Tribunal or a court before which such proceedings are pending.

1. Ins. by Act 9 of 1995, s. 11 (w.e.f. 25-1-1995).

2. Subs. by Act 32 of 1999, s. 12, for “Board” (w.e.f. 16-12-1999).

3. Subs. by s. 12, ibid., for “section 20” (w.e.f. 16-12-1999).

4. Ins. by Act 9 of 1995, s. 12 (w.e.f. 25-1-1995).

5. Subs. by s. 13, ibid., for section 24 (w.e.f. 25-1-1995).

6. Ins. by Act 13 of 2018, s. 187 (w.e.f. 8-3-2019).

7. Subs. by Act 59 of 2002, s. 28, for “one year, or with fine, or with both” (w.e.f. 29-10-2002).

8. Ins. by Act 13 of 2018, s. 187 (w.e.f. 8-3-2019).

9. The words “of his” omitted by s. 187, ibid. (w.e.f. 8-3-2019).

10. Subs. by Act 59 of 2002, s. 28, for certain words (w.e.f. 29-10-2002).

11. Ins. by s. 29, ibid. (w.e.f. 29-10-2002).

26C. Appeal and revision.—The High Court may exercise, so far as may be applicable, all the powers conferred by Chapters XXIX and XXX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) on a High Court, as if a Special Court within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the High Court were a Court of Session trying cases within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the High Court.

26D. Application of Code to proceedings before Special Court.—(1) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) shall apply to the proceedings before a Special Court and for the purposes of the said provisions, the Special Court shall be deemed to be a Court of Session and the person conducting prosecution before a Special Court shall be deemed to be a Public Prosecutor within the meaning of clause (u) of section 2 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974).

(2) The person conducting prosecution referred to in sub-section (1) should have been in practice as an advocate for not less than seven years or should have held a post, for a period of not less than seven years, under the Union or a State, requiring special knowledge of law.

26E. Transitional provisions.—Any offence committed under this Act, which is triable by a Special Court shall, until a Special Court is established, be taken cognizance of and tried by a Court of Session exercising jurisdiction over the area, notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974):

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall affect the powers of the High Court under section 407 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) to transfer any case or class of cases taken cognizance by a Court of Session under this section.]

27. ¹[Contravention by companies].—(1) Where ²[a contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or any rule, regulation, direction or order made thereunder] has been committed by a company, every person who at the time the ³[contravention] was committed was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in this Act, if he proves that the ⁴[contravention] was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an ⁴[contravention] under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the ⁴[contravention] has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of the ⁴[contravention] and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) “company” means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) “director”, in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

28. [Power to exempt.] Omitted by the Securities Laws (Amendment) Act, 1995 (9 of 1995), s. 15 (w.e.f. 25-1-1995).

⁴[28A. Recovery of amounts.—(1) If a person fails to pay the penalty imposed ⁵[under this Act] or fails to comply with any direction of the Board for refund of monies or fails to comply with a direction of disgorgement order issued under section 11B or fails to pay any fees due to the Board, the Recovery Officer may draw up under his signature a statement in the specified form specifying the amount due from the person (such statement being hereafter in this Chapter referred to as certificate) and shall proceed to recover from such person the amount specified in the certificate by one or more of the following modes, namely:—

(a) attachment and sale of the person’s movable property;

1. Subs. by Act 13 of 2018, s. 188, for marginal heading (w.e.f. 8-3-2019).

2. Subs. by s. 188, ibid., for “an offence under this Act” (w.e.f. 8-3-2019).

3. Subs. by s. 188, ibid., for “offence” (w.e.f. 8-3-2019).

4. Ins. by Act 27 of 2014, s. 21 (w.e.f. 18-7-2013).

5. Subs. by Act 13 of 2018, s. 189, for “by the adjudicating officer” (w.e.f. 8-3-2019).

- (b) attachment of the person's bank accounts;
- (c) attachment and sale of the person's immovable property;
- (d) arrest of the person and his detention in prison;
- (e) appointing a receiver for the management of the person's movable and immovable properties, and for this purpose, the provisions of sections 220 to 227, 228A, 229, 232, the Second and Third Schedules to the Income-tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961) and the Income-tax (Certificate Proceedings) Rules, 1962, as in force from time to time, in so far as may be, apply with necessary modifications as if the said provisions and the rules made thereunder were the provisions of this Act and referred to the amount due under this Act instead of to income-tax under the Income-tax Act, 1961.

