

BARE ACT

THE INDIAN STAMP ACT, 1899

Corrida Legal presents the Bare Act Series, sourced from official texts and supported with an executive summary designed to help readers grasp the essence of the law with ease.

NOTE: An Executive Summary of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 is included towards the end of this document, right after the full bare act of the statute. This summary helps professionals, business owners, compliance officers, HR managers, legal practitioners, and students quickly understand the key provisions relating to chargeability of instruments, determination and payment of proper stamp duty, types of instruments requiring stamping, consequences of insufficient stamping, adjudication of duty, allowances for spoiled stamps, penalties for non-compliance, and enforcement mechanisms, without having to read the entire text. The Indian Stamp Act, 1899 Summary provides a clear, practical, and time-saving guide for anyone looking to understand India's framework on stamp duty, ensure compliance in contractual and financial transactions, avoid risks of unenforceable instruments, and stay aligned with statutory requirements under the Stamp Act bare act.

CHAPTER II

STAMP DUTIES

A. —Of the liability of instruments to duty

3. Instruments chargeable with duty. —Subject to the provisions of this Act and the exemptions contained in Schedule I, the following instruments shall be chargeable with duty of the amount indicated in that Schedule as the proper duty therefore respectively, that is to say—

(a) every instrument mentioned in that Schedule which, not having been previously executed by any person, is executed in ⁶[India] on or after the first day of July, 1899;

(b) every bill of exchange ⁷[payable otherwise than on demand] ⁸ or promissory note drawn or made out of ⁶[India] on or after that day and accepted or paid, or presented for acceptance or payment, or endorsed, transferred or otherwise negotiated, in ⁶[India]; and

(c) every instrument (other than a bill of exchange, ⁸or promissory note) mentioned in that Schedule, which, not having been previously executed by any person, is executed out of ⁶[India] on or after that day, relates to any property situate, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in ⁶[India] and is received in ⁶[India]:

Provided that no duty shall be chargeable in respect of—

(1) any instrument executed by, or on behalf of, or in favour of, the Government in cases where, but for this exemption, the Government would be liable to pay the duty chargeable in respect of such instrument;

(2) any instrument for the sale, transfer or other disposition, either absolutely or by way of mortgage or otherwise, of any ship or vessel, or any part, interest, share or property of or in any ship or vessel registered under the Merchant Shipping Act 1894, Act No. 57 & 58 Vict. c. 60 or under Act XIX of 1838 Act No. or the Indian Registration of Ships Act, 1841, (CX of 1841) as amended by subsequent Acts.

3A. [Instruments chargeable with additional duty.] Omitted by the Refugee Relief Taxes (Abolition) Act, 1973 (13 of 1973), s. 2 (w.e.f. 1-4-1973).

4. Several instruments used in single transaction of sale, mortgage or settlement. — (1) Where, in the case of any sale, mortgage or settlement, several instruments are employed for completing the transaction, the principal instrument only shall be chargeable with the duty prescribed in Schedule I, for the conveyance, mortgage or settlement, and each of the other instruments shall be chargeable with a duty of one rupee instead of the duty (if any) prescribed for it in that Schedule.

1. Ins. by Act 15 of 1904, s. 2.

2. The word “and” omitted by the A.O. 1950. Earlier ins. by Act 18 of 1928, s. 2 and the First Sch.

3. Added by Act 1928 of 18, s. 2 and the First Sch.,

4. See. Now the Army Act 1950 (46 of 1950).

5. Ins. by Act 23 of 2004, s. 117.

6. Subs. by Act 43 of 1955, s. 2, for “the States” (w.e.f. 1-4-1956).

7. Ins. by Act 5 of 1927, s. 5.

8. The word “cheque” omitted by s. 5, ibid.

(2) The parties may determine for themselves which of the instrument so employed shall, for the purposes of sub-section (1), be deemed to be the principal instrument:

Provided that the duty chargeable on the instrument so determined shall be the highest duty which would be chargeable in respect of any of the said instruments employed.

5. Instruments relating to several distinct matters. — Any instrument comprising or relating to several distinct matters shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the duties with which separate instruments, each comprising or relating to one of such matters, would be chargeable under this Act.

6. Instruments coming within several descriptions in Schedule I. — Subject to the provisions of the last preceding section, an instrument so framed as to come within two or more of the descriptions in Schedule I, shall, where the duties chargeable thereunder are different, be chargeable only with the highest of such duties:

Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall render chargeable with duty exceeding one rupee a counterpart or duplicate of any instrument chargeable with duty and in respect of which the proper duty has been paid.

7. Policies of sea-insurance. —¹ * * * * *

(4) Where any sea-insurance is made for or upon a voyage and also for time, or to extend to or cover any time beyond thirty days after the ship shall have arrived at her destination and been there moored at anchor, the policy shall be charged with duty as a policy for or upon a voyage, and also with duty as a policy for time.

8. Bonds, debentures or other securities issued on loans under Act XI of 1879. —
(1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, any local authority raising a loan under the provisions of the Local Authorities Loan Act, 1879 (XI of 1879) or, of any other law for the time being in force, by the issue of bonds, debentures or other securities, shall, in respect of such loan, be chargeable with a duty of ²[one per centum] on the total amount of the bonds, debentures or other securities issued by it, and such bonds, debentures or other securities need not be stamped and shall not be chargeable with any further duty on renewal, consolidation, sub-division or otherwise.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) exempting certain bonds, debentures or other securities from being stamped and from being chargeable with certain further duty shall apply to the bonds, debentures or other securities of all outstanding loans of the kind mentioned therein, and all such bonds, debentures or other securities shall be valid, whether the same are stamped or not:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt the local authority which has issued such bonds, debentures or other securities from the duty chargeable in respect thereof prior to the twenty-sixth day of March, 1897, when such duty has not already been paid or remitted by order issued by the Central Government.

(3) In the case of willful neglect to pay the duty required by this section, the local authority shall be liable to forfeit to the Government a sum equal to ten per centum upon the amount of duty payable, and a like penalty for every month after the first month during which the neglect continues.

1. Sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) rep. by Act 11 of 1963, s. 92 (w.e.f. 1-8-1963).
2. Subs. by Act 6 of 1910, s. 2 for "eight annas per centum".

¹ [8A. Securities dealt in depository not liable to stamp duty. — Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, —

Agreement or document for transfer or assignment of rights or interest in financial assets not liable to stamp duty.— Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, any agreement or other document for transfer or assignment of rights or interest in financial assets of banks or financial institutions under section 5 of the Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002, in favour of any asset reconstruction company, as defined in clause (ba) of sub-section (1) of section 2 of that Act, shall not be liable to duty under this Act.]

9. Power to reduce, remit or compound duties. — ³[(1)] ⁴[The ⁵Government] may, by rule or order published in the Official Gazette, —

(a) reduce or remit, whether prospectively or retrospectively, in the whole or any part of ⁶[the territories under its administration], the duties with which any instruments or any particular class of instruments, or any of the instruments belonging to such class, or any instruments when executed by or in favour of any particular class of persons, or by or in favour of any members of such class, are chargeable, and

1. Ins. by Act 4 of 2013, s. 17 and the Schedule (w.e.f. 17-1-2013).

2. Ins. by Act 44 of 2016, s. 43 and the First Schedule (w.e.f. 1-9-2016).

3. S. 9 re-numbered as sub-section (1) of that section by the A.O. 1950.

4. Subs. by the A.O. 1937, for “the G.G. in C”.

5. The word “collecting” omitted by the A.O. 1950.

6. Subs. by the A.O. 1937, for “British India”.

(b) provide for the composition or consolidation of duties ¹[of policies of insurance and] in the case of issues by any incorporated company or other body corporate ²[or of transfers (where there is a single transferee, whether incorporated or not)] of debentures, bond or other marketable securities.

³[(2) In this section the expression “the Government” means, —

(a) in relation to stamp-duty in respect of bills of exchange, cheques, promissory notes, bills of lading, letters of credit, policies of insurance, transfer of shares, debentures, proxies and receipts, and in relation to any other stamp-duty chargeable under this Act and falling within entry 96 in List I in the ⁴[Seventh Schedule to the Constitution, except the subject matters referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (I)]; the Central Government;

(b) Save as aforesaid, the State Government.]

B. —Of Stamps and the mode of using them

10. Duties how to be paid. — (I) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, all duties with which any instruments are chargeable shall be paid, and such payment shall be indicated on such instruments, by means of stamps —

(a) according to the provisions herein contained; or

(b) when no such provision is applicable thereto-as the ⁵[State Government] may be rule direct.

(2) The rules made under sub-section (I) may, among other matters, regulate, —

(a) in the case of each kind of instrument-the description of stamps which may be used;

(b) in the case of instruments stamped with impressed stamps-the number of stamps which may be used;

(c) in the case of bills of exchange or promissory notes ^{6} the size of the paper on which they are written.

11. Use of adhesive stamps. — The following instruments may be stamped with adhesive stamps, namely: —

(a) instruments chargeable ⁷[with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise], except parts of bills of exchange payable otherwise than on demand and drawn in sets;

(b) bills of exchange, ^{8} and promissory notes drawn or made out of ⁹[India];

(c) entry as an advocate, vakil or attorney on the roll of a High Court;

(d) notarial acts; and

(e) transfers by endorsement of shares in any incorporated company or other body corporate.

12. Cancellation of adhesive stamps — (I) (a) Whoever affixes any adhesive stamp to any instrument chargeable with duty which has been executed by any person shall, when affixing such stamp, cancel the same so that it cannot be used again; and

(b) whoever executes any instrument on any paper bearing an adhesive stamp shall, at the time of execution, unless such stamp has been already cancelled in manner aforesaid, cancel the same so that it cannot be used again.

(2) Any instrument bearing an adhesive stamp which has not been cancelled so that it cannot be used again, shall, so far as such stamp is concerned, be deemed to be unstamped.

(3) The person required by sub-section (I) to cancel an adhesive stamp may cancel it by writing on or across the stamp his name or initials or the name or initials of his firm with the true date of his so writing, or in any other effectual manner.