Explanation 1.— For the purposes of this sub-section, the person's movable or immovable property or monies held in bank accounts shall include any property or monies held in bank accounts which has been transferred directly or indirectly on or after the date when the amount specified in certificate had become due, by the person to his spouse or minor child or son's wife or son's minor child, otherwise than for adequate consideration, and which is held by, or stands in the name of, any of the persons aforesaid; and so far as the movable or immovable property or monies held in bank accounts so transferred to his minor child or his son's minor child is concerned, it shall, even after the date of attainment of majority by such minor child or son's minor child, as the case may be, continue to be included in the person's movable or immovable property or monies held in bank accounts for recovering any amount due from the person under this Act.

Explanation 2.—Any reference under the provisions of the Second and Third Schedules to the Income-tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961) and the Income-tax (Certificate Proceedings) Rules, 1962 to the assessee shall be construed as a reference to the person specified in the certificate.

Explanation 3.—Any reference to appeal in Chapter XVIII and the Second Schedule to the Income-tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961), shall be construed as a reference to appeal before the Securities Appellate Tribunal under section 15T of this Act.

¹[Explanation 4. —The interest referred to in section 220 of the Income-tax Act, 1961 shall commence from the date the amount became payable by the person.]

(2) The Recovery Officer shall be empowered to seek the assistance of the local district administration while exercising the powers under sub-section (1).

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the recovery of amounts by a Recovery Officer under sub-section (1), pursuant to non-compliance with any direction issued by the Board under section 11B, shall have precedence over any other claim against such person.

(4) For the purposes of sub-sections (1), (2) and (3), the expression “Recovery Officer” means any officer of the Board who may be authorised, by general or special order in writing, to exercise the powers of a Recovery Officer.]

²[28B. Continuance of proceedings.—(1) Where a person dies, his legal representative shall be liable to pay any sum which the deceased would have been liable to pay, if he had not died, in the like manner and to the same extent as the deceased:

Provided that, in case of any penalty payable under this Act, a legal representative shall be liable only in case the penalty has been imposed before the death of the deceased person.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1),—

(a) any proceeding for disgorgement, refund or an action for recovery before the Recovery Officer under this Act, except a proceeding for levy of penalty, initiated against the deceased before his death, shall be deemed to have been initiated against the legal representative, and may be continued against the legal representative from the stage at which it stood on the date of the death of the deceased and all the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly;

(b) any proceeding for disgorgement, refund or an action for recovery before the Recovery Officer under this Act, except a proceeding for levy of penalty, which could have been initiated

1. The Explanation ins. by Act 21 of 2019, s. 42 and the Second Schedule (w.e.f. 21-2-2019).

2. Ins. by Act 13 of 2018, s. 190 (w.e.f. 8-3-2019).

against the deceased if he had survived, may be initiated against the legal representative and all the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly.

(3) Every legal representative shall be personally liable for any sum payable by him in his capacity as legal representative if, while his liability for such sum remains undischarged, he creates a charge on or disposes of or parts with any assets of the estate of the deceased, which are in, or may come into, his possession, but such liability shall be limited to the value of the asset so charged, disposed of or parted with.

(4) The liability of a legal representative under this section shall be limited to the extent to which the estate of the deceased is capable of meeting the liability.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section “legal representative” means a person who in law represents the estate of a deceased person, and includes any person who intermeddles with the estate of the deceased and where a party sues or is sued in a representative character, the person on whom the estate devolves on the death of the party so suing or sued.]

¹[28C. Powers of Board not to apply to International Financial Services Centre.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the powers exercisable by the Board under this Act,—

(a) shall not extend to an International Financial Services Centre set up under sub-section (1) of section 18 of the Special Economic Zones Act, 2005 (28 of 2005);

(b) shall be exercisable by the International Financial Services Centres Authority established under sub-section (1) of section 4 of the International Financial Services Centres Authority Act, 2019, in so far as regulation of financial products, financial services and financial institutions that are permitted in the International Financial Services Centres are concerned.]

29. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the term of office and other conditions of service of the Chairman and the members under sub-section (1) of section 5;

(b) the additional functions that may be performed by the Board under section 11;

2* * * * *

(d) the manner in which the accounts of the Board shall be maintained under section 15;

³[(da) the manner of inquiry under sub-section (1) of section 15-I;

(db) the salaries and allowances and other terms and conditions of service of the ⁴[Presiding Officers, Members] and other officers and employees of the Securities Appellate Tribunal under section 15-O and sub-section (3) of section 15S;

(dc) the procedure for the investigation of misbehaviour or incapacity of the ⁵[Presiding Officers, or other Members] of the Securities Appellate Tribunal under sub-section (3) of section 15Q;

(dd) the form in which an appeal may be filed before the Securities Appellate Tribunal under section 15T and the fees payable in respect of such appeal;]

(e) the form and the manner in which returns and report to be made to the Central Government under section 18;

(f) any other matter which is to be, or may be, prescribed, or in respect of which provision is to be, or may be, made by rules.

30. Power to make regulations.—(1) The Board may, ⁶ by notification, make regulations consistent with this Act and the rules made thereunder to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such regulations may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

1. Ins. by Act 50 of 2019, s. 33 and the second Schedule (w.e.f. 1-10-2020).

SEBI Act 1992 Bare Act with Executive Summary – Corrida Legal

Introduction to the SEBI Act, 1992

The early 1990s marked a period of rapid growth for India's capital markets. While trading volumes increased, regulatory safeguards were still weak, leaving investors exposed to risks. To address these challenges, the government enacted the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 bare act, which gave statutory powers to SEBI. This shift created a modern framework for monitoring, regulating, and developing the securities market in India.

Background and need for SEBI Act

Before SEBI gained statutory recognition, stock exchanges functioned with limited oversight. Insider trading, price manipulation, and lack of transparency were common issues. The liberalisation of the Indian economy further highlighted the need for a strong regulator. The SEBI Act was therefore designed to:

- Protect the interests of investors in securities.
- Promote the development of a fair and transparent capital market.
- Regulate the working of stock exchanges and intermediaries.

This framework made securities regulation in India more structured and aligned with global practices.

Transition to a stronger legal framework

The passing of the Act transformed SEBI from an advisory body into a powerful regulator with the authority to investigate, penalise, and enforce compliance. Over time, SEBI issued detailed rules and guidelines, making compliance mandatory for listed companies, brokers, merchant bankers, and mutual funds. For professionals and students, accessing a SEBI Act 1992 bare act with summary PDF remains the most practical way to understand its core provisions.

Objectives of the SEBI Act

The law was introduced with multiple objectives that continue to guide its implementation today:

- Safeguarding investor rights through disclosure norms and grievance mechanisms.
- Regulating stock exchanges and intermediaries to prevent malpractice.
- Encouraging orderly growth of the securities market.
- Building investor confidence by ensuring fair practices.

These objectives, explained in detail through resources like the Securities law in India SEBI Act summary, underline why SEBI is considered the backbone of India's securities regulation.

Importance for modern markets

Today, the SEBI Act continues to provide a strong foundation for India's capital markets. Its scope has expanded with new financial instruments, digital platforms, and international investments. For compliance officers and businesses, resources such as the SEBI regulations and compliance PDF and the SEBI Bare Act Corrida Legal ensure they remain updated with evolving rules while staying compliant.

Key Objectives of the SEBI Act, 1992

When the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 bare act came into force, the Indian securities market was at a turning point. Stock exchanges were growing fast, but investor safeguards were limited. The Act gave SEBI the power to regulate, supervise and protect the market, setting out clear objectives that remain relevant even today.

Safeguarding investors

At the heart of the Act lies investor protection. The law ensures that investors get fair access to information and that companies follow disclosure norms. It also gives SEBI powers to act against insider trading and price manipulation. This balance between openness and accountability is often summarised in the Securities law in India SEBI Act summary, which simplifies the technical language of the statute for students and professionals.

Regulating market participants

Another key objective is to bring stock exchanges and intermediaries under proper regulation. Brokers, merchant bankers, mutual funds, and credit rating agencies all fall within SEBI's oversight. By laying down eligibility conditions and compliance rules, the regulator ensures that these participants act responsibly. For compliance officers, documents such as the SEBI regulations and compliance PDF remain an important reference point to track their obligations.

Promoting fair practices

The Act also aims to make the securities market more transparent. SEBI has powers to monitor public issues, prevent unfair practices, and set rules for takeovers so that minority shareholders are not ignored. These steps help build long-term confidence in the market. Guides like the SEBI bare act Corrida Legal often present these provisions in a practical way, making it easier for businesses to follow.

Developing the capital market

Beyond supervision, the SEBI Act also looks at development. Over the years, SEBI has introduced reforms ranging from electronic trading platforms to stronger corporate governance requirements. This ongoing role in market development is one reason why many prefer using a SEBI Act 1992 bare act with summary PDF, as it combines the statutory provisions with explanations of how they have evolved.