1. Ins. by Act 23 of 2004, s. 117.

2. Ins. by Act 32 of 1994, s. 99 (w.e.f. 13-9-1994).

3. Added by the A.O. 1950.

4. Subs by Act 21 of 2006 s. 69, for “Seventh Schedule to the Constitution”. (w.e.f. 18-4-2006)

5. Subs. by the A.O. 1950, for “collecting Government”.

6. The words “written in any oriental language” omitted by Act 43 of 1955 s. 5 (w.e.f. 1-4-1956).

7. Subs. by Act 19 of 1958, s. 2, for “with the duty of one anna or half an anna” (w.e.f. 1-10-1958).

8. The word “cheques” omitted by Act 5 of 1927, s. 5.

9. Subs. by Act 43 of 1955, s. 2, for “the States” (w.e.f. 1-4-1956).

13. Instruments stamped with impressed stamps how to be written. — Every instrument written upon paper stamped with an impressed stamp shall be written in such manner that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument and cannot be used for or applied to any other instrument.

14. Only one instrument to be on same stamp. — No second instrument chargeable with duty shall be written upon a piece of stamped paper upon which an instrument chargeable with duty has already been written:

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent any endorsement which is duly stamped or is not chargeable with duty being made upon any instrument for the purpose of transferring any right created or evidenced thereby, or of acknowledging the receipt of any money or goods the payment or delivery of which is secured thereby.

15. Instrument written contrary to section 13 or 14 deemed unstamped.—Every instrument written in contravention of section 13 or section 14 shall be deemed to be unstamped.

16. Denoting duty. —Where the duty with which an instrument is chargeable, or its exemption from duty, depends in any manner upon the duty actually paid in respect of another instrument, the payment of such last-mentioned duty shall, if application is made in writing to the Collector for that purpose, and on production of both the instruments, be denoted upon such first-mentioned instrument by endorsement under the hand of the Collector or in such other manner (if any) as the ¹[State Government] may by rule prescribe.

C. — Of the time of stamping instruments

17. Instruments executed in India. — All instruments chargeable with duty and executed by any person in ²[India] shall be stamped before or at the time of execution.

18. Instruments other than bills and notes executed out of India.—(1) Every instrument chargeable with duty executed only out of ²[India], and not being a bill of exchange ^{3} or promissory note, may be stamped within three months after it has been first received in ²[India].

(2) Where any such instrument cannot, with reference to the description of stamp prescribed therefore, be duly stamped by a private person, it may be taken within the said period of three months to the Collector, who shall stamp the same, in such manner as the ¹[State Government] may by rule prescribe, with a stamp of such value as the person so taking such instrument may require and pay for.

19. Bills and notes drawn out of India.—The first holder in ²[India] of any bill of exchange ⁴[payable otherwise than on demand], ^{3} or promissory note drawn or made out of ²[India] shall, before he presents the same for acceptance or payment, or endorses, transfers or otherwise negotiates the same in ²[India], affix thereto the proper stamp and cancel the same:

Provided that,—

(a) if, at the time any such bill of exchange, ^{3} or note comes into the hands of any holder thereof in ²[India], the proper adhesive stamp is affixed thereto and cancelled in manner prescribed by section 12 and such holder has no reason to believe that such stamp was affixed or cancelled otherwise than by the person and at the time required by this Act, such stamp shall, so far as relates to such holder, be deemed to have been duly affixed and cancelled;

(b) nothing contained in this proviso shall relieve any person from any penalty incurred by him for omitting to affix or cancel a stamp.

1. Subs. by the A.O. 1950, for “collecting Government”.

2. Subs. by Act 43 of 1955, s. 2, for “the States” (w.e.f. 1-4-1956).

3. The word “cheque” omitted by Act 5 of 1927, s. 5.

4. Ins. by s. 5, ibid.

D. —Of valuations for duty

20. Conversion of amount expressed in foreign currencies.—(1) Where an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of any money expressed in any currency other than that of ¹[India] such duty shall be calculated on the value of such money in the currency of ¹[India] according to the current rate of exchange on the day of the date of the instrument.

(2) The Central Government may, from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette, prescribe a rate of exchange for the conversion of British or any foreign currency into the currency of ¹[India] for the purposes of calculating stamp-duty, and such rate shall be deemed to be the current rate for the purposes of sub-section (1).

21. Stock and marketable securities how to be valued. —Where an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of any stock or of any marketable or other security, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such stock or security according to the average price or the value thereof on the day of the date of the instrument.

22. Effect of statement of rate of exchange or average price. —Where an instrument contains a statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, as the case may require, and is stamped in accordance with such statement, it shall, so far as regards the subject-matter of such statement, be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be duly stamped.

23. Instruments reserving interest. —Where interest is expressly made payable by the terms of an instrument, such instrument shall not be chargeable with duty higher than that with which it would have been chargeable had not mention of interest been made therein.

²[23A. Certain instruments connected with mortgages of marketable securities to be chargeable as agreements. — (1) Where an instrument (not being a promissory note or bill of exchange) —

(a) is given upon the occasion of the deposit of any marketable security by way of security for money advanced or to be advanced by way of loan, or for an existing or future debt, or

(b) makes redeemable or qualifies a duly stamped transfer, intended as a security, of any marketable security, it shall be chargeable with duty as if it were an agreement or memorandum of an agreement chargeable with duty under ³[Article No. 5 (c)] of Schedule I.

(2) A release or discharge of any such instrument shall only be chargeable with the like duty.]

24. How transfer in consideration of debt, or subject to future payment, etc., to be charged. — Where any property is transferred to any person in consideration, wholly or in part, of any debt due to him, or subject either certainly or contingently to the payment or transfer of any money or stock, whether being or constituting a charge or incumbrance upon the property or not, such debt, money or stock is to be deemed the whole or part, as the case may be, of the consideration in respect whereof the transfer is chargeable with ad valorem duty:

Provided that, nothing in this section shall apply to any such certificate of sale as is mentioned in Article No. 18 of Schedule I.

Explanation. — In the case of a sale of property subject to a mortgage or other incumbrance, any unpaid mortgage money or money charged, together with the interest (if any) due on the same, shall be deemed to be part of the consideration for the sale:

Provided that where property subject to a mortgage is transferred to the mortgagee, he shall be entitled to deduct from the duty payable on the transfer the amount of any duty already paid in respect of the mortgage.

1. Subs. by Act 43 of 1955, s. 2, for “the States” (w.e.f. 1-4-1956).

2. Ins. by Act 15 of 1904, s. 3.

3. Subs. by Act 1 of 1912, s. 3, for “Article No. 5(b)”.

Illustrations

(1) A owes B Rs. 1,000. A sells a property to B, the consideration being Rs. 500 and the release of the previous debt of Rs. 1,000. Stamp-duty is payable on Rs. 1,500.

(2) A sells a property to B for Rs. 500 which is subject to a mortgage to C for Rs. 1,000 and unpaid interest Rs 200. Stamp-duty is payable on Rs. 1,700.

(3) A mortgages a house of the value of Rs. 10,000 to B for Rs. 5,000. B afterwards buys the house from A. Stamp-duty is payable on Rs. 10,000 less the amount of stamp-duty already paid for the mortgage.

25. Valuation in case of annuity, etc. —Where an instrument is executed to secure the payment of an annuity or other sum payable periodically, or where the consideration for a conveyance is an annuity or other sum payable periodically, the amount secured by such instrument or the consideration for such conveyance, as the case may be, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be,—

(a) where the sum is payable for a definite period so that the total amount to be paid can be previously ascertained—such total amount;

(b) where the sum is payable in perpetuity or for an indefinite time not terminable with any life in being at the date of such instrument or conveyance—the total amount which, according to the terms of such instrument or conveyance, will or may be payable during the period of twenty years calculated from the date on which the first payment becomes due; and

(c) where the sum is payable for an indefinite time terminable with any life in being at the date of such instrument or conveyance — the maximum amount which will or may be payable as aforesaid during the period of twelve years calculated from the date on which the first payment becomes due.

26. Stamp where value of subject-matter is indeterminate. —Where the amount or value of the subject-matter of any instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty cannot be, or (in the case of an instrument executed before the commencement of this Act) could not have been, ascertained at the date of its execution or first execution, nothing shall be claimable under such instrument more than the highest amount or value for which, if stated in an instrument of the same description, the stamp actually used would, at the date of such execution, have been sufficient:

(a) when the lease has been granted by or on behalf of ²[the Government], at such amount or value as the Collector may, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, have estimated as likely to be payable by way of royalty or share to ³[the Government] under the lease, or

(b) when the lease has been granted by any other person, at twenty thousand rupees a year, and the whole amount of such royalty or share, whatever it may be, shall be claimable under such lease:]

Provided also that where proceedings have been taken in respect of an instrument under section 31 or 41, the amount certified by the Collector shall be deemed to be the stamp actually used at the date of execution.

27. Facts affecting duty to be set forth in instrument. —The consideration (if any) and all other facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of any instrument with duty, or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, shall be fully and truly set forth therein.

1. Subs. by Act 15 of 1904, s. 4, for the proviso.

2. Subs. by the A.O. 1937, for “the secretary of State in Council”.

3. Subs., ibid., for “the said Secretary of State in Council”.

28. Direction as to duty in case of certain conveyances. — (1) Where any property has been contracted to be sold for one consideration for the whole, and is conveyed to the purchaser in separate parts by different instruments, the consideration shall be apportioned in such manner as the parties think fit, provided that a distinct consideration for each separate part is set forth in the conveyance relating thereto, and such conveyance shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of such distinct consideration.

(2) Where property contracted to be purchased for one consideration for the whole, by two or more persons jointly, or by any person for himself and others, or wholly for others, is conveyed in parts by separate instruments to the persons by or for whom the same was purchased, for distinct parts of the consideration, the conveyance of each separate part shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the distinct part of the consideration therein specified.