Structure of the SEBI Act, 1992

The Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 bare act is not a bulky statute compared to some other corporate laws, but its impact is far-reaching. The way the Act has been structured reflects its twin role: investor protection and market regulation. It begins with preliminary definitions, moves on to the establishment and powers of SEBI, and then sets out provisions on penalties, appeals, and enforcement.

Chapters and Sections

The Act is divided into chapters that make it easier for lawyers, compliance officers, and even students to follow. Broadly, it covers:

- Preliminary provisions – scope of the Act and definitions.
- Establishment of SEBI – its composition, powers, and functions.
- Registration and regulation of intermediaries – brokers, merchant bankers, mutual funds, and others.
- Prohibitions – insider trading, fraudulent practices, and unfair means.
- Enforcement – adjudicating authorities, penalties, and appellate bodies.

Each of these sections is concise but supported by detailed rules and regulations framed later. For anyone studying securities regulation, having access to a SEBI Act 1992 PDF download helps in going through these provisions word by word.

Role of Notifications and Guidelines

While the bare act lays down the foundation, much of SEBI's work is carried out through notifications, circulars, and detailed guidelines. These documents explain how the Act is to be implemented in practice. For example:

- Disclosure requirements in public issues.

- Rules on takeovers and acquisitions.
- Insider trading regulations.
- Mutual fund compliance norms.

Without these supporting instruments, the bare act would remain skeletal. This is why resources like the SEBI regulations and compliance PDF are so widely used by compliance professionals, they capture the latest updates that flow from the parent law.

Importance of Accessible References

For researchers, students, and business professionals, going through lengthy statutes is not always practical. This is where simplified resources play a major role. A SEBI Act 1992 bare act with summary PDF condenses the legal text and highlights the key provisions, making it easier to interpret. Similarly, curated platforms like the SEBI bare act Corrida Legal combine authenticity with clarity, ensuring users get both the law and practical guidance in one place.

Powers and Functions of SEBI

The Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 bare act provides SEBI with wide-ranging powers to regulate and develop the securities market. These powers are not merely administrative but extend to investigative and enforcement functions. Over the years, SEBI has used these provisions to strengthen transparency, curb malpractice, and ensure investor confidence in Indian capital markets.

Regulatory authority over stock exchanges

SEBI has the mandate to supervise and regulate all recognised stock exchanges in India. Its powers extend to approving by-laws, monitoring trading practices, and ensuring that exchanges follow fair procedures. This prevents market manipulation and maintains discipline in the securities market. Many professionals refer to the SEBI Act 1992 PDF download for the detailed statutory text on these powers.

Oversight of intermediaries

The Act also empowers SEBI to regulate intermediaries who play a key role in the securities market. These include:

- Brokers and sub-brokers.
- Merchant bankers and underwriters.
- Mutual funds and asset management companies.
- Credit rating agencies and depositories.

By granting registration, monitoring compliance, and imposing penalties when required, SEBI ensures that these intermediaries maintain ethical standards. Compliance officers often use the SEBI regulations and compliance PDF to track updated obligations.

Investigative powers and enforcement

To protect investors and maintain market integrity, SEBI has the power to investigate suspected violations. It can summon documents, examine witnesses, and conduct inquiries into insider trading or fraudulent practices. If violations are proved, SEBI can impose monetary penalties, suspend registrations, or even ban individuals and entities from accessing the capital market. Such enforcement powers are essential for ensuring that the Securities law in India SEBI Act summary does not remain only theoretical but is backed by real consequences for misconduct.

Oversight of listed companies and public issues

Another critical function is monitoring listed companies, especially during public issues. SEBI requires companies to disclose accurate information in prospectuses, follow strict norms in IPOs, and comply with corporate governance standards. This protects investors from misinformation and unfair practices. For quick access, platforms like the SEBI bare act Corrida Legal provide summaries of disclosure norms alongside the original statutory text.

Broader developmental role

Beyond regulation and enforcement, SEBI also works to promote the development of capital markets. It introduces reforms to improve market infrastructure, investor education, and the adoption of digital platforms. A SEBI Act 1992 bare act with summary PDF is particularly useful for understanding how these reforms connect with SEBI's statutory powers.