(3) Where a person, having contracted for the purchase of any property but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, contracts to sell the same to any other person and the property is in consequence conveyed immediately to the sub-purchaser the conveyance shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the consideration for the sale by the original purchaser to the sub-purchaser.

(4) Where a person, having contracted for the purchase of any property but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, contracts to sell the whole, or any part thereof, to any other person or persons and the property is in consequence conveyed by the original seller to different persons in parts, the conveyance of each part sold to a sub-purchaser shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect only of the consideration paid by such sub-purchaser, without regard to the amount or value of the original consideration; and the conveyance of the residue (if any) of such property to the original purchaser shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect only of the excess of the original consideration over the aggregate of the considerations paid by the sub-purchasers:

Provided that the duty on such last-mentioned conveyance shall in no case be less than one rupee.

(5) Where a sub-purchaser takes an actual conveyance of the interest of the person immediately selling to him, which is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the consideration paid by him and is duly stamped accordingly, any conveyance to be afterwards made to him of the same property by the original seller shall be chargeable with a duty equal to that which would be chargeable on a conveyance for the consideration obtained by such original seller, or, where such duty would exceed five rupees, with a duty of five rupees.

E. —Duty by whom payable

29. Duties by whom payable. —In the absence of an agreement to the contrary, the expense of providing the proper stamp shall be borne —

(a) in the case of any instrument described in any of the following Articles of Schedule I, namely: —

No. 2. (Administration Bond),

¹[No. 6 (Agreement relating to Deposit of Title-deeds, Pawn or Pledge),]

No. 13 (Bill of exchange),

No. 15 (Bond),

No. 16 (Bottomry Bond),

No. 26 (Customs Bond),

No. 62 (c). (Transfer of any interest secured by a bond, mortgage-deed or policy of insurance), by the person drawing, making or executing such instrument:

¹[(b) in the case of a policy of insurance other than fire-insurance—by the person effecting the insurance,

(bb) in the case of a policy of fire-insurance— by the person issuing the policy;]

(c) in the case of a conveyance (including a conveyance of mortgaged property:) by the grantee: in the case of a lease or agreement to lease—by the lessee or intended lessee:

(d) in the case of a counterpart of a lease—by the less or:

(e) in the case of an instrument of exchange—by the parties in equal shares,

(f) in the case of a certificate of sale—by the purchaser of the property to which such certificate relates: and,

(g) in the case of an instrument of partition—by the parties thereto in proportion to their respective shares in the whole property partitioned, or, when the partition is made in execution of an order passed by a Revenue-authority or Civil Court or arbitrator, in such proportion as such authority, Court or arbitrator directs.

30. Obligation to give receipt in certain cases. — Any person receiving any money exceeding twenty rupees in amount, or any bill of exchange, cheque or promissory note for an amount exceeding twenty rupees, or receiving in satisfaction or part satisfaction of a debt any moveable property exceeding twenty rupees in value, shall, on demand by the person paying or delivering such money, bill, cheque, note or property, give a duly stamped receipt for the same.

²[Any person receiving or taking credit for any premium or consideration for any renewal of any contract of fire-insurance, shall, within one month after receiving or taking credit for such premium or consideration, give a duly stamped receipt for the same.]

CHAPTER III

ADJUDICATION AS TO STAMPS

31. Adjudication as to proper stamp. —(1) When any instrument, whether executed or not and whether previously stamped or not, is brought to the Collector, and the person bringing it applies to have the opinion of that officer as to the duty (if any) with which it is chargeable, and pays a fee of such amount (not exceeding five rupees and not less than ³[fifty naye paise]) as the Collector may in each case direct, the Collector shall determine the duty (if any) with which, in his judgment, the instrument is chargeable.

1. Subs. by Act 5 of 1906, s. 4, for clause (b).

2. Added by s. 5, ibid.

3. Subs. by Act 19 of 1958, s. 3, for “eight annas” (w.e.f. 1-10-1958).

(2) For this purpose the Collector may require to be furnished with an abstract of the instrument, and also with such affidavit or other evidence as he may deem necessary to prove that all the facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of the instrument with duty, or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, are fully and truly set forth therein, and may refuse to proceed upon any such application until such abstract and evidence have been furnished accordingly:

Provided that—

(a) no evidence furnished in pursuance of this section shall be used against any person in any civil proceeding, except in an inquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable; and

(b) every person by whom any such evidence is furnished, shall, on payment of the full duty with which the instrument to which it relates, is chargeable, be relieved from any penalty which he may have incurred under this Act by reason of the omission to state truly in such instrument any of the facts or circumstances aforesaid.

32. Certificate by Collector. — (1) When an instrument brought to the Collector under section 31 is, in his opinion, one of a description chargeable with duty, and

(a) the Collector determines that it is already fully stamped, or

(b) the duty determined by the Collector under section 31, or such a sum as, with the duty already paid in respect of the instrument, is equal to the duty so determined, has been paid, the Collector shall certify by endorsement on such instrument that the full duty (stating the amount) with which it is chargeable has been paid.

(2) When such instrument is, in his opinion, not chargeable with duty, the Collector shall certify in manner aforesaid that such instrument is not so chargeable.

(3) Any instrument upon which an endorsement has been made under this section, shall be deemed to be duly stamped or not chargeable with duty, as the case may be; and, if chargeable with duty, shall be receivable in evidence or otherwise, and may be acted upon and registered as if it had been originally duly stamped:

Provided that nothing in this section shall authorize the Collector to endorse—

(a) any instrument executed or first executed in ¹[India] and brought to him after the expiration of one month from the date of its execution or first execution, as the case may be;

(b) any instrument executed or first executed out of ¹[India] and brought to him after the expiration of three months after it has been first received in ¹[India]; or

(c) any instrument chargeable ²[with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise], or any bill of exchange or promissory note, when brought to him, after the drawing or execution thereof, on paper not duly stamped.

CHAPTER IV

INSTRUMENTS NOT DULY STAMPED

33. Examination and impounding of instruments. — (1) Every person having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, and every person in charge of a public office, except an officer of police, before whom any instrument, chargeable, in his opinion, with duty, is produced or comes in the performance of his functions, shall, if it appears to him that such instrument is not duly stamped, impound the same.

1. Subs. by Act 43 of 1955 s. 2 for “that States” (w.e.f. 1-4-1956).

2. Subs. by Act 19 of 1958, s. 4 for “with the Duty of one anna or half an anna” (w.e.f. 1-10-1958).

(2) For that purpose every such person shall examine every instrument so chargeable and so produced or coming before him, in order to ascertain whether it is stamped with a stamp of the value and description required by the law in force in ¹[India] when such instrument was executed or first executed:

Provided that—

(a) nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require any Magistrate or Judge of a Criminal Court to examine or impound, if he does not think fit so to do, any instrument coming before him in the course of any proceeding other than a proceeding under Chapter XII or Chapter XXXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1989);

(b) in the case of a Judge of a High Court, the duty of examining and impounding any instrument under this section may be delegated to such officer as the Court appoints in this behalf.

(3) For the purposes of this section, in cases of doubt, —

(a) ²[the ³[State Government]] may determine what offices shall be deemed to be public offices; and

(b) ⁴[the ³[State Government]] may determine who shall be deemed to be persons in charge of public offices.

34. Special provision as to unstamped receipts. —Where any receipt chargeable ⁵[With a duty not exceeding ten naye paise] is tendered to or produced before any officer unstamped in the course of the audit of any public account, such officer may in his discretion, instead of impounding the instrument, require a duly stamped receipt to be substituted therefore.

35. Instruments not duly stamped inadmissible in evidence, etc. — No instrument chargeable with duty shall be admitted in evidence for any purpose by any person having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, or shall be acted upon, registered or authenticated by any such person or by any public officer, unless such instrument is duly stamped :

Provided that—

(a) any such instrument ⁶[shall] be admitted in evidence on payment of the duty with which the same is chargeable, or, in the case of any instrument insufficiently stamped, of the amount required to make up such duty, together with a penalty of five rupees, or, when ten times the amount of the proper duty or deficient portion thereof exceeds five rupees, of a sum equal to ten times such duty or portion;

(b) where any person from whom a stamped receipt could have been demanded, has given an unstamped receipt and such receipt, if stamped, would be admissible in evidence against him, then such receipt shall be admitted in evidence against him on payment of a penalty of one rupee by the person tendering it;

(c) Where a contract or agreement of any kind is effected by correspondence consisting of two or more letters and any one of the letters bears the proper stamp, the contract or agreement shall be deemed to be duly stamped;

(d) nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in evidence in proceeding in a Criminal Court, other than a proceeding under Chapter XII or Chapter XXXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898 (V of 1898);

(e) nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in any Court when such instrument has been executed by or on behalf of the Government, or where it bears the certificate of the Collector as provided by section 32 or any other provision of this Act.

1. Subs. by Act 43 of 1955, s. 2, for “the States” (w.e.f. 1-4-1956).

2. Subs. by the A.O. 1937, for “the G.G. in C.”.

3. Subs. by the A.O. 1950, for “collecting Government”.

4. Subs. by the A.O. 1937, for “the L.G.”.

5. Subs. by Act 19 of 1958, s. 5, for “with a duty of one anna” (w.e.f. 1-10-1958).

6. Subs. by Act 21 of 2006, s. 69, for “not being an instrument chargeable with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise only, or a bill of exchange or promissory note, shall, subject to all just exceptions,”

36. Admission of instrument where not to be questioned. —Where an instrument has been admitted in evidence, such admission shall not, except as provided in section 61, be called in question at any stage of the same suit or proceeding on the ground that the instrument has not been duly stamped.

37. Admission of improperly stamped instruments. — ¹[The ²[State Government]] may make rules providing that, where an instrument bears a stamp of sufficient amount but of improper description, it may, on payment of the duty with which the same is chargeable, be certified to be duly stamped, and any instrument so certified shall then be deemed to have been duly stamped as from the date of its execution.

38. Instruments impounded how dealt with. — (1) When the person impounding an instrument under section 33 has by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence and admits such instrument in evidence upon payment of a penalty as provided by section 35 or of duty as provided by section 37, he shall send to the Collector an authenticated copy of such instrument, together with a certificate in writing, stating the amount of duty and penalty levied in respect thereof, and shall send such amount to the Collector, or to such person as he may appoint in this behalf.

(2) In every other case, the person so impounding an instrument shall send it in original to the Collector.

39. Collector's power to refund penalty paid under section 38, sub-section (1). — (1) When a copy of an instrument is sent to the Collector under section 38, sub-section (1), he may, if he thinks fit, ^{3} refund any portion of the penalty in excess of five rupees which has been paid in respect of such instrument.

(2) When such instrument has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of section 13 or section 14, the Collector may refund the whole penalty so paid.

40. Collectors power to stamp instruments impounded. — (1) When the Collector impounds any instrument under section 33, or receives any instrument sent to him under section 38, sub-section (2), not being an instrument chargeable ⁴[with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise] only or a bill of exchange or promissory note, he shall adopt the following procedure: —

(a) if he is of opinion that such instrument is duly stamped or is not chargeable with duty, he shall certify by endorsement thereon that it is duly stamped, or that it is not so chargeable, as the case may be;

(b) if he is of opinion that such instrument is chargeable with duty and is not duly stamped, he shall require the payment of the proper duty or the amount required to make up the same, together with a penalty of five rupees; or, if he thinks fit, ⁵[an amount not exceeding] ten times the amount of the proper duty or of the deficient portion thereof, whether such amount exceeds or falls short of five rupees:

Provided that, when such instrument has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of section 13 or section 14, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, remit the whole penalty prescribed by this section.

(2) Every certificate under clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall, for the purposes of this Act, be conclusive evidence of the matters stated therein.

(3) Where an instrument has been sent to the Collector under section 38, sub-section (2), the Collector shall, when he has dealt with it as provided by this section, return it to the impounding officer.

1. Subs. by the A.O. 1937, for "the G.G. in C.".

2. Subs. by the A. O. 1950, for "collecting Government".

3. The words "upon application made to him in this behalf or, if no application is made, with the consent of the chief Controlling Revenue-authority" omitted by Act 4 of 1914, s. 2 and the Sch. Pt I.

4. Subs. by Act 19 of 1958, s. 6, for "with a duty of one anna or half an anna" (w.e.f. 1-10-1958).

5. Ins. by Act 15 of 1904, s. 6.

41. Instruments unduly stamped by accident. — If any instrument chargeable with duty and not duly stamped, not being an instrument chargeable ¹[with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise] only or a bill of exchange or promissory note, is produced by any person of his own motion before the Collector within one year from the date of its execution or first execution, and such person brings to the notice of the Collector the fact that such instrument is not duly stamped and offers to pay to the Collector the amount of the proper duty, or the amount required to make up the same, and the Collector is satisfied that the omission to duly stamp such instrument has been occasioned by accident, mistake or urgent necessity, he may, instead of proceeding under sections 33 and 40, receive such amount and proceed as next herein after prescribed.

42. Endorsement of instruments on which duty has been paid under sections 35, 40 or 41— (1) When the duty and penalty (if any), leviable in respect of any instrument have been paid under section 35, section 40 or section 41, the person admitting such instrument in evidence or the Collector, as the case may be, shall certify by endorsement thereon that the proper duty or, as the case may be, the proper duty and penalty (stating the amount of each) have been levied in respect thereof, and the name and residence of the person paying them.

(2) Every instrument so endorsed shall thereupon be admissible in evidence, and may be registered and acted upon and authenticated as if it had been duly stamped, and shall be delivered on his application in this behalf to the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the officer impounding it, or as such person may direct:

Provided that—

(a) no instrument which has been admitted in evidence upon payment of duty and a penalty under section 35, shall be so delivered before the expiration of one month from the date of such impounding, or if the Collector has certified that its further detention is necessary and has not cancelled such certificate;

(b) nothing in this section shall affect ²the Code of Civil Procedure (XIV of 1882), section 144, clause 3.

43. Prosecution for offence against Stamp-law. — The taking of proceedings or the payment of a penalty under this Chapter in respect of any instrument shall not bar the prosecution of any person who appears to have committed an offence against the Stamp-law in respect of such instrument:

Provided that no such prosecution shall be instituted in the case of any instrument in respect of which such a penalty has been paid, unless it appears to the Collector that the offence was committed with an intention of evading payment of the proper duty.

44. Persons paying duty or penalty may recover same in certain cases. —(1) When any duty or penalty has been paid under section 35, section 37, section 40 or section 41, by any person in respect of an instrument, and, by agreement or under the provisions of section 29 or any other enactment in force at the time such instrument was executed, some other person was bound to bear the expense of providing the proper stamp for such instrument, the first-mentioned person shall be entitled to recover from such other person the amount of the duty or penalty so paid.

(2) For the purpose of such recovery any certificate granted in respect of such instrument under this Act shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein certified.

(3) Such amount may, if the Court thinks fit, be included in any order as to costs in any suit or proceeding to which such persons are parties and in which such instrument has been tendered in evidence. If the Court does not include the amount in such order, no further proceedings for the recovery of the amount shall be maintainable.

1. Subs. by Act 19 of 1958, s. 6 for “with a duty of one anna or half an anna” (w.e.f. 1-10-1958).

2. See now the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), Sch. I, Order XIII, Rule 9.

45. Power to Revenue-authority to refund penalty or excess duty in certain cases. — (1) Where any penalty is paid under section 35 or section 40, the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority may, upon application in writing made within one year from the date of the payment, refund such penalty wholly or in part.

(2) Where, in the opinion of the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority, stamp-duty in excess of that which is legally chargeable has been charged and paid under section 35 or section 40, such authority may, upon application in writing made within three months of the order charging the same, refund the excess.

46. Non-liability for loss of instruments sent under section 38. — (1) If any instrument sent to the Collector under section 38, sub-section (2), is lost, destroyed or damaged during transmission, the person sending the same shall not be liable for such loss, destruction or damage.

(2) When any instrument is about to be so sent, the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the person impounding the same, may require a copy thereof to be made at the expense of such first-mentioned person and authenticated by the person impounding such instrument.

47. Power of payer to stamp bills, and promissory notes received by him unstamped. — When any bill of exchange ¹[or promissory note] chargeable ²[with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise] is presented for payment unstamped, the person to whom it is so presented, may affix thereto the necessary adhesive stamp, and, upon cancelling the same in manner hereinbefore provided, may pay the sum payable upon such bill ³[or note], and may charge the duty against the person who ought to have paid the same, or deduct it from the sum payable as aforesaid, and such bill ³[or note], shall, so far as respects the duty, be deemed good and valid :

Provided that nothing herein contained shall relieve any person from any penalty or proceeding to which he may be liable in relation to such bill, ³[or note].

48. Recovery of duties and penalties. — All duties, penalties and other sums required to be paid under this Chapter may be recovered by the Collector by distress and sale of the movable property of the person from whom the same are due, or by any other process for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of land-revenue.

CHAPTER V

ALLOWANCES FOR STAMPS IN CERTAIN CASES

49. Allowance for spoiled stamps. — Subject to such rules as may be made by ⁴[the ⁵[State Government]] as to the evidence to be required, or the enquiry to be made, the Collector may, on application made within the period prescribed in section 50, and if he is satisfied as to the facts, make allowance for impressed stamps spoiled in the cases herein after mentioned, namely: —

(a) the stamp on any paper inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, obliterated or by error in writing or any other means rendered unfit for the purpose intended before any instrument written thereon is executed by any person:

(b) the stamp on any document which is written out wholly or in part, but which is not signed or executed by any party thereto:

(c) in the case of bills of exchange ⁶[payable otherwise than on demand] ^{7} or promissory notes—

1. Subs. by Act 5 of 1927, s. 5, for “promissory note or cheque”.

2. Subs. by Act 19 of 1958, s. 7, for “with the duty of one anna” (w.e.f. 1-10-1958).

3. Subs. by Act 5 of 1927, s. 5, for “note or cheque”.

4. Subs. by the A.O. 1937, for “the L.G.”.

5. Subs. by the A.O. 1950, for “collecting Government”.

6. Ins. by Act 5 of 1927, s. 5.

7. The word “Cheques” omitted by s. 5, ibid.

(1) the stamp on ¹[any such bill of exchange] ^{2}signed by or on behalf of the drawer which has not been accepted or made use of in any manner whatever or delivered out of his hands for any purpose other than by way of tender for acceptance: provided that the paper on which any such stamp is impressed, does not bear any signature intended as or for the acceptance of any bill of exchange ^{2} to be afterwards written thereon:

(2) the stamp on any promissory note signed by or on behalf of the maker which has not been made use of in any manner whatever or delivered out of his hands:

(3) the stamp used or intended to be used for ¹[any such bill of exchange] ^{3} or promissory note signed by, or on behalf of, the drawer thereof, but which from any omission or error has been spoiled or rendered useless, although the same, being a bill of exchange ^{2} may have been presented for acceptance or accepted or endorsed, or, being a promissory note, may have been delivered to the payee: provided that another completed and duly stamped bill of exchange ^{3} or promissory note is produced identical in every particular, except in the correction of such omission or error as aforesaid, with the spoiled bill, ^{3} or note;

(d) the stamp used for an instrument executed by any party thereto which—

(1) has been afterwards found to be absolutely void in law from the beginning:

(2) has been afterwards found unfit, by reason of any error or mistake therein, for the purpose originally intended:

(3) by reason of the death of any person by whom it is necessary that it should be executed, without having executed the same, or of the refusal of any such person to execute the same, cannot be completed so as to effect the intended transaction in the form proposed:

(4) for want of the execution thereof by some material party, and his inability or refusal to sign the same, is in fact incomplete and insufficient for the purpose for which it was intended:

(5) by reason of the refusal of any person to act under the same, or to advance any money intended to be thereby secured, or by the refusal or non-acceptance of any office thereby granted, totally fails of the intended purpose:

(6) becomes useless in consequence of the transaction intended to be thereby effected being effected by some other instrument between the same parties and bearing a stamp of not less value:

(7) is deficient in value and the transaction intended to be thereby effected has been effected by some other instrument between the same parties and bearing a stamp of not less value:

(8) is inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, and in lieu whereof another instrument made between the same parties and for the same purpose is executed and duly stamped:

Provided that, in the case of an executed instrument, no legal proceeding has been commenced in which the instrument could or would have been given or offered in evidence and that the instrument is given up to be cancelled.