SEBI Regulations and Compliance Framework

The Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 bare act is the foundation, but the day-to-day working of the securities market depends largely on the detailed regulations issued by SEBI. These regulations cover everything from public issues and insider trading to mutual funds and corporate governance. Together, they form the compliance framework that listed companies, intermediaries, and investors must follow.

Scope of SEBI Regulations

SEBI regulations have a wide scope, ensuring that all aspects of the capital market are governed by clear rules. Some of the most significant areas include:

- Prohibition of insider trading to prevent misuse of unpublished price-sensitive information.
- Takeover regulations to ensure fairness in acquisitions and protect minority shareholders.
- Mutual fund regulations setting eligibility criteria and investor protection mechanisms.
- Listing obligations and disclosure requirements (LODR) for listed companies.

For compliance professionals, accessing a SEBI regulations and compliance PDF is often the easiest way to stay updated on these rules.

Importance for market participants

The regulations are binding on every market participant, whether large institutions or small brokers. They create a level playing field by:

- Ensuring transparent and fair trading practices.
- Mandating disclosures in public offerings.
- Protecting investors from fraudulent schemes.
- Standardising conduct across intermediaries.

This framework is also summarised in the Securities law in India SEBI Act summary, which highlights why SEBI's role is not just regulatory but also developmental.

Compliance requirements for listed entities

Listed companies face some of the most detailed compliance obligations under SEBI. They are required to file quarterly reports, disclose material events promptly, and maintain high standards of corporate governance. Any non-compliance can lead to penalties, suspension, or reputational damage. For quick reference, professionals often turn to the SEBI bare act Corrida Legal, which combines statutory text with explanatory notes.

Dynamic nature of SEBI guidelines

Unlike static statutes, SEBI regulations evolve constantly to address new challenges such as algorithmic trading, fintech platforms, and cross-border transactions. To make compliance manageable, SEBI issues circulars and updates frequently. This is why many institutions rely on a SEBI Act 1992 bare act with summary PDF, which provides both the original provisions and simplified interpretations of newer updates.

Investor Protection under SEBI Act, 1992

The central objective of the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 bare act is the protection of investors. Before SEBI came into force, investors were exposed to risks such as insider trading, lack of reliable disclosures, and manipulative practices on stock exchanges. The Act empowered SEBI to introduce rules, regulations, and mechanisms that safeguard the interests of retail and institutional investors alike.

Mechanisms for protecting investors

SEBI has introduced several measures that directly protect investors from fraud and malpractice. These include:

- Disclosure norms that require companies to provide accurate and timely information.
- Prohibition of insider trading, ensuring no unfair advantage is taken through unpublished price-sensitive information.
- Monitoring of IPOs and rights issues to ensure that investors are not misled by false promises.
- Grievance redressal mechanisms such as SCORES (SEBI Complaints Redress System).

For a comprehensive overview, professionals often rely on a SEBI Act 1992 bare act with summary PDF, which condenses these provisions into an accessible format.

Fair and transparent markets

Investor protection is closely linked to creating fair and transparent markets. By regulating intermediaries such as brokers, merchant bankers, and credit rating agencies, SEBI ensures that investors are treated fairly. The availability of the SEBI regulations and compliance PDF helps compliance officers and legal teams implement these standards effectively.

Grievance redressal and enforcement

SEBI has also set up specific systems to address investor grievances. The SCORES portal, for instance, allows investors to lodge complaints online, which are then tracked until resolution. In addition, SEBI's enforcement powers enable it to penalise entities that mislead investors or manipulate the market. These steps, often summarised in the Securities law in India SEBI Act summary, show how the Act combines regulation with accountability.

Building investor confidence

Ultimately, the goal of investor protection is to build long-term confidence in the Indian securities market. By preventing fraud, ensuring transparency, and enforcing strict compliance, SEBI makes the market more attractive to both domestic and foreign investors. Legal professionals often turn to references like the SEBI bare act Corrida Legal, which provides both the statutory provisions and practical interpretations for day-to-day use.

Role of SEBI in Regulating Market Intermediaries

The Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 bare act gives SEBI the responsibility of monitoring and controlling intermediaries who act as the link between investors and the securities market. These intermediaries, brokers, merchant bankers, mutual funds, credit rating agencies, and others, play a decisive role in the functioning of the capital market. Without proper regulation, investor trust would weaken and malpractices could spread unchecked.