1. Subs. by Act 5 of 1927, s. 5, for “any bill of exchange”.

2. The words “or cheque” omitted by s. 5, ibid.

3. The word “cheque” omitted by s. 5, ibid.

Explanation.—The certificate of the Collector under section 32 that the full duty with which an instrument is chargeable, has been paid is an impressed stamp within the meaning of this section.

50. Application for relief under section 49 when to be made.—The application for relief under section 49 shall be made within the following periods, that is to say, —

(1) in the cases mentioned in clause (d) (5), within two months of the date of the instrument:

(2) in the case of a stamped paper on which no instrument has been executed by any of the parties thereto, within six months after the stamp has been spoiled:

(3) in the case of a stamped paper in which an instrument has been executed by any of the parties thereto, within six months after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed:

Provided that, —

(a) when the spoiled instrument has been for sufficient reasons sent out of ¹ [India], the application may be made within six months after it has been received back in ¹[India] ;

(b) when, from unavoidable circumstances, any instrument for which another instrument has been substituted, cannot be given up to be cancelled within the aforesaid period, the application may be made within six months after the date of execution of the substituted instrument.

51. Allowance in case of printed forms no longer required by Corporations. —The Chief Controlling Revenue-authority ² [or the Collector if empowered by the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority in this behalf] may, without limit of time, make allowance for stamped papers used for printed forms of instruments ³[by any banker or] by any incorporated company or other body corporate, if for any sufficient reason such forms have ceased to be required by the said ³[banker], company or body corporate: provided that such authority is satisfied that the duty in respect of such stamped papers has been duly paid.

52. Allowance for misused stamps. —(a) When any person has inadvertently used for an instrument chargeable with duty, a stamp of a description other than that prescribed for such instrument by the rules made under this Act, or a stamp of greater value than was necessary, or has inadvertently used any stamp for an instrument not chargeable with any duty; or

(b) when any stamp used for an instrument has been inadvertently rendered useless under section 15, owing to such instrument having been written in contravention of the provisions of section 13;

the Collector may, on application made within six months after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, and upon the instrument, if chargeable with duty, being re-stamped with the proper duty, cancel and allow as spoiled the stamp so misused or rendered useless.

53. Allowance for spoiled or misused stamps how to be made. — In any case in which allowance is made for spoiled or misused stamps, the Collector may give in lieu thereof —

(a) other stamps of the same description and value; or,

1. Subs. by Act 43 of 1955, s. 2, for “the States” (w.e.f. 1-4-1956).

2. Ins. by Act 4 of 1914, s. 2 and Sch. pt. 1.

3. Ins. by Act 5 of 1906, s. 6.

(b) if required and he thinks fit, stamps of any other description to the same amount in value; or,

(c) at his discretion, the same value in money, deducting ¹[ten naye paise] for each rupee or fraction of a rupee.

54. Allowance for stamps not required for use. — When any person is possessed of a stamp or stamps which have not been spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, but for which he has no immediate use, the Collector shall repay to such person the value of such stamp or stamps in money, deducting ¹[ten naye paise] for each rupee or portion of a rupee, upon such person delivering up the same to be cancelled, and proving to the Collector's satisfaction—

(a) that such stamp or stamps were purchased by such person with a bona fide intention to use them; and

(b) that he has paid the full price thereof; and

(c) that they were so purchased within the period of six months next preceding the date on which they were so delivered:

Provided that, where the person is a licensed vendor of stamps, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, make the repayment of the sum actually paid by the vendor without any such deduction as aforesaid.

²[54A. Allowances for stamps in denominations of annas. — Notwithstanding anything contained in section 54, when any person is possessed of a stamp or stamps in any denominations, other than in denominations of annas four of multiples thereof and such stamp or stamps has or have not been spoiled, the Collector shall repay to such person the value of such stamp or stamps in money calculated in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 14 of the Indian Coinage Act, 1906, (3 of 1906) upon such person delivering up, within six months from the commencement of the Indian Stamp (Amendment) Act, 1958 (19 of 1958), such stamp or stamps to the Collector.]

Provided that the State Government may, with a view to facilitating expeditious disposal of claims for such refunds, specify, in such manner as it deems fit, any other procedure which may also be followed for claiming such refunds.]

55. Allowance on renewal of certain debentures. — When any duly stamped debenture is renewed by the issue of a new debenture in the same terms, the Collector shall, upon application made within one month, repay to the person issuing such debenture, the value of the stamp on the original or on the new debenture, whichever shall be less:

Provided that the original debenture is produced before the Collector and cancelled by him in such manner as ⁴[the State Government] may direct.

Explanation. — A debenture shall be deemed to be renewed in the same terms within the meaning of this section notwithstanding the following changes:—

(a) the issue of two or more debentures in place of one original debenture, the total amount secured being the same;

1. Subs. by Act 19 of 1958, s. 8, for “one anna” (w.e.f. 1-10-1958)

2. Ins. by s. 9, ibid. (w.e.f. 1-10-1958).

3. Ins. by Act 13 of 1973, s. 2 (w.e.f. 1-4-1973).

4. Subs. by the A. O. 1937, for “the G.G. in C.”.

(b) the issue of one debenture in place of two or more original debentures, the total amount secured being the same;

(c) the substitution of the name of the holder at the time of renewal for the name of the original holder; and

(d) the alteration of the rate of interest or the dates of payment thereof.

CHAPTER VI

REFERENCE AND REVISION

56. Control of, and statement of case to, Chief Controlling Revenue-authority. — (1) The powers exercisable by a Collector under Chapter IV and Chapter V ¹[and under clause (a) of the first proviso to section 26] shall in all cases be subject to the control of the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority.

(2) If any Collector, acting under section 31, section 40 or section 41, feels doubt as to the amount of duty with which any instrument is chargeable, he may draw up a statement of the case, and refer it, with his own opinion thereon, for the decision of the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority.

(3) Such authority shall consider the case and send a copy of its decision to the Collector, who shall proceed to assess and charge the duty (if any) in conformity with such decision.

57. Statement of case by Chief Controlling Revenue-authority to High Court. — (1) The Chief Controlling Revenue-authority may state any case referred to it under section 56, sub-section (2), or otherwise coming to its notice, and refer such case, with its own opinion thereon, —

²[(a) if it arises in a State, to the High Court for that State;

³[(b) if it arises in the Union territory of Delhi, to the High Court of Delhi;]

4^* $$ $$ $$ $$

⁵[(c) if it arises in the Union territory of Arunachal Pradesh or Mizoram, to the Gauhati High Court (the High Court of Assam, Nagaland, Meghalaya, Manipur and Tripura);]

(d) if it arises in the Union territory of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands, to the High Court at Calcutta :

(e) if it arises in the Union territory of the ⁶[Lakshadweep], to the High Court of Kerala;]

⁷ [(ee) if it arises in the Union territory of Chandigarh, to the High Court of Punjab and Haryana;]

⁸(f) if it arises in the Union territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli, to the High Court of Bombay.]

1. Ins. by Act 15 of 1904, s. 7.

2. Subs. by the A.O. (No. 2) 1956, for clauses (a) to (g).

3. Subs. by the Punjab Reorganisation and Delhi High Court (Adaptation of Laws on Union Subjects) Order, 1968, s. 3 and Sch. for clause (b) (w.e.f. 1-11-1966).

4. Clause (bb) ins. by s. 3 and Sch. ibid. And omitted by the state of Himachal Pradesh (Adaptation of Law on Union Subjects) Order, 1973, s. 3 and Sch. (w.e.f. 25-1-1971).

5. Subs. by the North-Eastern Areas (Reorganisation) (Adaptation of Laws on union Subjects) Order 1974, s. 3 and Sch. for clause (c) (w.e.f. 21-1-1972).

6. Subs. by the Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands (Alteration of Name) Adaptation of Laws Order, 1974, s. 3 and Sch. for "the Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands" (w.e.f. 1-11-1973).

7. Ins. by the Punjab Reorganisation and Delhi High Court (Adaptation of Laws on Union Subjects) Order, 1968, s. 3 and Sch. (w.e.f. 1-11-1966).

8. Ins. by Reg. 6 of 1963, s. 2 and the First Sch.

(2) Every such case shall be decided by not less than three Judges of the High Court ^{1} to which it is referred, and in case of difference the opinion of the majority shall prevail.

58. Power of High Court to call for further particulars as to case stated. — If the High Court ^{2} is not satisfied that the statements contained in the case are sufficient to enable it to determine the questions raised thereby, the Court may refer the case back to the Revenue-authority by which it was stated, to make such additions thereto or alterations therein as the Court may direct in that behalf.

59. Procedure in disposing of case stated. — (1) The High Court, ^{2} upon the hearing of any such case, shall decide the questions raised thereby, and shall deliver its judgment thereon containing the grounds on which such decision is founded.

(2) The Court shall send to the Revenue-authority by which the case was stated, a copy of such judgment under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Registrar; and the Revenue-authority shall, on receiving such copy, dispose of the case conformably to such judgment.

60. Statement of case by other Courts to High Court. — (1) If any Court, other than a Court mentioned in section 57, feels doubt as to the amount of duty to be paid in respect of any instrument under proviso (a) to section 35, the Judge may draw up a statement of the case and refer it, with his own opinion thereon, for the decision of the High Court ^{2} to which, if he were the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority, he would, under section 57, refer the same.