Registration and licensing

Under the Act, no intermediary can operate without SEBI's registration. This ensures that only credible and qualified entities can function in the securities market. For instance, brokers must meet capital adequacy requirements, merchant bankers must show professional competence, and mutual funds must follow prescribed structures. For professionals and businesses, consulting a SEBI Act 1992 bare act with summary PDF is often the first step to understanding these licensing requirements.

Monitoring and supervision

Once intermediaries are registered, SEBI continuously monitors their conduct to ensure compliance with laws and guidelines. Its supervisory functions include:

- Inspecting books of accounts and records.
- Ensuring compliance with disclosure norms.
- Checking adherence to investor grievance redressal systems.
- Investigating suspected violations of trading rules.

Compliance teams often depend on the SEBI regulations and compliance PDF to stay aligned with these obligations.

Preventing unfair practices

Intermediaries are crucial in maintaining transparency and fairness in securities trading. SEBI therefore issues detailed regulations covering:

- Code of conduct for brokers and sub-brokers.
- Mutual fund regulations ensuring investor protection.
- Credit rating standards to prevent conflicts of interest.
- Underwriting and merchant banking norms to ensure fair public issues.

These measures, highlighted in the Securities law in India SEBI Act summary, make clear that intermediaries must act in the best interest of investors.

Accountability and penalties

When intermediaries fail to meet their obligations, SEBI has the power to impose penalties, suspend registrations, or even bar them from operating in the market. This strict accountability ensures that investor confidence in the system remains intact. For day-to-day interpretation of these provisions, practitioners rely on the SEBI bare act Corrida Legal, which provides authentic text along with simplified explanations.

SEBI and Corporate Governance in India

Corporate governance in India has evolved significantly over the last three decades, and the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 bare act has been at the heart of this transformation. SEBI, as the capital market regulator, has consistently framed rules that strengthen accountability, transparency, and fairness in listed companies. These efforts have not only protected investors but also aligned Indian corporate practices with international standards.

Strengthening disclosure norms

One of SEBI's most important contributions to corporate governance has been the introduction of disclosure requirements. Listed companies must provide timely and accurate information on financial performance, related party transactions, and material events. This prevents misinformation and builds investor confidence. For easy reference, compliance professionals often rely on the SEBI Act 1992 bare act with summary PDF, which explains how disclosure norms have evolved under the Act.

Clause 49 and beyond

SEBI's introduction of Clause 49 under the listing agreement was a landmark reform. It brought in requirements such as independent directors on boards, audit committees, and enhanced responsibilities of directors. Over time, these provisions have been updated and now exist as part of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations. To keep track of these obligations, compliance teams consult the SEBI regulations and compliance PDF, which consolidates the latest requirements.

Focus on fair practices

Corporate governance is not only about disclosures but also about conduct. SEBI ensures that boards of companies follow ethical standards and do not misuse their position. Measures such as mandatory independent directors, stricter rules on insider trading, and improved audit frameworks ensure fairness in decision-making. These provisions are well captured in the Securities law in India SEBI Act summary, which highlights the practical impact on companies and investors.

Building long-term confidence

By focusing on governance, SEBI has helped Indian companies attract both domestic and foreign investment. Strong corporate governance reassures investors that their interests are protected and that companies are run responsibly. This has made the Indian securities market more competitive globally. Resources such as the SEBI bare act Corrida Legal play an important role in guiding companies and professionals on how to meet governance standards in line with SEBI's framework.

Landmark Amendments to the SEBI Act, 1992

The Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 bare act was initially a concise statute, but its powers and scope have expanded over time through amendments. These changes reflect India's growing capital markets and the need to address emerging challenges such as frauds, insider trading, and complex financial instruments. Some amendments have been particularly significant in strengthening SEBI's authority and reshaping the securities law framework.

The 1995 Amendment – Statutory powers strengthened

One of the earliest and most important amendments came in 1995. Before this, SEBI functioned with limited enforcement powers. The amendment allowed SEBI to conduct investigations, impose penalties, and regulate intermediaries more effectively. For those studying the law in detail, the SEBI Act 1992 bare act with summary PDF provides a simplified overview of how SEBI's statutory recognition transformed its role.

The 2002 Amendment – Enhanced enforcement

The 2002 amendment was another turning point. It provided SEBI with greater powers to penalise violators, attach bank accounts, and freeze assets in cases of serious malpractice. It also established the Securities Appellate Tribunal (SAT) to hear appeals against SEBI's orders. These provisions made enforcement more structured and are well documented in the SEBI regulations and compliance PDF, which tracks how penalties and appeals are processed.

Amendments through Finance Acts

Subsequent Finance Acts have regularly updated SEBI's powers. For example:

- Authority to regulate collective investment schemes.
- Power to impose higher penalties for insider trading.
- Expansion of SEBI's jurisdiction over new market products.
- Introduction of provisions for quicker settlement of disputes.

These evolving changes are highlighted in the Securities law in India SEBI Act summary, which explains how financial reforms have shaped SEBI's role in protecting investors.

Impact of recent reforms

More recent amendments have focused on strengthening corporate governance, widening SEBI's reach over pooled investment vehicles, and integrating technology into regulatory processes. These measures have aligned India's markets with global standards, making them more attractive to investors. For businesses and legal professionals, resources like the SEBI bare act Corrida Legal remain indispensable in interpreting how these reforms impact compliance obligations.

Case Studies and Judicial Decisions under SEBI Act

The Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 bare act has not only provided a statutory framework for regulating the securities market but has also been interpreted and shaped by judicial decisions. Courts and tribunals have clarified the scope of SEBI's powers, investor rights, and the responsibilities of market participants. These case studies demonstrate how the Act works in practice and why it remains central to India's securities law framework.

Landmark judicial interventions

Several cases have tested SEBI's authority and strengthened its role as a regulator. A few significant ones include:

- Sahara Case (2012) – SEBI directed Sahara to refund thousands of crores raised through optionally fully convertible debentures, reaffirming SEBI's power to protect investors.
- Shri Ram Mutual Fund Case (2006) – The Supreme Court upheld SEBI's authority to impose penalties even without proof of investor loss, emphasising the importance of market discipline.
- Reliance Petro Insider Trading Case – This highlighted SEBI's investigative powers and its ability to penalise companies for misuse of price-sensitive information.

For a simplified overview, readers often consult a SEBI Act 1992 bare act with summary PDF, which presents these cases in accessible language.

Role of Securities Appellate Tribunal (SAT)

The establishment of the Securities Appellate Tribunal was a major step in ensuring accountability. SAT decisions have balanced SEBI's regulatory powers with principles of natural justice. For example, SAT has intervened in cases where penalties were disproportionate or where due process was not followed. Compliance officers and lawyers frequently rely on the SEBI regulations and compliance PDF to cross-reference SAT rulings with statutory obligations.

Lessons for investors and companies

Judicial decisions under the SEBI Act serve as important lessons for investors, intermediaries, and listed companies. They show that:

- Misleading disclosures can lead to strict penalties.
- Insider trading will not be tolerated, even in grey areas.
- SEBI's orders carry significant weight unless overturned by higher courts.

Such lessons are highlighted in resources like the Securities law in India SEBI Act summary, which condenses complex rulings into actionable insights.

Building a culture of compliance

Over time, these judicial interventions have created a culture of compliance in India's capital markets. Businesses now recognise that regulatory breaches are not only costly but also reputationally damaging. For practitioners and students, platforms like the SEBI bare act Corrida Legal offer a reliable combination of statutory text, regulatory updates, and judicial interpretations.

SEBI and Investor Education

The Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 bare act was not only designed to regulate the securities market but also to promote awareness among investors. SEBI has consistently recognised that informed investors are the backbone of a transparent and fair capital market. Education initiatives, awareness campaigns, and simplified resources have therefore become an integral part of SEBI's regulatory mission.

Why investor education matters

In the early 1990s, retail investors in India had little knowledge of financial instruments, leaving them vulnerable to fraud and misleading schemes. SEBI stepped in with programmes to make investors more aware of their rights and responsibilities. Today, initiatives explained through resources like the SEBI Act 1992 bare act with summary PDF make it easier for students, professionals, and retail investors to grasp the basics of securities law.

SEBI's awareness campaigns

Over the years, SEBI has launched nationwide campaigns to promote investor education. These efforts include:

- Workshops and seminars conducted in regional languages.
- Educational advertisements across print, television, and digital media.
- Guidelines on safe investing, highlighting risks of unregistered schemes.
- Investor helplines to address queries and concerns.

For compliance teams, accessing a SEBI regulations and compliance PDF ensures they can guide clients and employees in line with SEBI's educational messages.

Training for intermediaries

Investor education is not limited to the general public. SEBI also trains intermediaries such as brokers, merchant bankers, and mutual fund distributors to ensure they understand compliance obligations. This reduces the scope for malpractices and ensures fair dealings with clients. The Securities law in India SEBI Act summary often highlights how such training initiatives are linked to SEBI's broader investor protection goals.