(2) Such Court shall deal with the case as if it had been referred under section 57, and send a copy of its judgment under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Registrar to the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority and another like copy to the Judge making the reference, who shall, on receiving such copy, dispose of the case conformably to such judgment.

(3) Reference made under sub-section (1), when made by a Court subordinate to a District Court, shall be made through the District Court, and, when made by any subordinate Revenue Court, shall be made through the Court immediately superior.

61. Revision of certain decisions of Courts regarding the sufficiency of stamps. — (1) When any Court in the exercise of its civil or revenue jurisdiction or any Criminal Court in any proceeding under Chapter XII or Chapter XXXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), makes any order admitting any instrument in evidence as duly stamped or as not requiring a stamp, or upon payment of duty and a penalty under section 35, the Court to which appeals lie from, or references are made by, such first-mentioned Court may, of its own motion or on the application of the Collector, take such order into consideration.

(2) If such Court, after such consideration, is of opinion that such instrument should not have been admitted in evidence without the payment of duty and penalty under section 35, or without the payment of a higher duty and penalty than those paid, it may record a declaration to that effect, and determine the amount of duty with which such instrument is chargeable, and may require any person in whose possession or power such instrument then is, to produce the same, and may impound the same when produced.

(3) When any declaration has been recorded under sub-section (2), the Court recording the same shall send a copy thereof to the Collector, and, where the instrument to which it relates has been impounded or is otherwise in the possession of such Court, shall also send him such instrument.

(4) The Collector may thereupon, notwithstanding anything contained in the order admitting such instrument in evidence, or in any certificate granted under section 42, or in section 43, prosecute any person for any offence against the Stamp-law which the Collector considers him to have committed in respect of such instrument:

1. The words “Chief Court or Judicial Commissioner’s Court” omitted by the A.O. 1950.
2. The words “Chief Court or Judicial Commissioner’s Court” omitted by the A.O. 1948.

Provided that. —

(a) no such prosecution shall be instituted where the amount (including duty and penalty) which, according to the determination of such Court, was payable in respect of the instrument under section 35, is paid to the Collector, unless he thinks that the offence was committed with an intention of evading payment of the proper duty;

(b) except for the purposes of such prosecution, no declaration made under this section shall affect the validity of any order admitting any instrument in evidence, or of any certificate granted under section 42.

CHAPTER VII

CRIMINAL OFFENCES AND PROCEDURE

62. Penalty for executing, etc., instrument not duly stamped. —(1) Any person —

(a) drawing, making, issuing, endorsing or transferring, or signing otherwise than as a witness, or presenting for acceptance or payment, or accepting, paying or receiving payment of, or in any manner negotiating, any bill of exchange ¹[payable otherwise than on demand] ^{2} or promissory note without the same being duly stamped ; or

(b) executing or signing otherwise than as a witness any other instrument chargeable with duty without the same being duly stamped; or

(c) voting or attempting to vote under nay proxy not duly stamped;

shall for every such offence be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees:

Provided that, when any penalty has been paid in respect of any instrument under section 35, section 40 or section 61, the amount of such penalty shall be allowed in reduction of the fine, (if any) subsequently imposed under this section in respect of the same instrument upon the person who paid such penalty.

(2) If a share-warrant is issued without being duly stamped, the company issuing the same, and also every person who, at the time when it is issued, is the managing director or secretary or other principal officer of the company, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

63. Penalty for failure to cancel adhesive stamp. — Any person required by section 12 to cancel an adhesive stamp, and failing to cancel such stamp in manner prescribed by that section, shall, be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

64. Penalty for omission to comply with provisions of section 27. — Any person who, with intent to defraud the Government, —

(a) executes any instrument in which all the facts and circumstances required by section 27 to be set forth in such instrument are not fully and truly set forth; or

(b) being employed or concerned in or about the preparation of any instrument, neglects or omits fully and truly to set forth therein all such facts and circumstances; or

(c) does any other act calculated to deprive the Government of any duty or penalty under this Act; shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees.

65. Penalty for refusal to give receipt, and for devices to evade duty on receipts. — Any person who,—

(a) being required under section 30 to give a receipt, refuses or neglects to give the same; or,

1. Ins by Act 5 of 1927, s. 5.

2. The word “cheque” omitted by s. 5, ibid.

(b) with intent to defraud the Government of any duty, upon a payment of money or delivery of property exceeding twenty rupees in amount or value, gives a receipt for an amount or value not exceeding twenty rupees, or separates or divides the money or property paid or delivered; shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

66. Penalty for not making out policy or making one not duly stamped. —Any person who—

(a) receives, or takes credit for, any premium or consideration for any contract of insurance and does not, within one month after receiving, or taking credit for, such premium or consideration, make out and execute a duly stamped policy of such insurance; or

(b) makes, executes or delivers out any policy which is not duly stamped, or pays or allows in account, or agrees to pay or allow in account, any money upon, or in respect of, any such policy; shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

67. Penalty for not drawing full number of bills or marine policies purporting to be in sets. — Any person drawing or executing a bill of exchange ¹[payable otherwise than on demand] or a policy of marine insurance purporting to be drawn or executed in a set of two or more, and not at the same time drawing or executing on paper duly stamped the whole number of bills or policies of which such bill or policy purports the set to consist, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

68. Penalty for post-dating bills, and for other devices to defraud the revenue. —Any person who, —

(a) with intent to defraud the Government of duty, draws, makes or issues any bill of exchange or promissory note bearing a date subsequent to that on which such bill or note is actually drawn or made; or,

(b) knowing that such bill or note has been so post-dated, endorses, transfers, presents for acceptance or payment, or accepts, pays or receives payment of, such bill or note, or in any manner negotiate the same; or,

(c) with the like intent, practices or is concerned in any act, contrivance or device not specially provided for by this Act or any other law for the time being in force;

shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

69. Penalty for breach of rule relating to sale of stamps and for unauthorised sale. —(a) Any person appointed to sell stamps who disobeys any rule made under section 74; and

(b) any person not so appointed who sells or offers for sale any stamp (other than a ²[ten naye paise for five naye paise] adhesive stamp); shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

70. Institution and conduct of prosecutions.— (1) No prosecution in respect of any offence punishable under this Act or any Act hereby repealed, shall be instituted without the sanction of the Collector or such other officer as ³ [the ⁴ [State Government]] generally, or the Collector specially, authorizes in that behalf.

Indian Stamp Act, 1899 – Bare Act PDF & Executive Summary

Introduction: Indian Stamp Act, 1899 – Bare Act PDF

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF is one of the oldest fiscal laws still in operation in India. Enacted during British colonial rule, it was designed to regulate the imposition of stamp duty on legal instruments, thereby ensuring both government revenue and the legal validity of documents. Despite its age, the Act remains highly relevant because stamping is integral to property transactions, business contracts, securities, and commercial dealings.

Stamp duty under this Act serves two primary functions:

1. Revenue generation: It is a significant source of income for both Union and State Governments.
2. Legal enforceability: Instruments that are not properly stamped are generally inadmissible as evidence in courts, which makes compliance essential.

In practice, the Act applies to a wide range of documents, including conveyances, mortgages, leases, agreements, share certificates, bonds, and promissory notes. With time, amendments and judicial interpretations have adapted the Act to modern realities, including e-stamping and digital transactions.

Corrida Legal's Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF provides a user-friendly guide for professionals, while the Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download offers direct access to the statutory text for law students, compliance officers, and businesses.

What is the Indian Stamp Act, 1899?

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF is a central fiscal legislation that regulates the levy of stamp duty on instruments executed in India. Enacted during the British era, the law was primarily designed to secure government revenue and to ensure the authenticity and admissibility of documents in legal proceedings.

The Act is unique because it does not tax transactions themselves but rather the instruments through which rights, liabilities, and obligations are created, transferred, or extinguished. This makes stamping not merely a revenue measure but also a compliance requirement, as unstamped or insufficiently stamped documents are inadmissible in courts under Section 35.

Origin and Purpose of the Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF was introduced to:

- Create a uniform law for stamp duty across India.
- Provide a statutory framework for levying duty on instruments like conveyances, leases, mortgages, and agreements.
- Safeguard against fraud and ensure documents are legally recognised.
- Establish stamping as both a revenue mechanism and a condition of enforceability.

Thus, the Act remains not just a fiscal statute but also a compliance cornerstone for legal documentation.

Applicability across India – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF explains that:

- The Act extends to the entire country, but States are empowered to amend provisions and prescribe duty rates under the Constitution.
- As a result, stamp duty varies from State to State, especially in property and real estate transactions.
- Duties on certain instruments, such as securities, remain under the control of the Union Government.

This dual framework makes the Act a blend of central authority and state-specific regulation, requiring businesses to check local amendments carefully.

Role in Revenue and Enforceability – Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal

Corrida Legal's commentary on the Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal underlines two central roles of the Act:

1. Revenue Generation:

- Stamp duty remains one of the largest sources of revenue for States.
- Duties collected on property sales, mortgages, and leases contribute significantly to State budgets.

2. Legal Enforceability:

- An instrument that is not properly stamped is inadmissible as evidence in a court of law.
- This ensures compliance while strengthening the reliability of documents used in commerce and litigation.

Structure of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF is structured as a comprehensive fiscal code that deals with the levy, collection, and enforcement of stamp duties in India. Although relatively concise compared to modern commercial statutes, its framework has been repeatedly interpreted by courts and supplemented by State amendments. The Act combines central authority with State-level flexibility, ensuring that stamp duty remains one of the most dynamic areas of compliance.

Overview of the Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF

The Act is divided into the following broad parts:

1. Preliminary Definitions (Sections 1–2):

- Provides definitions of “instrument,” “executed,” “stamp,” and “adjudication.”

2. Chargeability of Duty (Sections 3–6):

- Lists instruments chargeable with duty.
- Explains circumstances where multiple duties may be applicable.

3. Valuation of Instruments (Sections 27–33):

- Prescribes ad valorem duty (based on consideration or market value).
- Sets out principles of valuation in property and securities.

4. Mode of Stamping (Sections 10–19):

- Covers impressed stamps, adhesive stamps, and current adoption of e-stamping.

5. Consequences of Non-Stamping (Sections 35–48):

- Makes unstamped instruments inadmissible in evidence.
- Explains penalties and validation through deficit duty payments.

6. Adjudication and Refunds (Sections 31–54):

- Empowers the Collector to adjudicate whether an instrument is duly stamped.

- Provides for refund of spoiled or unused stamps.

7. Powers of Authorities (Sections 56–73):

- Defines the role of the Collector and Chief Controlling Revenue Authority.
- Enables reference of questions to High Courts.

8. Schedules:

- Contains detailed lists of instruments and their applicable duties.
- States amend schedules to suit their own revenue needs.

Central vs State Amendments – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF notes that while the Act originated as a central law, stamp duty rates on property transactions fall within State jurisdiction. Key points:

- The Union Government retains power over stamp duty on securities.
- States may amend the Act for instruments falling under the State List (like sale deeds, mortgages, and leases).
- This results in variations across States, making compliance location-specific.

For example:

- Maharashtra and Delhi levy higher duties on property transactions.
- Karnataka provides concessions in certain cases, such as for women purchasers.

Corrida Legal’s Analysis – Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal

Corrida Legal’s review of the Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal highlights that this dual framework:

- Increases compliance complexity for companies operating in multiple States.
- Requires careful contract drafting, ensuring stamp duty is addressed before execution.
- Makes legal due diligence in property, M&A, and finance transactions heavily dependent on local stamp laws.

Key Definitions under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF begins with essential definitions that shape the scope of the statute. These definitions determine which documents are chargeable, how duties are imposed, and when compliance is mandatory. Courts in India frequently rely on these terms to interpret whether a particular document qualifies as an “instrument” and, therefore, requires stamping.

Instrument – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF

- Defined under Section 2(14) as every document by which any right or liability is created, transferred, extended, extinguished, or recorded.
- This is the core definition because stamp duty attaches to the instrument, not the transaction itself.
- Examples include: sale deeds, mortgage deeds, leases, share certificates, and bonds.

Practical implication: Even informal agreements like memoranda of understanding (MoUs) may attract stamp duty if they create or record legal obligations.

Executed and Execution – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF

- Under Section 2(12), “executed” means “signed” and “execution” means the process of signing.
- Duty is payable at the time of execution of the document.
- Instruments executed outside India relating to property or matters in India must also be stamped within a specified time when brought into India.

Stamp – Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal

- As per Section 2(26), “stamp” means any mark, seal, or impression by means of adhesive or impressed stamps, or e-stamping authorised under law.
- Today, this includes digital e-stamps provided through the Stock Holding Corporation of India (SHCIL).

Practical implication: E-stamping has largely replaced traditional adhesive stamps in many States, reducing fraud and ensuring traceability.

Chargeable and Duty – Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download

- Chargeable: An instrument is said to be chargeable with duty if it falls under the categories listed in the Act or Schedule.
- Duty: Means the tax payable under the Act on such chargeable instruments.

Example: A sale deed transferring immovable property is chargeable with ad valorem duty based on property value.

Adjudication – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF

- Defined under Section 31, adjudication is the process by which the Collector determines whether an instrument is duly stamped and, if not, the duty payable.
- Adjudication helps in clearing ambiguities, especially for complex or non-standard documents.

Importance of Definitions – Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal

Corrida Legal’s analysis stresses that these definitions are not mere technicalities:

- They determine the scope of compliance obligations.
- They influence whether a document is admissible in evidence.
- They guide businesses and individuals in deciding stamping requirements before execution.

In summary: The Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download clarifies key terms such as instrument, execution, stamp, chargeable duty, and adjudication. These definitions form the foundation of the Act and are critical for ensuring legal enforceability of documents.

Instruments Chargeable with Stamp Duty under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF specifies that stamp duty is chargeable on instruments, not on the underlying transactions themselves. This principle means that whenever a legal right or liability is recorded in writing, the instrument becomes liable for stamp duty. The list of chargeable instruments is contained in the Schedules to the Act, which States are empowered to amend to suit local needs.

General Rule – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF

- Section 3 of the Act provides that stamp duty is payable on instruments executed in India and certain instruments executed outside India but relating to property or matters within India.
- Instruments chargeable include agreements, conveyances, leases, bonds, and securities.

Common Chargeable Instruments – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF

According to the Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF, the most frequently chargeable instruments include:

1. Agreements and Contracts – general agreements, service contracts, and business contracts.
2. Conveyances – sale deeds, gift deeds, exchange deeds relating to immovable property.
3. Mortgages – mortgage deeds for securing loans with property as collateral.
4. Bonds and Debentures – including government and corporate bonds.
5. Promissory Notes – obligations to pay a fixed sum.
6. Leases and Licenses – tenancy agreements, lease deeds, rent deeds.
7. Share Certificates and Transfers – issuance and transfer of shares and securities.
8. Insurance Policies – life and general insurance contracts.

Principles of Chargeability – Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal

Corrida Legal's review of the Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal highlights certain guiding principles:

- Substance over form: The nature of the document determines duty, not the title it carries.
- Multiple chargeability: If an instrument falls under more than one category, duty is levied on the category attracting the highest duty.
- Copies and Counterparts: Copies may also attract duty if used as evidence.

Special Focus Areas – Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download

The Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download highlights specific contexts where duty plays a critical role:

- Property transactions: Sale deeds and leases represent the largest source of stamp duty revenue for States.
- Corporate transactions: Share transfers, debentures, and M&A agreements require careful compliance.
- Financial services: Loan agreements, pledges, and securities attract ad valorem duty.

Business Implications – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF

For businesses and individuals, ensuring stamping is not a mere technicality but a legal necessity:

- Unstamped agreements cannot be enforced in court.
- Investors often require evidence of proper stamping before funding.
- Stamp duty affects transaction costs, particularly in high-value property and finance deals.

Stamp Duty Rates and Valuation under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF provides the framework for how stamp duty is calculated and levied. While the Act itself lays down the broad principles, the rates of duty vary from State to State, especially for property-related transactions. This makes valuation and proper stamping one of the most critical aspects of compliance under the Act.

Principles of Valuation – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF

Under the Act, stamp duty may be:

1. Fixed Duty: Payable as a fixed amount irrespective of the value of the transaction (e.g., affidavits, acknowledgments).
2. Ad Valorem Duty: Calculated as a percentage of the transaction value or market value (e.g., property sale deeds, mortgages, share transfers).

Key Rule: For ad valorem instruments, duty is payable on the higher of the stated consideration or the prevailing market value.

Central vs State Power on Duty – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF explains that:

- The Union Government fixes duties on instruments like securities, bills of exchange, and promissory notes.
- States determine duty rates on instruments like sale deeds, leases, gift deeds, and mortgages.
- As a result, the same type of transaction may attract different duty rates depending on the State in which it is executed.

Examples of Duty Rates – Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal

Corrida Legal's analysis of the Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal provides practical illustrations:

- Property Sale Deeds: Usually between 5% to 8% of property value (varies by State).
- Lease Deeds: Typically 1% to 2% of average annual rent.
- Share Transfers: Often 0.015% to 0.05% of consideration.
- Mortgage Deeds: Between 0.5% and 2% of the secured amount.

Table: Common Instruments and Stamp Duty Ranges

Instrument	Duty Rate (Typical Range)	Basis of Valuation
Sale Deed (Immovable Property)	5% – 8%	Higher of stated consideration or market value
Lease Deed	1% – 2%	Average annual rent + premium, if any
Mortgage Deed	0.5% – 2%	Secured loan amount
Share Transfer	0.015% – 0.05%	Consideration paid
Gift Deed	2% – 5%	Market value of gifted property
Bond / Debenture	0.005% – 0.05%	Value of bond/debenture

Practical Issues in Valuation – Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download

The Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download and judicial practice highlight common valuation challenges:

- Under-valuation of property to evade duty — countered by circle rate systems.
- Disputes over consideration vs market value — resolved by reference to the Collector.

- Cross-State differences — complicating compliance for businesses operating nationally.

Mode of Payment of Stamp Duty under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF prescribes different methods for payment of stamp duty on instruments. The mode of payment is not merely a procedural formality; it ensures authenticity, traceability, and validity of the duty paid. With reforms over time, the traditional use of physical stamps has been supplemented — and in many cases replaced — by e-stamping systems.

Adhesive Stamps – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF

- Adhesive stamps are small stamps affixed to instruments to denote duty payment.
- They must be cancelled at the time of use (usually by signature or perforation) so they cannot be reused fraudulently.
- Commonly used for documents like receipts, share transfers, and smaller agreements.

Impressed Stamps – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF notes that:

- Impressed stamps are embossed, engraved, or printed on the document by authorised officers.
- They are generally used for high-value instruments like property sale deeds, mortgages, and large agreements.
- Since impressed stamps are integrated into the document, they reduce the risk of tampering or misuse.

E-Stamping – Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal

Corrida Legal's review of the Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal highlights the rise of e-stamping:

- Introduced to curb fraud and improve transparency.
- Available in most States through the Stock Holding Corporation of India Limited (SHCIL).
- Parties can pay stamp duty online and obtain a digitally verifiable certificate of stamping.
- E-stamps are difficult to forge and provide a permanent digital record.

Practical benefits:

- Eliminates the black-market trade in physical stamps.
- Convenient for businesses executing multiple contracts across States.
- Provides real-time verification of stamping.

Validation of Stamping – Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download

The Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download specifies that stamping must be done before or at the time of execution of the instrument. Post-execution stamping is permitted only in limited circumstances, often subject to penalties.

Key compliance points:

- Ensure correct denomination and type of stamp (adhesive, impressed, or e-stamp).
- Verify cancellation of adhesive stamps to prevent reuse.
- Retain proof of e-stamping for future legal disputes or audits.