Use of digital platforms

In recent years, SEBI has expanded its investor education efforts to digital platforms. From interactive websites to mobile apps, these tools make it easier for investors to access reliable information. For professionals who want both legal text and simplified interpretation, the SEBI bare act Corrida Legal offers an accessible way to combine compliance with practical guidance.

Challenges in Implementing SEBI Act

The Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 bare act gave SEBI strong powers to regulate India's securities market. Yet, despite its achievements, the Act's implementation faces challenges. These difficulties arise from evolving financial products, market sophistication, and the globalisation of capital flows. Understanding these challenges is critical for professionals, businesses, and investors who rely on the securities law framework for compliance.

Complexity of financial instruments

Modern financial markets deal with far more complex instruments than in the 1990s. Derivatives, algorithmic trading, and fintech platforms often outpace existing regulations. SEBI's task of monitoring such innovations is enormous. To stay updated, compliance officers often turn to a SEBI regulations and compliance PDF, which consolidates rules and clarifications, but frequent changes still create uncertainty.

Enforcement and litigation hurdles

SEBI has wide investigative powers, but enforcement is not always straightforward. Long legal battles, appeals before the Securities Appellate Tribunal (SAT), and further appeals to High Courts can delay final outcomes. For a quick grasp of these issues, many rely on a SEBI Act 1992 bare act with summary PDF, which explains how enforcement provisions operate in practice.

Market misconduct and cross-border risks

Insider trading, front-running, and misreporting remain persistent challenges. In addition, cross-border investments introduce complexities around jurisdiction and cooperation with foreign regulators. SEBI continues to sign bilateral agreements with other securities watchdogs, but implementation remains a work in progress. These challenges are discussed in simplified resources like the Securities law in India SEBI Act summary, which makes the issues easier to understand for non-lawyers.

Investor awareness and participation

Another challenge is the limited financial literacy of retail investors in India. Despite SEBI's investor education campaigns, many investors still fall prey to unregistered schemes and fraudulent practices. Without wider awareness, SEBI's protective measures cannot achieve full impact. This is why curated platforms like the SEBI bare act Corrida Legal are important—they combine statutory text with practical insights that help spread awareness.

Need for continuous adaptation

Globalisation and technology mean that regulations cannot remain static. SEBI must constantly issue new circulars, amend existing rules, and monitor new products. While this adaptability is a strength, it also means compliance officers must continuously track updates to avoid penalties.

Conclusion

The Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 bare act has left a lasting imprint on the Indian capital markets. By giving statutory authority to SEBI, the Act transformed the way securities were regulated and provided investors with a level of protection that was absent before the 1990s. Over the years, SEBI has moved from being only a watchdog to becoming a proactive regulator that balances market growth with investor protection.

Lasting impact of SEBI Act

The Act has achieved three important outcomes. First, it has strengthened disclosure requirements, making listed companies more accountable. Second, it has built investor confidence by addressing issues such as insider trading and market manipulation. Third, it has created a compliance-driven culture among intermediaries such as brokers, mutual funds, and credit rating agencies. For students and professionals, a SEBI Act 1992 bare act with summary PDF is often the easiest way to understand how these outcomes evolved over time.

Future directions

The securities market continues to evolve, and SEBI's role is far from static. With the growth of fintech platforms, digital securities, and algorithmic trading, the regulator must adapt its tools to deal with emerging risks. Cross-border compliance and cooperation with global regulators will also become more important as foreign investors expand their participation in Indian markets. Insights from resources such as the Securities law in India SEBI Act summary help businesses and compliance officers prepare for these changes in advance.

Why compliance resources matter

For companies and market participants, staying compliant is a continuous challenge. Frequent updates through circulars and notifications make it difficult to track obligations without reliable reference material. This is where documents like the SEBI regulations and compliance PDF and authentic portals such as the SEBI bare act Corrida Legal become essential. They not only provide statutory text but also present rules in a simplified, accessible format, helping users avoid penalties and maintain investor trust.

Key takeaways

- The SEBI Act remains the cornerstone of securities law in India.
- Its enforcement has created transparency, accountability, and stronger investor protection.
- Future reforms will focus on digitalisation, fintech, and global alignment.
- Compliance depends on accessible resources that simplify the law.

In essence, the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 continues to shape India's securities market. Its success lies not only in the statute itself but also in its adaptability to the changing financial landscape.