Consequences of Non-Payment or Insufficient Stamping under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF is not merely a fiscal law; it also prescribes serious consequences for instruments that are either unstamped or inadequately stamped. Compliance with stamping requirements is therefore a condition precedent for enforceability of many legal documents. Courts across India have consistently held that a document not duly stamped cannot be admitted in evidence, though it may later be validated upon payment of duty and penalties.

Inadmissibility in Evidence – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF

- Section 35 of the Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF states that an instrument chargeable with duty shall not be admitted in evidence unless it is duly stamped.
- Such instruments also cannot be acted upon, registered, or authenticated by any public office.
- The only exception is where the deficit duty and prescribed penalty are paid, after which the document may be admitted.

Penalties for Default – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF

According to the Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF, the penalties for non-stamping or insufficient stamping include:

1. Monetary Penalty: Up to ten times the deficit duty may be imposed by the Collector.
2. Delay in Transactions: Unstamped instruments may cause delays in registration or enforcement of agreements.
3. Business Risks: Contracts may be deemed unenforceable until corrected, which can impact financing, litigation, or property transfers.

Case Law on Stamping – Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal

Corrida Legal's review of the Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal highlights key judicial pronouncements:

- Avinash Kumar Chauhan v. Vijay Krishna Mishra (2009):
The Supreme Court held that an unstamped document is inadmissible in evidence, and courts cannot admit it until proper duty and penalty are paid.
- Hindustan Steel Ltd. v. Dilip Construction Co. (1969):
The Court clarified that penalties should not be imposed automatically — they require proof of deliberate or contumacious default.
- Javer Chand v. Pukhraj Surana (1961):
Once a document has been admitted in evidence, its admissibility on stamping grounds cannot later be challenged.

Practical Impact – Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download

The Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download shows that the consequences of non-compliance extend beyond penalties:

- An unstamped loan agreement can derail financing.
- An inadequately stamped property deed can invalidate ownership transfer.
- In litigation, unstamped agreements cannot be relied upon, weakening a party's case.

Adjudication and Refund of Stamp Duty under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF not only prescribes duties but also provides mechanisms to determine the proper amount of duty payable and to obtain refunds in limited circumstances. These provisions are important for individuals and businesses because errors in stamping are common, and instruments often require official validation before they can be used in transactions or litigation.

Adjudication of Duty – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF

Under Section 31, any person may apply to the Collector to determine whether an instrument is duly stamped.

Key features:

- The instrument must be presented, either executed or in draft form.
- The Collector examines it and provides a certificate of duty sufficiency.
- Once certified, the instrument cannot be questioned later on the ground of inadequate stamping.

Practical importance:

- Adjudication helps avoid disputes over stamping at the time of litigation or registration.
- Particularly useful for complex corporate transactions (like mergers or share transfers) where duty applicability may be uncertain.

Refund of Stamp Duty – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF specifies limited grounds for refund of duty:

1. Spoiled Stamps (Section 49):
 - Refund may be claimed for stamps that were damaged, spoiled, or rendered unfit for use.
2. Unused Stamps (Section 50):
 - If stamps were purchased but not used, refund may be sought within six months.
3. Cancelled or Unexecuted Instruments:
 - If an instrument is stamped but not executed, or executed but later cancelled, refund may be claimed subject to conditions.

Limitations:

- Refund is not automatic — it requires application to the Collector.
- Strict time limits apply, usually six months from the date of purchase or cancellation.

Corrida Legal's Analysis – Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal

Corrida Legal's review of the Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal stresses that:

- Businesses often lose money due to lack of awareness about refund provisions.
- Refunds are rarely straightforward; they involve documentary evidence, proof of cancellation, and compliance with deadlines.
- Adjudication is a proactive step businesses can take before execution to ensure compliance and avoid later disputes.

Judicial Approach to Adjudication and Refund – Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download

The Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download and case law highlight that:

- Courts generally uphold adjudication certificates as final, ensuring certainty in transactions.

- Refund provisions are interpreted strictly, delays or incomplete documentation often result in rejection of claims.
- Stamp duty once paid is treated as government revenue, so refunds are exceptions, not the norm.

Powers of Authorities under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF establishes a clear administrative framework for the levy and collection of stamp duty. To ensure effective implementation, it vests significant powers in revenue authorities and provides supervisory roles for higher authorities and courts. These powers are critical in maintaining compliance, resolving disputes, and securing government revenue.

Powers of the Collector – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF

The Collector is the primary authority under the Act and enjoys wide powers, including:

1. Adjudication (Section 31):
 - Determines whether an instrument is properly stamped and the amount of duty payable.
2. Impounding Instruments (Section 33):
 - Any person in authority (such as a judge or registrar) must impound unstamped or insufficiently stamped instruments and send them to the Collector.
3. Endorsement and Certification:
 - Once satisfied that duty and penalties are paid, the Collector endorses the instrument, making it valid for legal purposes.
4. Refund Applications:
 - Decides claims for refunds of spoiled, unused, or cancelled stamps under Sections 49–54.

Chief Controlling Revenue Authority – Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF highlights the role of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority (CCRA):

- Supervises Collectors across the State.
- Can call for records to check legality of orders passed by subordinate officers.
- May refer difficult questions of law to the High Court for guidance.
- Ensures consistency in interpretation and enforcement of stamp duty laws.

Role of Courts – Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal

Corrida Legal's commentary on the Indian Stamp Act 1899 PDF Corrida Legal notes that courts play an indirect but vital role:

- Courts cannot admit unstamped documents as evidence under Section 35.
- Judges are empowered to impound insufficiently stamped documents and forward them to the Collector for action.
- High Courts provide authoritative rulings on legal questions referred by revenue authorities.
- The Supreme Court has clarified stamping principles in landmark cases, reinforcing strict compliance.

Practical Impact – Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download

The Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download makes it clear that:

- The Collector's powers are quasi-judicial, balancing revenue collection with fairness.
- Businesses must often engage with the Collector for adjudication, deficit duty payments, or refunds.
- The CCRA ensures uniformity within States, while High Courts maintain consistency across jurisdictions.

Executive Summary of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF is a fiscal and compliance statute that governs the levy of stamp duty on instruments in India. Despite being enacted over a century ago, it remains central to revenue collection and legal enforceability of documents.

Key highlights include:

1. Scope of the Act: Extends across India, with States empowered to amend provisions and prescribe stamp duty rates for property and local transactions.
2. Chargeability: Stamp duty is levied on instruments, not transactions, covering agreements, conveyances, leases, mortgages, bonds, share transfers, and insurance policies.
3. Types of Duties: Duties may be fixed (for simple instruments) or ad valorem (calculated as a percentage of consideration or market value).
4. Mode of Payment: Duty can be paid through adhesive stamps, impressed stamps, or e-stamping, with digital methods now dominant.
5. Valuation Principles: Duty is payable on the higher of the stated consideration or market value, particularly in property transactions.
6. Consequences of Non-Stamping: Unstamped or insufficiently stamped documents are inadmissible in evidence (Section 35), and cannot be acted upon until duty and penalties are paid.
7. Penalties: Deficit duty may attract penalties up to ten times the shortfall, though courts apply discretion when defaults are not deliberate.
8. Adjudication: Parties may approach the Collector under Section 31 for certification of proper duty, ensuring legal certainty in complex transactions.
9. Refunds: Refunds of duty are allowed in limited cases such as spoiled, unused, or cancelled stamps, subject to strict timelines.
10. Authorities: The Act empowers the Collector and Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, with courts playing a supervisory role in enforcement.
11. Case Law Foundations: Key judgments like Hindustan Steel Ltd. v. Dilip Construction Co. (penalties), Avinash Kumar Chauhan v. Vijay Krishna Mishra (inadmissibility), and Khandaka Jain Jewellers (valuation) define compliance standards.
12. Modern Reforms: Adoption of e-stamping and harmonised duties on securities under the Finance Act reflect efforts to modernise this colonial-era statute.

Conclusion

The Indian Stamp Act 1899 Bare Act PDF has stood the test of time as one of India's most enduring fiscal and compliance statutes. While originally enacted during the colonial period, its provisions continue to be integral to India's legal and commercial framework. By regulating the levy of stamp duty on instruments, the Act ensures two vital objectives: steady revenue for governments and legal enforceability of documents.

For over a century, courts have consistently reinforced the principle that unstamped or inadequately stamped documents cannot be relied upon in legal proceedings. This makes stamping not just a financial obligation but a compliance imperative. Businesses, individuals, and legal practitioners must therefore treat stamp duty as an essential component of due diligence, particularly in property transactions, corporate dealings, and financial agreements.

Key takeaways include:

- Stamp duty applies to instruments, not transactions, making documentation the central focus of compliance.
- Duties may be fixed or ad valorem, with valuation often based on market value rather than stated consideration.
- Non-stamping or under-stamping can render documents inadmissible, while penalties may extend to ten times the deficit duty.
- Adjudication by the Collector offers a proactive solution for avoiding disputes, while refunds are possible but strictly regulated.
- The Act entrusts wide powers to revenue authorities, balanced by judicial oversight through High Courts and the Supreme Court.

Despite the rise of modern alternatives such as digital contracts and electronic governance, the Act continues to evolve through State amendments, judicial interpretation, and reforms like e-stamping. For instance, the harmonisation of stamp duty on securities under the Finance Act has brought greater clarity and uniformity to financial markets.

In today's environment, where businesses increasingly span multiple jurisdictions, compliance under the Bare Act PDF Indian Stamp Act 1899 Download requires careful attention to State-specific amendments and circle rate valuations. Corrida Legal's Indian Stamp Act 1899 Executive Summary PDF bridges the gap between the complex statutory text and practical application, providing professionals, corporates, and students with a reliable guide.

In conclusion: The Indian Stamp Act, 1899 remains a living law — a statute that is both historic and modern. It exemplifies the balance between fiscal necessity and legal certainty. Proper stamping ensures that documents are not only enforceable but also contribute to the financial backbone of the State. Its enduring relevance proves that compliance with this century-old Act is still a cornerstone of lawful business and governance in India.
